

"It's sad and frustrated and, in places, funny.
This slender epistolary novel is charming."

Dear Friend Brando,

I am writing you to consider me for the position available at Bert's with a... I do not have any experience in fast food, but I do have that circumstance in my favour. I have been an officer of the... of franchise outlets, and it would be a shame if the company went bankrupt over something as silly and avoidable as not hiring me. But, the circumstances beyond my control, at any rate, I am not... A couple of years ago, I was refused to be the President of their Acquisitions... And the next quarter their stock price fell drastically. I believed... to something more than satisfying... Until one week later that... my office collection... just fell over. Still, I collected... Maybe...

I was wary of applying to another job, but then I heard of a computer... an island,... that I was... respected. I applied in person, I was down to California to learn that the position had already been filled. It was weeks later that company was being investigated for... food. Perhaps you read about them in the news? Still, I tried convincing myself that it was another coincidence. But then I had an experience that refused to be ignored. I decided to apply for a job with Future Shop through their website. On their site there is a map of Canada with small red dots representing their office locations across the country. I had not visited the website, that map was almost solid red. There were...

...where... They didn't. The... even... Monday of the... of waiting. I brought up their website on my screen. It was then that I knew something was wrong. The page informed me that... I... I... in... in... Cote.

...OR YOU... I began to realize that while this was a... it was... Who would be foolish enough to not hire me? Please let me know as soon as possible whether you're going to hire me because I don't know how long you have before the cops assume that you're not... you.
