In the year 711 CE Islamic armies conquered the Iberian Peninsula. This seemingly uncontroversial claim has in fact been questioned becoming an object of intense scholarly debate that has reached a fevered pitch in recent decades within Spain. This volume introduces an anglophone audience to the terms and contours of this controversy from its emergence in the late nineteenth century to its contemporary recrudescence. It suggests that far from an abstract discussion this dispute reveals methodological and moral questions that remain vital to the study of the distant past questions that cannot be easily resolved and have far reaching consequences for the present. This volume offers novel perspectives on not only the controversy but also the latest research on the events of 711. These exemplary studies of historical literary and material cultural evidence demonstrate the promise and challenges for a new generation of scholarship. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Medieval Iberian Studies. Le Cher Michel Provost, 1992 A Survey of Numismatic Research, 1978-1984: Ancient, medieval and modern numismatics, 1986 Cent ans d'archéologie, travers le regard d'archéologues historiens et historiens de l'art ce volume reconstitue l'émergence et la consolidation de la recherche archéologique en péninsule Ibérique et au Maroc depuis la fin du XIX^e siècle en s'appuyant pour cela sur l'exemple des fouilles scientifiques de Baelo Claudia au cœur du détroit de Gibraltar. L'excellent état de conservation de cette ville romaine principale voie d'accès Tingi Tanger lui a permis de devenir depuis plus d'un siècle un formidable champ d'application des disciplines archéologiques et historiques comme l'entendait son initiateur Pierre Paris 1859-1931 galement fondateur de la Casa de Velázquez.
