Blunt John Henry Blunt, 1874 Guide for Lectors Virginia Meagher, Paul Turner, 2007 Proclaiming Holy Scriptures David H. Pereyra, 2020-12-30 This book provides a comprehensive study on the proclamation of Holy Scriptures as an enacted celebration as well as its function as a performance within sacralized theatrical spaces Scripture is integral to religious life within Judaism Christianity and Islam and these traditions have venerated the reading of texts from an appointed place as a sacred act Thus the study of how these readings are conducted illuminates some vitally important aspects of this widespread act of worship Contributing to an underexplored area of scholarship the book offers an overview of scripture reading in the three Abrahamic faiths and then focuses on where and how the Word of God is presented within the Christian tradition It gathers and summarizes research on the origins of a defined place for the proclamation of holy writings giving a thorough architectural analysis and interpretation of the various uses and symbols related to these spaces over time Finally the listener is considered with a phenomenological description of the place for reading and its hermeneutical interpretation The material in this book uncovers the contemporary impact of a rich history of publicly reading out scriptures It will therefore be of great interest to scholars of liturgical theology religious studies and ritual studies      2014 Workbook for Lectors, Gospel Readers, and Proclaimers of the Word, Canadian edition ,      2013 Workbook for Lectors ,2013
