Over the Bridge Richard Church,1957      Over the Bridge Richard Thomas Church,1955      The Working Class at Home, 1790-1940 Joseph Harley,Vicky Holmes,Laika Nevalainen,2022-02-17 This book examines life in the homes inhabited by the working class over the long nineteenth century These working class homes are often imagined as distinctly unhomely spaces which the inhabitants struggled to fill with even the most basic of furniture let alone acquire the comforts associated with middle class domestic space The concerned reformers of industrialising towns and cities painted a picture of severe deprivation of rooms that were both cramped yet bare at the same time and disease ridden spaces from which their subjects required rescue It is an image which is not only inadequate but which also robs working class people of their agency in creating domestic spaces which allowed for the expression of personal and familial feeling Bringing together emerging scholars who challenge these ideas and using a range of innovative sources and approaches this edited collection presents a new understanding of working class homes      The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries      Love and Toil : Motherhood in Outcast London, 1870-1918 Ellen Ross Professor of Women's Studies Ramapo College,1993-10-19 The history of the British working class has until recently been written with a focus on the workplace or on such male organizations as clubs unions or national political parties This study of mothers in London before World War I stresses the distinctiveness of their experiences from those of other classes and of the post World War I period and demonstrates the ways in which mothers and their domestic choices were essential to the survival and cultural perpetuation of the working classes      Love and Toil Ellen Ross,1993 The feisty warm hearted mum has long figured as a symbol of the working class in Britain yet working class history has emphasized male organizations such as clubs unions or political parties Investigating a different dimension of social history Love and Toil focuses on motherhood among the London poor in the late Victorian and Edwardian years and on the cultures communities and ties with husbands and children that women created Mothers skills in managing the family budget earning income and caring for their children were critical in protecting households from the worst hardships of industrial capitalism yet poverty or the threat of it molded intimate relationships and left its imprint on personalities This book is also a case study demonstrating the larger argument that the concept of motherhood is more socially and historically constructed than biologically determined Shaky household economics pressure toward respectability

the close proximity of neighbors the precariousness of infant and child life and little chance of better lives for their children shaped the work and emotions of motherhood much more than did the biological experiences of pregnancy birth and lactation This beautifully written book embellished with Cockney slang and music hall songs addresses fascinating questions in the fields of women s studies labor history social policy and family history pub description      Women, Autobiography, Theory Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women s autobiography Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe A list of more than 200 women s autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars teachers and readers      Contemporary Novelists James Vinson, 1972 Extensive reference guide to most important living novelists in the English language      New Perspectives on James Weldon Johnson's "The Autobiography of an Ex-Colored Man" Noelle Morrisette, 2017-07-15 James Weldon Johnson 1871 1938 exemplified the ideal of the American public intellectual as a writer educator songwriter diplomat key figure of the Harlem Renaissance and first African American executive of the NAACP Originally published anonymously in 1912 Johnson s novel The Autobiography of an Ex-Colored Man is considered one of the foundational works of twentieth century African American literature and its themes and forms have been taken up by other writers from Ralph Ellison to Teju Cole Johnson s novel provocatively engages with political and cultural strains still prevalent in American discourse today and it remains in print over a century after its initial publication New Perspectives contains fresh essays that analyze the book s reverberations the contexts within which it was created and received the aesthetic and intellectual developments of its author and its continuing influence on American literature and global culture Contributors Bruce Barnhart Lori Brooks Ben Glaser Jeff Karem Daphne Lamothe Noelle Morrisette Michael Nowlin Lawrence J Oliver Diana Paulin Amritjit Singh Robert B Stepto      Contemporary Novelists , 1982      The Founders on God and Government Daniel L. of emplotments applied to historical writing and Byron Almén's theory of musical narrative The sheer quantity of what has been written about Frye reveals that the only valid response to Eagleton's rhetorical question is a very large and growing number the growth being not incremental but exponential      Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04
