Moments of Negotiation Jürgen Pieters, 2001 Moments of Negotiation offers the first book length and indepth analysis of the New Historicist reading method which the American Shakespeare scholar Stephen Greenblatt introduced at the beginning of the 1980s Ever since Greenblatt has been hailed as the prime representative of this movement whose critical acclaim has been one of the dominant trends in recent literary and cultural studies In this new book J rgen Pieters attempts to fill a remarkable lacuna in the critical reception of Greenblatt s work The book s aim is to provide a thorough analysis of the theoretical background of Greenblatt s method This involves not only a close reading of Greenblatt s sources the book offers introductory surveys of the work of Mikhail Bakhtin Michel Foucault Louis Althusser Pierre Macherey Michel de Certeau Jean Fran ois Lyotard Raymond Williams and Stuart Hall but also a critique of the way in which he adapts and transforms their original insights in the framework of his own interdisciplinary method This book is of interest to students and scholars coming from a diverse range of fields literary theory cultural history early modern studies Shakespeare studies theory and practice of history The Fugitive Identity of Mediation Debbie De Girolamo, 2013-07-18 Despite much having been written about what mediation is direct observations of commercial mediations are limited This book grants an opportunity to observe mediation in action and also provides external commentary about the actions observed The book approaches Mediation ethnographically as a social process that is informed by structures rules and norms that colour the environment within which it operates Through the ethnographic method a process leading to negotiated order is examined baring its elements identifying its influences and studying the movement to order The result is the reconceptualization of mediation The mediator is invited into the negotiation as third party intervener He creates the process of mediation defining the process by his actions which ultimately merges mediator with process This book provides a window to the lived experience of participants to mediation it explores their understandings of and interactions within a process they have experienced together and demonstrates how mediation is a process inextricably linked to negotiation The Fugitive Identity of Mediation will be of interest to scholars mediators parties who participate in the process and to those active in public policy discourse Using Young Adult Literature to Work through Wobble Moments in Teacher Education Dawan Coombs, Jon Ostenson, 2022-07-25 This volume offers a novel approach to exploring how literary response groups can be used as part of teacher education programs to help preservice teachers navigate wobble moments Focusing uniquely on the potential of young adult literature YAL the text draws on the first hand experiences of teacher candidates and uses a range of well known books to demonstrate how narrative based inquiry and analysis of fictional depictions of teaching and learning can support reflection on a range of common challenges The volume presents how YAL literary response groups are shown to enhance participants ability to reflect on practice build resilience and develop deeper understanding of pedagogical principles by offering a shared dialogical space These insights ultimately contribute to teacher education program improvement by

Executive Diplomacy and the Art of Strategic Negotiations By Marc Burbridge What does it take for a manager or executive to be something more than just another in the myriad of those who make up corporate leadership or for a corporate culture to be more than just one more follow me This book provides a new fresh look at how things can be and it does so by simple taking a few lessons from the ancient art of diplomacy and applying them to the Executive Diplomat and a corporate culture described as Executive Diplomacy Typically corporate executives are taught and encouraged to be assertive bordering on aggressive and so they often are They do so without realizing that one can easily be assertive while failing to be effective In the same manner they celebrate the signing of a contract while ignoring that the objective is not the signing of the contract but rather its effective implementation Often their bonus blinds them from the value of a more diplomatic approach a more lucrative one We invite the reader to step beyond yesterday and explore something new and innovative where empowered executive alignment opens the pathway to a more meaningful corporate culture and better results in high value strategic negotiations in the new reality We suggest you start with the Preface of this book or by visiting www.executivediplomacy.org

Negotiation Dynamics to Denuclearize North Korea Su-Mi Lee,Terence Roehrig,2023-05-01 Was there ever a window of opportunity for successful negotiations over North Korea s nuclear weapons program Negotiation Dynamics to Denuclearize

North Korea brings together country experts with negotiation specialists to apply negotiation theory to the North Korea denuclearization process. Country expert chapters provide a detailed assessment of the goals, motives, and strategies of the six parties: North Korea, South Korea, the United States, China, Japan, and Russia, along with contextual variables of each player such as political, economic, and social conditions, while the negotiation scholars collate and scrutinize the results of these key variables. Based on thorough descriptive contexts provided by the country experts, the negotiation scholars identify the lack of two factors: party cohesion and ripeness as detriments to successful North Korea nuclear negotiations.

Reframing Peace Mediation Owen Frazer, 2024-08-02. This book explains how facilitative mediators, those without material leverage, contribute to progress in peace negotiations. While existing theories of mediation have offered suggestions about what a mediator should get parties to do to reach an agreement, the puzzle that has remained is how does a mediator get parties to do what is prescribed. The book argues that a communication perspective is key to understanding facilitative mediation and that framing is the main mechanism by which facilitative mediation functions. Based on an empirical analysis of the United Nations mediation in El Salvador between 1990 and 1992, the work breaks new ground by uncovering three underlying mechanisms that explain how a mediator can get their framing adopted by the negotiating parties, thereby advancing the negotiations. The book offers a novel theory of facilitative mediation as framing and an innovative methodological approach that focuses on negotiation impasses to study the process of how negotiations progress. Practitioners will also appreciate the framework for thinking about when and how framing and reframing can be used to increase mediation's effectiveness as a tool for ending armed conflict. This book will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies, negotiation, Latin American politics, and International Relations, as well as practitioners.

Teachable Moments Eunsook Hyun, 2006. How do we understand what curriculum is and does for both learners and teachers? Using actual field-based vignettes, this book introduces teachable moment-oriented, emergent-oriented, and negotiation-oriented curricula practices and explores how, while the three curricula notions are distinctively different from one another, they are simultaneously interconnected. Teachable Moments is a valuable resource for teachers at all levels. In addition, this is a book for senior undergraduate and graduate-level early childhood curriculum courses as well as graduate students and faculty who are interested in studying contemporary/postmodern curricula discourses.

Contemporary Peace Making J. Darby, R. Mac Ginty, Roger Mac Ginty, 2002-12-19. Contemporary Peace Making draws on recent experience to identify and explore the essential components of peace processes. Each chapter examines a different element in recent peace processes. The collection is organized around five main themes: planning for peace during periods of violence; the process of negotiations; including pre-negotiation; the effects of violence on peace processes; peace accords; constitutional and political options; and securing the settlement and building the peace.

The Military and Negotiation Deborah Goodwin, 2004-11-23. A new investigation of the role of the modern soldier, diplomat, and the nature of military negotiation in comparison with negotiation in other key contexts. This new book presents a detailed analysis of the role of the military in current operations as negotiators and liaison workers in the field It shows how very few in the academic world are writing on this specific role of the military and the nature of negotiation in this situation and such a volatile context This publication is a first in this context and has a keen audience in light of the current world order This study breaks new ground in analyzing the nature of military negotiation in relation to more generic forms of negotiation and assessing the role of the modern soldier diplomat in recent deployments around the world The author is an academic working within the military environment very few people have the same capacity and accessibility to firsthand evidence and observation Whilst peacekeeping has grown in the last decade or so no one has successfully investigated the role of the military and their approach to non violent conflict resolution on the ground as few have access to such work to make a viable detailed assessment of the nature of negotiation in a violent context but Dr Goodwin is able to do so

Negotiation in International Conflict Deborah Goodwin, 2014-04-08 This work explores the application and structure of negotiation within existing international conflicts and assesses the effectiveness or otherwise of such forms of dispute resolution It examines the role of negotiation and the skills required by any practitioner in the field
