Minimally Invasive Poems On A Life In Surgery:

Minimally Invasive Maria Basile,2011-09-26 PoetryMedicineSurgery Poetry by Me and My Family Ronald J. Yadusky,2012-03-06 POETRY BY ME AND MY FAMILY About ART SCIENCE LOVE LIFE These poems are fun to read and you learn something new about art science love and life They come out of the love I have for my wife Margaret our children and our love for each other They awaken something in your heart that is beyond knowledge and they spiritually refresh because the poems say tangibly what we all feel intangibly to give finite form to the infinite The will to create and the will to love are one And so poems make love visible which uplifts and heals because in the presence of love everything is healed The mind seeks truth the heart seeks love and the spirit seeks goodness and God This creative spirit of love therefore shows us the face of God Minimally Invasive Surgery and New Technology Felicien M. the unborn child in detail This book is the first comprehensive analysis of Tertullian's attitude towards the foetus and embryo Examining Tertullian's works in light of Roman literary and social history Julian Barr proposes that Tertullian's comments on the unborn should be read as rhetoric ancillary to his primary arguments Tertullian's engagement in the art of rhetoric also explains his tendency towards self contradiction He argued that human existence began at conception in some treatises and not in others Tertullian's references to the unborn hence should not be plucked out of context lest they be misread Tertullian borrowed modified and discarded theories of ensoulment according to their usefulness for individual treatises So long as a single work was internally consistent Tertullian was satisfied He elaborated upon previous Christian traditions and selectively borrowed from ancient embryological theory to prove specific theological and moral points Tertullian was more influenced by Roman custom than he would perhaps have admitted since the contrast between pagan and Christian attitudes on abortion was more rhetorical than real

Old English Heroic Poems and the Social Life of Texts John D. Niles, 2007 Old English Heroic Poems and the Social Life of Texts develops the theme that all stories all beautiful lies if one considers them as such have a potentially myth like function as they enter and re enter the stream of human consciousness In particular the volume assesses the place of heroic poetry including Beowulf Widsith and The Battle of Maldon in the evolving society of Anglo Saxon England during the tenth century period of nation building Poetry Niles argues was a great collective medium through which the Anglo Saxons conceived of their changing social world and made mental adjustments to it Old English heroic geography is examined as an aspect of the mentality of that era So too is the idea of the oral poet or bard as a means by which the people of this time continued to conceive of themselves in defiance of reality as members of a tribe like community knit by close personal bonds The volume is rounded off by the identification of Bede's story of the poet CAedmon as the earliest known example of a modern folktale type and by a spirited defense of Seamus Heaney's recent verse translation of Beowulf

The Healing Leaf Pamela Moorehead, 2011-09-19 In her poetry collection The Healing Leaf author Pamela Moorehead expresses her life experiences through a search for words with healing value Her poetry explores interests in humanity's internal struggles including humans abilities to tell the truth let go of poisonous attitudes and emotions and learn to listen to their intuitive voices In poems like Murder in the First and The Wheels Go Around Moorehead invokes strong feelings and philosophies about living an open life that seek to inspire the need to think write reflect and meditate There are moments when attitudes and emotions whether positive or negative bring freedom like a caterpillar shedding its cocoon to become a beautiful butterfly Moorehead's poetry is driven by the need to reveal these life altering energizing moments Better Understanding There is a strain in my heart for humanity We speak with our tongues as how view insanity Turn around and the actions are not noble gestures Violence sex drugs and alcohol are our pleasures Somehow mankind cannot get it together Now I cannot say that I am perfect The things I learned as a child in our time Was truly worth it If we have become honest about loving And living Bullying from every perpetrator would disintegrate into nothing
