Telephone Switchboard Makes Debut; Dial System Forthcoming

A central switchboard went into operation on the campus last week after workers installed additional telephones in the offices of department heads, deans, and administrative offices. The general number for TLC is 2626. A new number will go into effect when the dial system is installed.

All calls on campus phones are routed via five lines through the switchboard to their destinations. These five calls may be handled at once.

After 4 p.m. only Clifton Hall, the president's office, the chancellor's, and the business office may be reached directly. However, pay

5 Students Begin Practice Teaching

Five TLC women returned to school every day, as they began their practice teaching activities in regular public schools.

Kate Melmore is teaching a first grade class under the direction of Mr. Margaret DeWitt at P.C. Wainwright school.

At Mary B. Eubank school Joyce Sims is teaching second grade under Mrs. Margaret Wainwright, and Gertie Grawe is teaching under Mrs. Gertie Grawe.

Clifton Hall is also teaching second grade under Mrs. Gertie Grawe.

Practice teaching in the fourth grade is being done by Clifton Hall.

Miss Helen Wilson is director of these teachers.

phones in the dorms may be used for outgoing calls.

Miss Gene Reynolds has been employed as switchboard operator. His additional duties will be assigned in the near future. The switchboard is located in the public relations office.

TLC ADDS 10 TO FACULTY

Dr. Edward A. Saperstein has added the number of new faculty members for the 1958-1959 school year.

Joining the faculty of the English Department is Dr. E. B. Saperstein who obtained his B.A. and M.A. from Penn State and his Ph.D. from Pennsylvania State. He has taught at Penn State, Multnomah and Lehigh. Named acting head of the Education Department was Dr. Arthur Schaefer who gained his B.A. from Multnomah, his M.A. from Lehigh and his Ph.D. from Columbia. Dr. Schaefer served as Dean of Multnomah College prior to his appointment to the TLC staff.

Taking over as librarian is Warren Lindsay who served in a similar post at Oklahoma Wesleyan College for the past two years. His B.A. came from Colorado and his M.A. from Denver. He has served at Pacific Lutheran College, San Jose State and Rocky Mountain College, also.

William Saperstein has been named assistant to the librarian. He earned his B.A. from Multnomah and his M.A. in Library Science at UNO where he served in a similar post until his appointment at TLC.

Appointed as instructor of Music Education and Voice is James Taylor. Taylor has a B.M. and M.M. in voice, B.M. in composition and M.M. in education, all from the University of Illinois at Urbana. In addition he has performed with the DePaul Symphony and taught at Washington State.

Francis H. Barker has been named head director, coming to TLC from Northwest Louisiana State College where he served as head director of the school. From Arkansas, he also served as head director at Atlanta State College.

Hello Fish. "You might as well get used to that name. It's a great name. You should use it. A great big welcome to you. We hope that you will like it. We would like to make you aware of the student government, the code of ethics, traditions, and other things you need to know.

The Student Government is the head of all student government. Its function and membership is explained in the handbook and will also be made known in your orientation lectures. Its purpose and function is very important because it is your voice. The Student Government is an educational and industrial organization. It is in charge of all student government activities. It is also very important because these elections affect you personally. They affect your future and the governing student affairs in the future.

Our code of ethics, which is also in the handbook, has an important purpose to show in your personal growth, a sense of personal and social integrity. We urge you to have a high regard for property—your property, your student's and your college's.

We of TLC, now your TLC, have certain traditions with which we wish you to become acquainted. One is the playing of the "Victory Bell" in front of Old Main for our victories and other similar activities. The College Bell is rung for winning convocations and evening chapel services which are held for your spiritual education.

We want to impress upon you the importance of your class activities, elections, and rules of the college. They are for your benefit and will be explained at greater length when I talk to you personally.

Here's wishing you a very happy and beneficial year with us at TLC. We look forward to meeting you personally.

Angie Wheeler
Student Body President

3 NEW COURSES ADDED THIS FALL

Three new courses have been added to the curriculum. Introduction to the study of Mr. Christian, Introduction to the study of Mr. Shaw, and Introduction to Art, to be taught by Mr. Barker.

In addition, Saperstein's Latin, which has not been taught for several years, will again be offered. Mr. Barker will teach it.

Tryouts Progress For Band, Choir

Tryouts for the TLC choir and band will continue through Friday, September 26.

Arrangements for the band and choir are being made for the band and choir. Arrangements for the band and choir are being made for the band and choir.

Welcome, Freshmen, to our campus, or I should say, to your campus. Welcome to TLC, to your school. Therefore, I feel it is very important that you, incoming Freshmen, know something about our school, our organization, and activities which exist here on the campus. These are for your benefit, and are for your social, cultural, and spiritual education.

All student activities function in cooperation with the Student Activities Council. This council is composed of three committees: Social Activities Committee, Cultural Activities Committee, and Religious Activities Committee. They are responsible for such functions as all-school, picnic, dance, etc., and religious observances, religious observances, etc.

Emphasis Week, religious observances, and many others. This council is made up of students and faculty members. It is a group of students and faculty members. It is a group of students and faculty members.

I want to see you in student activities. So, I want to see you in student activities. So, I want to see you in student activities. So, I want to see you in student activities.

Again, I say, welcome to TLC. I want to see you in student activities. I want to see you in student activities. I want to see you in student activities.
