Queering Families Tamara Lea Spira,2025 Envisioning queer futures where we lovingly wager everything for the world s children the planet and all living beings against all odds and in increasingly precarious times Queering Families traces the shifting dominant meanings of queer family from the late twentieth century to today With this book Tamara Lea Spira highlights the growing embrace of normative family structures by LGBTQ movements calling into question how many queers once deemed unfit to parent have become contradictory agents within the US empire's racial and colonial agendas Simultaneously Queering Families celebrates the rich history of queer reproductive justice from the radical movements of the 1970s through the present led by Black decolonial and queer of color feminist activists Ultimately Spira argues that queering reproductive justice impels us to build communities of care to cherish and uphold the lives of those who defying normativity's violent stranglehold are deemed to be unworthy of life She issues the call to lovingly wager a future for the world's children the planet and all living beings against all odds and in increasingly perilous times

Queer(ing)

Communication Studies Ahmet Atay, Stephanie L. Young, 2024-12-15 In this edited volume contributors recognize and reflect on communication studies' queer past and examine the current state of queer theorizing within communication studies Through this reflection the book fills in gaps in the history of this sub discipline and demonstrates that even as scholars in the field empowered queer voices in the past they often failed to recognize the intersectional aspects of queer identity through which scholars can form new understandings of past scholarship in new queer eras Ultimately contributors collectively provide a critique for the lack of broader inclusion of queer theorization in the field and provide new pathways for the continued development of queer communication studies

Not Just Another Queer David R. Beecroft, 2008-02-06

Every person is unique At least we believe ourselves to be Many of us have a heightened sexuality With the latter group a common denominator must exist in the pulsating intensity and grinding confusion I have found in the rollercoaster ride which has been my sex life As a homosexual man who has breathed in more than half of the 20th and the beginning of the 21st Centuries I have experienced some privileged moments always with the knowledge of being a man set apart mostly because I am a Queer Looking back on my life I recognize it as a rich tapestry of favourable experiences my work as a successful hairdresser in the film industry in Toronto with celebrity acquaintances my family my friends my pets home music travel and my lovers Well the lovers don t all fall into the success category but do add colour to the picture Because of the dark wings of Depression which have hovered over me throughout much of my life the element of Joy has been elusive in spite of a splendid endowment of entitlement or plain old fashioned good luck bestowed on me by Fate My addiction to the pursuit of sexual gratification which has ruled my social patterns and actions since I was a child is all part of the story Sometimes I think it is my story
