Elegies Tibullus, 2012-01-12 Delia when flames engulf my bier you ll weep for me and then you ll mix your kisses with sad tears Tibullus 55 18 BC was one of a group of poets known as the Latin elegists whose number included Ovid and Propertius Living in the age of Augustus his poems reflect Augustan ideals but they are above all notable for their emphasis on the personal and for their subject matter love Tibullus elegies are addressed to two different mistresses Delia and Nemesis and a boy Marathus His pious and idealistic love for Delia is replaced by a more tortured affair with the cruel Nemesis and the poet s elegies to Marathus give a broader perspective to his treatment of the subject Anguish and betrayal characterize Tibullus depiction of love s changing fortunes in poetry that is passionate vivid and sometimes haunting In this parallel text edition A M Juster s eloquent translations are accompanied by an introduction and notes from Robert Maltby which discuss Tibullus work in its literary and historical context Together they demonstrate the achievements of this fine Roman poet

ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World s Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford s commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more

Book Three of the Corpus Tibullianum Robert Maltby, 2021-08-25 This book presents the first commentary on the whole of Tibullus 3 in English It consists of a text translation introduction and commentary The text rests on the author s autopsy of the most important manuscripts of Tibullus The prose translation is as literal as possible in order to bring out clearly the meaning of the Latin The detailed line by line commentary serves to clarify the language and literary associations of the poems and to back up the theory that the whole work was composed by a single unitary author It argues that what were previously thought of as separate sections of the book composed by different authors at different times were in fact the product of a single anonymous poet impersonating or adopting the mask of different characters in each section

Lygdamus poems 1 6 a young Tibullus 7 a commentator on Sulpicia s affair with Cerinthus 8 12 Sulpicia 13 18 and Tibullus 19 20 The close connections and associations between these different sections and their use of the same Augustan intertexts are shown to favour a unitary interpretation of the work The main literary inspiration for the work this volume argues comes from the elegists of the Augustan period but its date of composition could have been late in the first century AD linking it with the other pseudepigraphical writings of this century such as the Virgilian and Ovidian Appendices
