

MINISTRY TO THE INCARCERATED

Dr. Covert uses his experiences as both police officer and state prison chaplain to examine the environment of the incarcerated—people who are often forgotten by society. He emphasizes particular areas of inmate stress and how they impact upon the inmate's spiritual formation and the role of the Church in offering encouragement, healing and transformation. He calls for staff education, environmental improvement, and a pastoral presence that facilitates rehabilitation and hope, rather than discouragement and punishment.

"At last, a sober, insightful, practical, and modern expression of Jesus' ancient command that we are to care for the prisoner as well as the sick and naked."

Orlo Scrunk, Jr. Ph.D. Managing Editor Emeritus,
The Journal of Pastoral Care

"A timely message juxtaposed to the political rhetoric and public mood of today... insightful in describing both the uniqueness of the environment and the role of the Church in it."

Joseph D. Leaman (former Commissioner),
Maine Department of Correction

"Ministry to the Incarcerated should be on the desk of every prison chaplain. It provides a comprehensive view of the challenge that lies before the chaplain... enlightening, encouraging, relevant."

Rev. Francis T. Menei (retired), Administrator of Religion &
Family Service, Pennsylvania Department of Corrections
