Overcoming Disabilities Despair Michael D. LeBow, Michael D. LeBow Ph. D., 2010 Disabilities Stink Life gives everybody things they can't control. Sometimes even the most capable and productive people hit against a personal limitation and get discouraged over things they can't do. With some of us it can be something relatively small like aches and pains that limit ability to play with our grandchildren, small disappointments. For others the barriers and hurdles may be much more substantial. So what do you do when life hands you a major setback? Do you quit, sink into despair and wait for something good to happen to get you past the depression? This book offers practical help. Dr. Michael LeBow knows intimately the challenges of despair, but more than that, in Overcoming Disabilities Despair he reveals a systematic approach using Cognitive Therapy to rise above attack and defeat the disabilities despair that can block us from effective happy living. While light heartedly sharing some of his own stories of frustration, Dr. LeBow walks us through practical systematic tools and procedures to reclaim optimism.

Boyle, 2024-12-19 Limitless is a raw and honest look at what it means to become an effective learner when confronted with the challenges of a learning disability. Highlighting some of the disbeliefs that blocked author David P. Boyle from realizing he was more than good enough, this book also aids others with learning disabilities to discover their true potential and succeed in life. About the Author: After working for the government as a manager of Benefits and Entitlements for 29 years, David P. Boyle retired from the workforce. He is also a professional educator and guidance counselor who served the needs of military members for many years. Never in his wildest dreams did he assume he would experience this measure of success. David holds several educational degrees: Bachelor's in Music Education, Master's in Special Education, Master's in Intelligence, and a Master's in Agency Counseling. He has consulted with schools and professional agencies on disability laws. He also conducted over 1,500 hours of testing to assess learning abilities and wrote intervention plans, so he has a unique understanding and passion for serving people who have learning disabilities. But for him, nothing is more important than sharing his journey as an exceptional learner. David hopes you may find strength and encouragement in the pages of this book.
