Overthrowing Geography Jaffa Tel Aviv And The Struggle For Palestine 1880 1948:

Overthrowing Geography ,2005 Social Mobilization in the Arab/Israeli War of 1948 Moshe Naor,2013-08-21 In many ways the Arab Israeli war of 1948 is typical of the total military conflicts that characterized the first half of the twentieth century However in addition to the military course of the war and its formative and revolutionary ramifications this war was also notable for the social mobilization of the Israeli population Social Mobilization in the Arab Israeli War of 1948 focuses on these civilian aspects of the war the involvement of the Israeli home front in the fighting and the participation of society in the process of mobilization Israeli civil society organizations played an active and central role in mobilizing the economy for the war effort mobilizing personnel for military service for labor and for the emergency services and in organizing the home front The function of Israeli society and civil organizations in processes of mobilization conducted against the background of the end of the British mandate and the establishment of the State of Israel was one of the principal factors that contributed to the Israeli military victory in the 1948 war Civilian aspects of the 1948 war have received little attention despite the opening of the archives in the 1980s As such Social Mobilization in the Arab Israeli War of 1948 is an important contribution particularly for those interested in Israeli History Jewish History Middle Eastern History the Arab Israeli conflict and War Studies Zionism and Land Tenure in Mandate Palestine Aida Essaid,2013-12-04 A fundamental aspect of the conflict between Palestinians and Israelis is the territorial dispute which began long before the State of Israel was established Analysing the land tenure system in Palestine under the administration of the British Mandate this book questions whether and to what extent the land tenure system in Palestine facilitated Zionist land acquisition The research uses benchmarks elaborated in the guidelines of the United Nations Human Settlements Programme as its analytical starting point and looks at the formation and implementation of the land tenure system in Palestine It goes on to place the penetration of Zionism into the land tenure system within the theoretical context of a colonial settler framework employing information from land registry records located at the Jordanian Department of Lands Providing a political historical analysis of the land tenure system from the end of Ottoman Rule until the end of the British Mandate this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Middle Eastern History Imperial and Colonial History and Middle Eastern Politics Zionism Derek J. Penslar,2023-06-16 This volume reconsiders the history of Zionism through the lens of emotion By highlighting the series of emotional states that are key to any national or social movement including the Zionist project Penslar shows how Zionism is distinct for the breadth and depth of feeling of those engaged in it of outside observers and of its opponents Lightning through the Clouds Mark Sanagan,2020-05-03 Lightning through the Clouds is the first English language life and times biography of Izz al Din al Qassam a preeminent figure who helped to reshape the political and religious landscape of the region A Syrian born Egyptian educated cleric he went from the battlefields of World War I to join the anticolonialist fight against the French in Syria Sentenced to be executed by the French military he managed to escape to Palestine where he became an increasingly popular presence moved by the plight of the poor and disenfranchised Outraged by British rule and the encroachment of Zionism he formed a secret society to resist the colonization of Palestine first by the British and then by Jewish immigrants from Europe once again taking up arms and advocating for a moral political and military jihad as the only solution His death at the hands of Palestinian police in 1935 drew thousands to his funeral and sparked the 1936 1939 Arab Revolt His influence continues to be felt in the region for example the military wing of the Palestinian Hamas organization is named the Izz al Din al Qassam Brigade Al Qassam is either revered or reviled depending on the observers perspective but he is without doubt a fascinating and historically significant person whose influence on the past and our present makes this examination of his life both important and timely

Citizenship and the Legitimacy of Governance Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2016-05-23 Against the background of unease at the increasingly loose and conflictual relationship between citizenship and governance this book brings together rich ethnographic studies from EU member states and post Communist and Middle Eastern countries in the Mediterranean Region to illustrate the crisis of legitimacy inherent in the weakening link between political responsibility and trust in the exercise of power With close attention to the impact of the ambiguities and distortions of governance at the local level and their broader implications at the international level where a state s legitimacy depends on its democratic credentials Citizenship and the Legitimacy of Governance initiates a comparative discussion of the relationship between established moralities politics law and civil society in a highly diversified region with a strong history of cultural exchange Demonstrating that a comparative anthropological analysis has much to offer to our understanding this volume reveals that the city is a crucial arena for the renegotiation of citizenship democracy and belonging

Uncertain Empire Elizabeth E. Imber, 2025-04-08 Following the British conquest of Ottoman Palestine Jews across the British Empire from Jerusalem to Johannesburg London to Calcutta found themselves at the heart of global Jewish political discourse As these intellectuals politicians activists and communal elites navigated shifting political landscapes some envisioned Palestine as a British dominion leveraging imperial power for Jewish state building while others fostered ties with anticolonial movements contemplating independent national aspirations Uncertain Empire considers this intricate interplay between British imperialism Zionism and anticolonial movements from the 1917 British conquest of Palestine to the establishment of the state of Israel in 1948 Elizabeth Imber highlights diverse and sometimes conflicting visions of Jewish political futures offering detailed case studies of key figures including Chaim Arlosoroff Moshe Shertok Helen Bentwich Rachel Ezra and Hermann Kallenbach She explores a politics of uncertainty in which Jews engaged with both imperial stability and the rise of anticolonial mobilization when many were likewise forced to reconsider Palestine as a viable refuge and political solution Ultimately this book provides a nuanced understanding of how the British Empire s fate became central to Zionist and broader Jewish political thought revealing the complex intersections of empire state power and Jewish politics during a time marked by profound urgency and exigency Patrick Geddes and Town Planning Noah

Hysler-Rubin,2013-12-16 Patrick Geddes is considered a forefather of the modern urban planning movement This book studies the various and even opposing ways in which Geddes has been interpreted up to this day providing a new reading of his life writing and plans Geddes scrutiny is presented as a case study for Town Planning as a whole Tying together for the first time key concepts in cultural geography and colonial urbanism the book proposes a more vigorous historiography exposing hidden narratives and past agendas still dominating the disciplinary discourse Written by a cultural geographer and a town planner this book offers a rounded full length analysis of Geddes vision and its material manifestation functioning also as a much needed critical tool to evaluate Modern Town Planning as an academic and practical discipline The book also includes a long overdue model of his urban theory White Supremacy, Settler Colonialism, Modernist Architecture, and Contemporary Preservation Robert Flahive,2025-06-27 This book examines the afterlives of the built environment produced through early 20th century settler colonialism The author analyzes contemporary architectural preservationists narrative strategies to remake what were designed as racialized European zones in opposition to Indigenous zones as white cities through the documentation preservation and addition to the UNESCO World Heritage List This book interrogates the fashioning of white cities through ethnographic methods with local architectural preservationists and primary sources such as World Heritage Committee meeting notes and World Heritage List nomination files and inscription materials in the preservation of built form in Asmara Bras lia Casablanca Rabat and Tel Aviv The book is aimed at scholars and students interested in the politics of the built environment spatial politics urban studies architectural history international relations urban geopolitics settler colonialism international organizations and the politics of commemoration Partitions Arie M.

Dubnov,Laura Robson,2019-01-29 Partition the physical division of territory along ethno religious lines into separate nation states is often presented as a successful political solution to ethnic conflict In the twentieth century at least three new political entities the Irish Free State the Dominions later Republics of India and Pakistan and the State of Israel emerged as results of partition This volume offers the first collective history of the concept of partition tracing its emergence in the aftermath of the First World War and locating its genealogy in the politics of twentieth century empire and decolonization Making use of the transnational framework of the British Empire which presided over the three major partitions of the twentieth century contributors draw out concrete connections among the cases of Ireland Pakistan and Israel the mutual influences shared personnel economic justifications and material interests that propelled the idea of partition forward and resulted in the violent creation of new post colonial political spaces In so doing the volume seeks to move beyond the nationalist frameworks that served in the first instance to promote partition as a natural phenomenon The Challenge of

Change: Dealing with the Legacy of the Modern Movement Dirk van den Heuvel, Maarten Mesman, Bert

Lemmens,2008-09-15 Conservation of architecture and the conversation of Modern architecture in particular has assumed new challenges Rather than attempting to return a Modern building to its resumed original state the challenge of these proceedings is to revalue the essence of the manifold manifestations of Modern architecture and redefine its meanings in a rapidly changing world of digital revolution worldwide mobility and environmental awareness This volume aims to provide a variety of platforms for the exchange of ideas and experience A large international group of architects historians scholars preservationists and other parties involved in the processes of preserving renovating and transforming Modern buildings has been invited to investigate the paradox of the Modern monument and to reflect on the manifold dilemmas of change and continuity The general theme is elaborated through five sub themes The sub theme Change and Continuity addresses the tensions between change and continuity from a historical theoretical perspective Restructuring Cities and Landscapes focuses on the larger scale of city and landscape while Shifts in Programme and Flexibility draws attention to the scale of the building or building complex and questions limits of re use and flexibility The fourth sub theme deals with education and the fifth sub theme Progress Technology and Sustainability considers specific issues of techniques and materials A Cultural History of Waste Disposal Benjamin A. Lawson,2024-12-11 This book offers a historical analysis of landfill sites in New York City Greater Toronto and Greater Tel Aviv and uses them as case studies to emphasize the international and global scale of issues concerning waste disposal and park redevelopments New York Toronto and Tel Aviv are currently redeveloping giant landfills into parks to much fanfare The park redevelopments may be seen as an attempt to erase or assuage the decades of problematic waste disposal policy that led to the creation of such large landfills Booster rhetoric underscores this point such as promoting how the parks will be a green lung for the city This book contextualizes these redevelopments by offering a historical analysis providing a greater understanding of the past current and future potential issues It goes on to analyze the language and media coverage surrounding former waste sites becoming park redevelopments including how cities use art to promote their image and gain cultural relevance By engaging with both the works of waste historians and literature on waste and discard studies the book provides theoretical models for analyzing the role of power in municipal systems as well as human and ecological impacts on waste It concludes with an analysis of the features necessary for landfill parks to be successful This book will be useful for scholars researchers and academics studying waste studies the environment cities and sustainable development as well as for policymakers and environmental eco artists Ordinary Jerusalem, 1840-1940 Angelos Dalachanis,Vincent Lemire,2018-08-13 In Ordinary Jerusalem Angelos Dalachanis Vincent Lemire and thirty five scholars depict the ordinary history of an extraordinary global city in the late Ottoman and Mandate periods Utilizing largely unknown archives they revisit the holy city of three religions which has often been defined solely as an eternal battlefield and studied exclusively through the prism of geopolitics and religion At the core of their analysis are topics and issues developed by the European Research Council funded project Opening Jerusalem Archives For a Connected History of Citadinit in the Holy City 1840 1940 Drawn from the French vocabulary of geography and urban sociology the concept of citadinit describes the dynamic identity relationship a city's inhabitants develop with each other and with their urban environment

Water Security for Palestinians and Israelis Christopher Ward, Isabelle Learmont, Sandra Ruckstuhl, 2021-11-04 Shared water resources in Israel and Palestine are often the site of political economic historical legal and ethical contestation In this the second of two volumes on the subject the authors look beyond the political tensions of the region to argue for the need for shared water security and co operative resource management Winning Water Security for Palestinians and Israelis the authors assess water security in terms of security of access to water resources security of access to water services and security against risks to and from water The volume compares and contrasts Israelis remarkable water security with the corresponding water insecurity of the Palestinians The authors also set out the practical economic legal and ethical rationale for a revised cooperation on water security between the two peoples proposing a workable scheme for putting into practice a new form of cooperation that would hope to benefit both peoples and strengthen their water security

Hydrofictions Boast Hannah Boast, 2020-07-06 Water is a major global issue that will shape our future Rarely however has water been the subject of literary critical attention This book identifies water as a crucial new topic of literary and cultural analysis at a critical moment for the world's water resources focusing on the urgent context of Israel Palestine It argues for the necessity of recognising water's vital importance in understanding contemporary Israeli and Palestinian literature showing that water is as culturally significant as that much more obvious object of nationalist attention the land In doing so it offers new insights into Israeli and Palestinian literature and politics and into the role of culture in an age of environmental crisis Hydrofictions shows that how we imagine water is inseparable from how we manage it This book is urgent and necessary reading for students and scholars in Middle East Studies postcolonial ecocriticism the environmental humanities and anyone invested in the future of the world's water

Edward Said Debjani Ganguly, Ned Curthoys, 2015-03-25 This collection is an enterprise of discovery and critical inquiry into the legacy of one of late modernity's greatest public intellectuals Edward Said Noted contributors including Bill Ashcroft John Docker Lisa Lowe Hsu ming Teo and Patrick Wolfe address an array of intellectual political and cultural issues in their engagement with Said's oeuvre Exciting new scholarship highlights the ways in which humanities in the twenty first century can engage with Said's legacy which includes his imbrications of culture and imperialism his cosmopolitan critique of the idea of clash of civilisations and his belief that the intellectual needs to maintain intellectual performances on many fronts The individual chapters achieve a sense of balance between the two poles of Said's persona the brilliant and intimidating literary and music critic who invested deeply in an inclusive and democratic vision of humanism and the outspoken public intellectual who kept alive the truth of Palestine and the dangers of a settler colonial ethos

Loose Space Karen Franck, Quentin Stevens, 2006-10-16 In cities around the world people use a variety of public spaces to relax to protest to buy and sell to experiment and to celebrate Loose Space explores the many ways that urban residents with creativity and determination appropriate public space to meet their own needs and desires Familiar or unexpected spontaneous or planned momentary or long lasting the activities that make urban space loose continue to give cities life and vitality The book examines physical spaces and how people use them Contributors discuss a wide range of recreational commercial and political activities some are conventional others are more experimental Some of the activities occur alongside the intended uses of planned public spaces such as sidewalks and plazas other activities replace former uses as in abandoned warehouses and industrial sites The thirteen case studies international in scope demonstrate the continuing richness of urban public life that is created and sustained by urbanites themselves Presents a fresh way of looking at urban public space focusing on its positive uses and aspects Comprises 13 detailed well illustrated case studies based on sustained observation and research by social scientists architects and urban designers Looks at a range of activities both everyday occurrences and more unusual uses in a variety of public spaces planned leftover and abandoned Explores the spatial and the behavioral considers the wider historical and social context Addresses issues of urban research architecture urban design and planning Takes a broad international perspective with cases from New York London Berlin Amsterdam Rome Guadalajara Athens Tel Aviv Melbourne Bangkok Kandy Buffalo and the North of England Cities of God and Nationalism Khaldoun Samman, 2015-12-03 A tour de force in different fields of knowledge It takes world city and world history literatures to a higher level of depth and understanding It is difficult to imagine a more pioneering in depth study of world cities Ramon Grosfoguel Professor Department of Ethnic Studies University of California Berkeley A remarkable and original discussion of three great sacred cities across time and their transformation by nationalism in the modern world Immanuel Wallerstein Yale University Far from spawning an age of tolerance modernity has created the social basis of division and exclusion This book elaborates this provocative claim as it explores the rich but divided histories of three cities located at the crossroads of Islam Christianity and Judaism Many observers presume that violence is built into these sacred cities because their citizens cling to religious or cultural ideals of some archaic age only when this history is overcome can citizens enter a new age of brotherhood Samman persuades us to refocus our attention on modernity which has instilled troubling dilemmas from the outside He shows how these sacred places long ago entered the modern world where global political and economic forces exacerbate nationalism and regional divisions If we are to resolve deep conflicts we must re imagine the institutional basis on which modernity rather than religion is built
