Content by experts Transforming Schools Using Project-Based Learning, Performance Assessment, and Common Core Standards Bob Lenz, Justin Wells, Sally Kingston, 2015-01-27 It is not what students know but what they do with what they know that is important. Schools are changing in response to this reality and in Transforming Schools Using Project Based Learning, Performance Assessment, and Common Core Standards Bob Lenz, Justin Wells, and Sally Kingston draw on the example of the Envision Education schools as well as other leading schools around the country to show how the concept of deeper learning can meet the need for students who are both college and career ready and engaged in their own education. In this book, the authors explain how project based learning can blend with Common Core aligned performance assessment for deeper learning. You will discover how many schools have successfully made the transition from traditional teacher centered learning to project based deeper learning and find many practical ideas for implementation. Companion DVD and website include videos showing how to implement deeper learning strategies in the classroom. Evidence based descriptions show why deeper learning is right for students. Performance assessment experts explain how to align assessments with Common Core by shifting the emphasis from knowing to doing. Extensive game plan section provides step by step guidance for change. Schools are complex organizations and transformation involves all of the stakeholders from students to superintendents. But as this book shows, there are amazing benefits to be realized when everyone commits to diving deeper into learning.

Clear exam with good grades using thoroughly Researched Content by experts Cinema and Secularism Mark Cauchi, 2023-12-14 Cinema and Secularism is the first collection to make the relationship between cinema and secularism thematic, utilizing a number of different methodological approaches to examine their identification and differentiation across film theory, film aesthetics, film history, and throughout global cinema. The emergence of moving images and the history of cinema historically coincide with the emergence of secularism as a concept and discourse. More than historically coinciding, however, cinema and secularism would seem to have and many contemporary theorists and critics seem to assume a more intrinsic, almost ontological connection to each other. While early film theorists and critics explicitly addressed questions about secularism, religion, and cinema, once the study of film was professionalized and secularized in the Western academy, in both film studies and religious studies, explicit and critical attention to the relationship between cinema and secularism rapidly declined Indeed if one canvases film scholarship today one will find barely any works dedicated to thinking critically about the relationship between cinema and secularism Extending the recent secular turn in the humanities and social sciences Cinema and Secularism provokes critical reflection on its titular concepts Making contributions to theory philosophy criticism and history the chapters in this pioneering volume collectively interrogate the assumption that cinema is secular how secularism is conceived and related to cinema differently in different film cultures and whether the world is disenchanted or enchanted in cinema Coming from intellectually diverse backgrounds in film studies religious studies and philosophy the interdisciplinary contributors to this book cover films and traditions of thought from America Europe Africa the Middle East South Asia and East Asia In these ways Cinema and Secularism opens new areas of inquiry in the study of film and contributes to the ongoing interrogation of secularism more broadly Resources in Education ,1994-10

Canada: The State of the Federation 2017 Elizabeth Goodyear-Grant,Kyle Hanniman,2019-10-16 In October 2015 the federal Liberals came to power with sweeping plans to revamp Canada s democratic and federal institutions a modernizing agenda intended to revitalize Canada s democratic architecture The centrepiece of the agenda was the replacement of Canada s first past the post electoral system but they also promised to revitalize relations with the provinces bring Indigenous Peoples into the intergovernmental fold and to change the ways in which senators and Supreme Court justices are appointed How has the reform agenda fared Has it resulted in a more effective and democratic set of political and federal institutions Or has it largely failed to deliver on these objectives What more broadly is the state of Canada s democratic and federal institutions The Queen s Institute of Intergovernmental Relations used the occasion of Canada s 150th birthday to examine these pressing issues The 2017 volume in the State of the Federation series focuses on enduring questions about the functioning of federalism and intergovernmental relations in Canada including how we should evaluate the quality of Canada s institutions and practices in light of our federal structure and how current institutional arrangements and their possible alternatives fare according to these criteria Princeton Review AP World History: Modern Prep, 2023 migrants by proposing a new non conventional form of literary writing the visa narrative genre This is a versatile and dialogic form which moves beyond strictly academic modes of migration talk and aims to re introduce a human experiential dimension in the representation of people on the move Indeed the visa narratives collected in this volume provide a unique example of testimonies and memories of migrants from different geographical locations and social positions from the student to the refugee In its political and poetic aspects this collective volume is a useful tool for understanding the complexity of migration today and the way in which national and international regulations are applied in different regions of the world Whereas our era is commonly portrayed as one of increased globalisation and freedom of movement visa narratives offer a closer insight into the experience of people trying to cross borders and reveal a substantially different reality of immobility distrust and misunderstanding
