

Office Serv 7030

General Description

Supports College Success Through a 200+ Hour Program

These findings have implications for the design of programs that promote community development. The study suggests that community development programs should focus on building the capacity of local organizations and individuals to manage their own affairs. This can be achieved through training, technical assistance, and financial support. The study also suggests that community development programs should be tailored to the needs and resources of the target community. This can be achieved through a participatory approach that involves the community in the design and implementation of the program.
