Monet's Table Claire Joyes, 2006-12-12 One of the most influential painters of modern times Claude Monet lived for half his life in the famous house at Giverny It was after moving here in 1883 with his future second wife Alice Hosched and their eight children that Monet's work finally achieved recognition His growing success meant that he was able to indulge his passion for comfort and good living Family meals special celebrations luncheons with friends picnics all reflected the Monets love of good food Just as the inspiration for many of Monet's paintings was drawn from his beloved gardens and the surrounding Normandy landscape so the meals served at Giverny were based upon superb ingredients from the kitchen garden a work of art in itself the farmyard and the French countryside A moody reserved and very private man whose daily routine revolved totally around his painting Monet nevertheless enjoyed entertaining his friends many of whom were leading figures of the time As well as his fellow Impressionists in particular Renoir Pissarro Sisley Degas and Cezanne other regular guests included Rodin Whistler Maupassant Valery and one of Monet's closest friends the statesman Clemenceau They came to dine in almost ritual form first visiting Monet's studio and the greenhouses then having lunch at 11 30 the time the family always dined to enable Monet to make the most of the afternoon light Tea would later be served under the lime trees or near the pond Guests were never invited to dinner because Monet went to bed very early in order to rise at dawn All the guests were familiar with Monet's rigid timetable The recipes collected in his cooking journals include dishes Monet had encountered in his travels or had come across in restaurants he frequented in Paris as well as recipes from friends such as Cezanne's bouillabaisse and Millet's petits pains For this book the author Claire Joyes wife of Madame Monet's great grandson has spent years selecting the Monets favorite recipes and writing a wonderfully evocative introductory text All of the recipes have been artfully prepared and brought back to life in Monet's own kitchen by master chef Joel Robuchon Illustrated with sumptuous reproductions of Monet's paintings spectacular original four color photographs of Giverny selected shots of finished dishes and facsimile pages from the notebooks themselves this book provides a fascinating and unique insight into the turn of the century lifestyle of one of the world's most celebrated Impressionist painters
