

*This is the story of,
Troubadours singing their hearts out,
about kings holding onto their rule.
fools rushing toward a fading youth.
a story about a father's proof of divine love,
a meditation of visceral revelation,
about our longing for a place in the sand.
this is the story of man and his fickle plan to rise from dust and become more than the land.
this is the story of something that is never lost but always, always forgot
no matter the protesting cost, because this is the story of glory.*

* * * *

*Andrew Hutto's perspective driven style gives
At the Moment; Oasis an immense yet ethereal feeling, making the reader feel a sanguine connection to something beyond themselves.*
