The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry

by Dr. Farshad Sonboldel,
University of California, San Diego

Farshad Sonboldel shines new light on the history of modern Persian poetry by re-imagining the roles that the aesthetic experimentations of alternative poets played in different phases of the literary revolution in modern Persian poetry. Dominant narratives portray modern Persian poetry as a gradual, rational, and moderate change in the classical regime of aesthetics as well as a response to – and reflection of – cultural and socio-political changes within Iranian society. They also disregard the significance of radical experiments by alternative poets and undervalue the part they played in the initiation and progress of the so-called «literary revolution.» These mainstream narratives minimize the socio-political engagement of literary works with the direct reflection of the social reality, and thus neglect the way many alternative poems struggle with socio-political issues through deconstructing the old and constructing new aesthetic systems.

Each chapter of The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry is centred around poems chosen for their potential to showcase notable experiments of pioneer movements and individuals in each given period. Examining the formal and thematic aspects of these poems, this book reformulates the story of modern Persian poetry and unravels the relationship between radical aesthetic changes in the practice of poetry and resistance against political and cultural domination in society.

Farshad Sonboldel is the World History and Cultures Librarian at the University of California, San Diego. He earned his PhD in Modern Languages from the University of St. Andrews, following a Masters in Persian Language and Literature from the University of Tehran. In addition to his academic research and publications in English, he is an award-winning poet, literary critic, and researcher in Persian, in which he has published four books: two selections of poems, titled Metropolis (2015) and She'r-e Boland-e Sharayet (2019); Gozarash-e Nahab-e Jonbesh-e Adabi-e Shahrin (2016), a research monograph on the works of an avant-garde Persian poet of the first half of the twentieth century; and an edited volume on current trends in the literary criticism of Persian literature, titled Naqd-e Irad. His most recent book, The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry, was published in 2024 by Bloomsbury Academic. Sonboldel is the editor of MELA Notes: The Journal of the Middle East Librarians' Association. He is currently a Bahari Fellow in the Persian Arts of the Book, Bodleian Libraries, University of Oxford.

Anthology of Modern Persian Poetry Ehsan Yarshatar,1958 The Neighbor Says Nīmā Yūshīj,2009 This is a collection of the letters of Nima Yushij 1897 1960 the prominent 20th century Iranian poet who is regarded as the founder and father of modern Persian poetry Nima Yushij devoted his life to his art and advocating his innovative style in poetry mostly through his correspondences The letters in The Neighbor Says are addressed to an imaginary neighbour or acquaintance Although in many instances he comments on specific poems or stories that are assumed to have been sent to him by the person he addresses in his letters it gradually becomes clear to the reader that the Neighbour might not exist but that he might be an alter ego of the poet a device with which the author can expound his ideas about poetry The importance of the letters lies in the fact that Nima Yushij employs them as a vehicle through which to express his philosophy ideas and vision for a modern innovative and revolutionary approach to the art of poetry In these letters which may serve as his manifesto for modern Persian poetry Nima Yushij discusses often in detail what he means by modern prosody why he more or less but not always abandons the classical rules of versification how his vision and understanding of modern life and modern man differs from that of his predecessors ie Persian poetic giants such as Rumi Hafez Sa di Ferdowsi and Nezami This is the literary tradition that Nima Yushij challenges He challenges the traditions in the society and the traditional ways not only by writing poetry that sounds strange and unfamiliar is difficult to understand as many of his contemporary readers were inclined to believe and breaking the traditional rules of prosody and diction but also introducing his own rules of prosody and a new poetic vocabulary The volume also includes an essay on an important usually neglected aspect of the writings of Nima Yushij namely his short stories which should be considered indispensable to an under standing and appreciation of his poetry

Forugh Farrokhzad, Poet of Modern Iran Dominic Parviz Brookshaw,Nasrin Rahimieh,2010 The pioneering Iranian poet and filmmaker Forugh Farrokhzad was an iconic figure in her own day and has come to represent the spirit of revolt against patriarchal and cultural norms in 1960s Iran Four decades after her tragic death at the age of 32 Forugh Farrokhzad

The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry Farshad Sonbol, 2024-02-08 An analysis of the aesthetic cultural and political aspects of alternative poetic movements and individual poets in three periods the Constitutional Revolution 1900 1920 the post constitutional era 1920 1940 and the ascendancy of modernism 1940 1960 Farshad Sonbol shines new light on the history of modern Persian poetry by reimagining the roles that the aesthetic experimentations of alternative poets played in different phases of the literary revolution in modern Persian poetry Dominant narratives portray modern Persian poetry as a gradual rational and moderate change in the classical regime of aesthetics as well as a response to and reflection of cultural and socio political changes within Iranian society They also disregard the significance of radical experiments by alternative poets and undervalue the part they played in the initiation and progress of the so called literary revolution These mainstream narratives minimize the socio political engagement of literary works with the direct reflection of the social reality and thus neglect the way many alternative poems struggle with socio political issues through deconstructing the old and constructing new aesthetic systems Each chapter of The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry is centred around poems chosen for their potential to showcase notable experiments of pioneer movements and individuals in each given period Examining the formal and thematic aspects of these poems this book reformulates the story of modern Persian poetry and unravels the relationship between radical aesthetic changes in the practice of poetry and resistance against political and cultural domination in society

Towards a Modern Iran Elie Kedourie, Sylvia G. Haim, 2013-12-19 First Published in 1980 The events which took place in Iran during the time of original publication took the world by surprise A little reflection however will suggest that they were not inexplicable prodigies They constitute rather a manifestation albeit sudden and astonishing of a social intellectual and political crisis in the throes of which Iran has found itself The eleven studies included in this book are devoted to the examination of one or other aspect of this crisis and aim to clarify the origins and character of the crisis

Hamid R. Rahimi, 2020-05-31 An Anthology of Modern Persian Poetry in Farsi I was asked why my poems are so short and in response I said I am of the belief that today's individuals have neither patience nor time Based on such their poetry must be like a pill pop it and run
