MONET Judy Farrell,2015-01-01 We meet most of the Ontario Curriculum s specific expectations for the Visual Arts program by introducing a well known artist and examining his work We also provide a variety of enjoyable art extension activities to round out the unit Our unit provides activities designed to familiarize children with line colour shape form space and texture There are activities on all the elements of design mentioned and we have tried to show ways in which they can be related to real paintings You may want to start with the biography of Monet and the follow up activities Have your students look at some of his work and explain to them that he tried something new in painting which at first some people didn t accept but eventually came to like very much A visual quiz at the end of the unit might consist of identifying works by Monet when interspersed with the works of other artists Developing Arts Loving Readers Nan McDonald,Douglas

Fisher,2002-05-21 Developing Arts Loving Readers is based on the premise that children can and do learn a great deal about the arts and their own abilities innately Involvement and immersion author Nan L McDonald argues are the ways in which children may feel welcome to write move create draw and otherwise express ideas about art and music directly Teaching suggestions are offered to classroom teachers and other non specialists so that classroom reading activities may be extended into group discussions co operative learning arts projects and creative performances Appended are extensive resource lists for further integrated arts teaching in the classroom Patterns of Change Center for Gifted Education Staff,2003-08
