Franchini, 2018-06-13 Extensive work is a result of four year research within the international project Women's Creativity since the Modern Movement and brings new insights into women in architecture construction design urban planning and landscape architecture in Europe and in the rest of the world It is divided into eight chapters that combine 116 articles on topics A Women's education and training National and international mappings B Women's legacy and heritage Protection restoration and enhancement C Women in communication and professional networks D Women and cultural tourism E Women s achievements and professional attainments Moving boundaries F Women and sustainability City and Landscape G Women as subjects Documentation methodology interpretation and enhancement SG Design drawings Obse no deloje plod tiriletnih raziskav v okviru mednarodnega projekta MoMoWo enska ustvarjalnost od modernizma dalje in prina a nova spoznanja na podro ju ensk v arhitekturi gradbeni tvu oblikovanju urbanizmu in krajinski arhitekturi v Evropi in ir e Razdeljena je v osem poglavij ki zdru ujejo 116 prispevkov na temo o njihovi izobra enosti kulturni zapu ini vklju evanju v stanovska zdru enja ali njihovim prispevkom h kulturnemu turizmu in stroki ter raziskovanju njihovega dela Zaklju i jo poglavje z grafi nimi prilogami The Sixties and Beyond Nancy Christie, Stephen J. Heathorn, Michael Gauvreau, 2013-03-07 In the decades following the Second World War North America and Western Europe experienced widespread secularization and dechristianization many scholars have pinpointed the 1960s as a pivotally important period in this decline The Sixties and Beyond examines the scope and significance of dechristianization in the western world between 1945 and 2000 A thematically wide ranging and interdisciplinary collection The Sixties and Beyond uses a framework that compares the social and cultural experiences of North America and Western Europe during this period The internationally based contributors examine the dynamic place of Christianity in both private lives and public discourses and practices by assessing issues such as gender relations family life religious education the changing relationship of church and state and the internal dynamics of religious organizations The Sixties and Beyond is an excellent contribution to the burgeoning scholarship on the 1960s as well as to the history of Christianity in the western world The Inner Quarters and Beyond ,2010-07-14 Only recently has the enormous literary output of women writers of the Ming and Qing periods 1368 1911 been rediscovered Through these valuable texts we apprehend in ways not possible earlier the complexity of women s experiences in the inner quarters and their varied responses to challenges facing state and society Writing in many genres women engaged with topics as varied as war travel illness love friendship female heroism and religion Drawing on a library of newly digitized resources this volume s eleven chapters describe analyze and theorize these materials They question previous assumptions about women s lives and abilities open up new critical space in Chinese literary history and offer new perspectives on China's culture and society This volume rewrites the history of Chinese women's literature by taking a truly inter disciplinary instead of merely multi disciplinary approach In so doing it ends up illuminating the centrality of writing women to the social political and intellectual lives of the Chinese empire from the seventeenth to the nineteenth centuries

Prof Dorothy Ko Barnard College Columbia University author of Cinderella's Sisters A Revisionist History of Footbinding Women and Redemption Rosemary Radford Ruether, 2011-09 Rosemary Radford Ruether's authoritative California 2005 award winning critique of women s unequal standing in the church which explored the complex history of redemption in evaluating conflict over the fundamental meaning of the Christian gospel for gender relations is now in an updated and expanded edition Ruether highlights women theologians work to challenge the patriarchal paradigm of historical theology and to present redemption linked to the liberation of women Ruether turns her attention to the situation of women globally and how the growing plurality of women s voices from multicultural and multireligious contexts articulates feminist liberation theology today Publisher description Descartes and the Modern Gordon McOuat, Neil Robertson, Tom Vinci, 2009-03-26 Descartes is not simply our iconic modern philosopher mathematician or scientist He stands as the cultural symbol for modernity itself As such Descartes is widely read in and out of universities as the definitive moment in the birth of what we take to be the Modern Yet recent scholarship has presented numerous challenges to the Cartesian image Some question the legitimacy of calling Descartes a founder of modernity Others have questioned the very legitimacy of Modernity itself using Descartes as a way into that critique This collection of original papers by leading philosophers and historians of early modern thought opens up these questions exploring them in new and markedly interdisciplinary ways offering fresh insights into the important relationship between Descartes and the Modern and the very meaning and status of Modernity itself This collection assembles together for the first time leading representatives from what might be called the naturalist or Anglo American school with those of the continental phenomenological school in a dialogue concerning Descartes place The papers explore crucial questions and recent disputes regarding Descartes relationship to his predecessors to his contemporaries and to modern thought to the philosophy of mind to questions of metaphysics and natural philosophy Descartes and the Modern helps bridge solitudes drawn between these traditional approaches to Descartes Narrating Architecture James Madge, Andrew Peckham, 2006-09-27 This anthology brings together the best and most interesting papers from the first ten years of The Journal of Architecture published together for the first time in a single volume Covering a wide range of topics of central importance to architecture today the papers also address the related topics to which architecture and architectural studies are inextricably linked The invited authors draw on sociology philosophy cultural studies and the sciences to round out the collection and highlight the breadth and vitality of modern architectural studies offering perspectives from different disciplines as well as different corners of the globe Conceptualizing Women's Studies Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2024-03-22 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels Catalog of Copyright Entries. larger social order Shakespeare was interested in such women s plight how they were lost and where they might have gone Characters like Shakespeare's Cordelia and Perdita Rosalind and Celia constitute a collection of figures related to the mythical Persephone who famously returns to her mother and the earth each spring only to withdraw from the world each winter when she is recalled to the underworld That women s place is far from home has received little attention from literary scholars however and the story of their fraught relation to domestic space or success outside its bounds is one that hasn t been told Women and Mobility investigates the ways Shakespeare's plays link female characters agency with their mobility and thus represent women s ties to the household as less important than their connections to the larger world outside Female migration is crucial to ideas about what early modern communities must retain and expel in order to carve a shared history identity and moral framework and in portraying women as sometime daughters who frequently renounce fathers and homelands or queens elsewhere whose links to faraway places are vital to the rebuilding of homes and kingdoms Shakespeare also depicts global space as shared space and the moral world as an international one Dangerous Women Elaine H. Kim, Chungmoo Choi, 2012-11-12 Dangerous Women addresses the themes of Korean nationalism and gender construction as well as various issues related to the colonialization and decolonialization of the Korean nation The contributors explore the troubled category of woman placing it in the specific context of a marginalized and colonized nation But Korean women are not merely configured here as metaphors for an emasculated and infantilized homeland they are also shown to be products of a problematic gender construction that originates in Korea and extends even today to Korean communities beyond Asia Representations of Korean women still attempt to confine them to the status of either mother or prostitute Dangerous Women rectifies that construction offering a feminist intervention that might recuperate womanhood

Oxford Handbook of Sociology, Social Theory and Organization Studies Paul S. Adler, Paul du Gay, Glenn Morgan, Michael Reed, 2014-10-16 Sociology and social theory has always been a major source of new perspectives for organization studies Access to a series of authoritative accounts of theorists and research themes in sociology and social theory which have influenced developments in organization studies is essential for those wishing to deepen and extend their knowledge of the intersection of sociology and organization studies This goal is achieved by drawing on a group of internationally renowned scholars committed in their own work to strengthening these links and asking them to provide critical accounts of particular theorists and research themes which have straddled this divide This volume aims to strengthen ties between organization studies and contemporary sociological work at a time when there are increasing institutional barriers to such cooperation potentially generating a myopia that constricts new developments Used in conjunction with its companion volume The Oxford Handbook of Sociology and Organization Studies Classical foundations the reader is provided with a comprehensive account of the productive and critical interaction between sociology and organization studies over many decades Highly international in scope theorists and themes are drawn from both the USA and Europe in equal measure

Similarly the authors of the chapters are drawn from both sides of the Atlantic The result is a series of chapters on individuals and key research themes and debates which will provide faculty and post graduate researchers with appreciative authoritative and critical accounts that can be drawn on to design courses or provided guided reading to the field

Curating Differently Jessica Sjöholm Skrubbe,2016-01-14 Exhibitionary spaces and curatorial strategies ideologically frame the encounter between art and its publics For more than forty years feminist art curating as a practice of art interpretation and a politics of display has intersected with the diverse area of feminist art historical research and feminist artistic practices. It is only recently however that a theorization of feminist art curating and feminist exhibition histories as a specific field of knowledge has emerged Curating Differently is a collection of essays that offers critical perspectives on and analyses of the intersections of feminisms art exhibitions and curatorial spaces from the 1970s onward It brings together case studies from Australia Israel Europe and North America that critically account for diverse strategies and interventions in curatorial space. The essays contribute with historical perspectives on feminist exhibition practices and curatorial models and first hand accounts of feminist interventions within the art museum as well as timely analyses of current intersections of feminisms within curating in the contemporary global art world As a major contribution to the ongoing scholarly debate on the institutionalization of feminisms in art and its relative success or failure Curating Differently will provide new insights and provoke further discussion on the history and theory of feminist art exhibitions and curatorial spaces.
