Miracle Cures Saints Pilgrimage And The Healing Powers Of Belief:

Miracle Cures Robert A. Scott, 2010-06-07 Iconic images of medieval pilgrims such as Chaucer's making their laborious way to Canterbury conjure a distant time when faith was the only refuge of the ill and infirm and thousands traveled great distances to pray for healing. Why then in an age of advanced biotechnology and medicine do millions still go on pilgrimages? Why do journeys to important religious shrines such as Lourdes, Compostela, Fátima and Medjugorje constitute a major industry? In Miracle Cures Robert A. Scott explores these provocative questions and finds that pilgrimage continues to offer answers for many. Its benefits can range from a demonstrable improvement in health to complete recovery. Using research in biomedical and behavioral science, Scott examines accounts of miracle cures at medieval, early modern, and contemporary shrines. He inquires into the power of relics, apparitions, and the transformative nature of sacred journeying and shines new light on the roles belief, hope, and emotion can play in healing.

Miracle Cures Robert A. Scott, 2011-10-04 Scott has written a magnificent book on the realities of religious healing. He brings sensibility, reason, impressive insight, and the best information to bear on qualities seldom manifested in the centuries of claim, cynicism, and controversy on the topic. His analysis is destined to raise the level of discourse on dramatic religious experiences. Neil Smelser, author of The Odyssey Experience.

A Companion to Medieval Miracle Collections, 2021-09-06 Miracle accounts provide a window into the views and conceptions of the laity, the uneducated women, and even children whose voices are mostly missing from other types of sources. They are not, however, simple to use. This volume offers a methodological insight into the medieval world of the miraculous. Consisting of 15 cutting-edge articles by leading scholars in the field, it provides versatile approaches to the origins, methods, and recording techniques of various types of miracle narratives. It offers fascinating case studies from across Europe which show how miracle accounts can be used as a source for various topics such as lived religion, healing, protection, and family and gender. Contributors are Nicole Archambeau, Leigh Ann Craig, Ildikó Csepregi, Jussi Hanska, Emilia Jamrozik, Sari Katajala-Peltomaa, Jenni Kuuliala, Iona McCleery, Jyrki Nissi, Roberto Paciocco, Donald S. Prudlo, Marika Räsänen, Jonas Van Mulder, and Louise Elizabeth Wilson.

The Catholic Labyrinth Peter McDonough, 2013-08-08 At the heart of Catholicism's resistance to change in the U.S. is the equation of hierarchical authority with traditional gender roles, especially the subordination of women. This book traces the variably confrontational and incremental strategies of advocacy groups as they struggle to reconcile an age-old culture with the onslaughts of modernity.

Women, Pilgrimage, and Rituals of Healing in Modern and Ancient Greece Evy Johanne Håland, 2023-07-21 This book investigates religious rituals and gender in modern and ancient Greece with a specific focus on women's role in connection with healing. How can we come to understand such mainstays of ancient culture as its healing rituals when the male recorders did not and could not know or say much about what occurred since the rituals were carried out by women? The book proposes that one way of tackling this dilemma is to attend to similar healing rituals in modern Greece carried out by women and compare the information with ancient sources, thus providing new ways of interpreting the ancient material we possess Carrying out fieldwork being present during often enduring rituals within cultures despite other changes teaches one whole new ways of looking at written and pictorial records of such events By bringing ancient and modern worlds into mutual illumination this text also has relevance beyond the Greek context both in time and space Religious Intimacies Mary Dunn, Brenna Moore, 2020-11-03 An essay collection that demonstrates how emotional ties and intimate affiliations remain critical to the dimensions of modern Christianity Scholars of religion have come a long way since William James famously made of religion a matter between man and his maker For decades now they have been attentive to the ways in which religion takes shape as the product of broad social forces focusing on the dynamics of power and culture as heuristics for understanding religious phenomena and experience What however might they be missing by moving too quickly from one interpretative extreme to the other and what might we learn about religion by staying in the interstitial space between the individual in her solitude and society as a whole Religious Intimacies edited by Mary Dunn and Brenna Moore brings together nine scholars of modern Christianity to probe this in between space In essays that range from treatments of Jesuit indigenous relations in early modern Canada to the erotics of contemporary black theology each contributor makes the case for the study of the presence and power of affective ties and relational dynamics between friends lovers and intimate others even things as vital to the understanding of religion These thoughtful and probing essays convincingly show that ties built upon affect family and shared convictions have continued to inform lived religious experience in modern times and shape western Christianity in significant sometimes surprising ways Jodi Bilinkoff University of North Carolina at Greensboro A rich collection of essays that use intimate relationships to chart a course between solitude and society Tamsin Jones Trinity College Botánicas Joseph M. cure holistic or reductionist How can we tell The concepts of holistic and reductionist treatments are clearly defined such that we can easily determine if any treatment is holistic reductionist or a blend Is prevention better than cure Umm Not when we are sick In addition because many illnesses cause secondary diseases a cure is often the best preventative The Science of Cure is a condensation expansion and exploration of the concepts introduced in the books The Elements of Cure and A Calculus of Curing developed over several years of research and writing for the blog site Healthicine the Arts and Sciences of Health and Healthiness It is also an expansion of the papers A Definition and Exploration of Cure published on Academia edu in July 2018 and A Theory of Cure 2019 This book defines fundamental concepts of cure cures curing and cured and many related topics including cause illness disease sickness treatment remission and recurrence Staging Holiness: The Case of Hospitaller Rhodes (ca. 1309-1522) Sofia Zoitou,2020-12-15 The open access publication of this book has been published with the support of the Swiss National Science Foundation In Staging Holiness The Case of Hospitaller Rhodes ca 1309 1522 Sofia Zoitou offers a study of the history of relic collections devotional rituals and sites invested with special meaning on Rhodes during a time when the island became one of the most frequented ports of call for ships carrying pilgrims from Venice to the Holy Land Scrutinizing late medieval travel reports by pilgrims from all over Europe along with extant historical archaeological visual and material evidence Sofia Zoitou traces the various forms of the Rhodian cultic sites evolution and perception ultimately considered as an overall artistic strategy for the staging of the sacred Care in the Past Lindsay Powell,William Southwell-Wright,Rebecca Gowland,2016-11-30 Care giving is an activity that has been practiced by all human societies From the earliest societies through to the present all humans have faced choices regarding how people in positions of dependency are to be treated As such care giving and the form it takes is a central experience of being a human and one that is culturally mediated Archaeology has tended to marginalise the study of care and debates surrounding our ability to recognise it within the archaeological record have often remained implicit rather than a focus of discussion These 12 papers examine the topic of care in past societies and specifically how we might recognise the provision of care in archaeological contexts and to open up an inter disciplinary conversation including historical bioarchaeological faunal and philosophical perspectives The topic of care is examined through three different strands the provision of care throughout the life course namely that provided to the youngest and oldest members of a society care giving and attitudes towards impairment and disability in prehistoric and historic contexts and the role of animals as both recipients of care and as tools for its provision Daily Life of Women in Medieval Europe Belle S. Tuten,2022-08-23 This book is an introduction to the everyday lives of medieval European women how they ate and slept what their work was like and the many factors that shaped their experiences Ordinary people are often hard to see in the historical record This resource for students reveals the everyday world of the Middle Ages for women sex marriage work and power Using up to date scholarship from both archeology and history this book covers major daily concerns for medieval people their understanding of the world their relationships with others and their place in society It attempts to clarify what we know and what we do not know about women s daily lives in the Western European Middle Ages between approximately 500 and 1500 CE The book s focus is everyday life so the topics are organized around women s chores expectations and difficulties especially with regard to sexuality and childbirth In addition to broad survey information about the Middle Ages the book also introduces major women writers and thinkers and provides some examples of their work giving the reader an opportunity to engage with the women themselves

Islam, Christianity and the Mystic Journey Ian Richard Netton,2011-04-30 This distinctive comparison of Islamic and Christian mysticism focuses on the mystic journey in the two faith traditions the journey which every believer must make and which leads to the Divine The author clears away misconceptions and highlights similarities and differences in the thought and lives of six key mystics Al Kalabadhi Al Daylami Al Qushayri Julian of Norwich Thomas a Kempis and Teresa of Avila He considers the ways of Perfection on the Mystic Path and asks in what ways these authors have embarked on the mystic journey He looks at the themes they have in common as well as their differences and asks how they envisage the concept of union with the Deity Readers will gain a broad understanding of the interdisciplinary and intertextual nature of the subject as well its the diverse intellectual and historical contexts

Imagination and Fantasy in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen,2020-08-24 The notions of other peoples cultures and natural conditions have always been determined by the epistemology of imagination and fantasy providing much freedom and creativity and yet have also created much fear anxiety and horror In this regard the pre modern world demonstrates striking parallels with our own insofar as the projections of alterity might be different by degrees but they are fundamentally the same by content Dreams illusions projections concepts hopes utopias dystopias desires and emotional attachments are as specific and impactful as the physical environment This volume thus sheds important light on the various lenses used by people in the Middle Ages and the early modern age as to how they came to terms with their perceptions images and notions Previous scholarship focused heavily on the history of mentality and history of emotions whereas here the history of pre modern imagination and fantasy assumes center position Imaginary things are taken seriously because medieval and early modern writers and artists clearly reveal their great significance in their works and their daily lives This approach facilitates a new deep structure analysis of pre modern culture

Foundations of Health Service Psychology Timothy P. Melchert,2020-04-15 Foundations of Health Service Psychology 2e describes a comprehensive science based approach to the clinical practice of psychology It systematically applies scientific advances in understanding human psychology to updating the conceptual frameworks used for education practice and research in health service psychology This new edition includes significant elaboration on recent research Neural and behavioral science research regarding many aspects of cognition emotion and behavior has strengthened substantially over the past decade as has the role of evolutionary theory for understanding why humans are designed the way we are The movement toward integrated primary care has also advanced considerably These and other topics are updated significantly in this new edition The new edition is also reorganized to streamline the presentation Presents a unified conceptual framework for health service psychology Overviews the whole treatment process from a biopsychosocial approach from intake through outcomes assessment Includes major advances in both the science and practice of psychology Avoids highly technical language so that students and practitioners from across the field can easily follow the discussion

Inscrutable Belongings Stephen Hong Sohn, 2018-07-17 Inscrutable Belongings brings together formalist and contextual modes of critique to consider narrative strategies that emerge in queer Asian North American literature Stephen Hong Sohn provides extended readings of fictions involving queer Asian North American storytellers looking to texts including Russell Leong's Camouflage Lydia Kwa's Pulse Alexander Chee's Edinburgh Nina Revoyr's Wingshooters and No! Alumi's Letters to Montgomery Clift Despite many antagonistic forces these works protagonists achieve a revolutionary form of narrative centrality through the defiant act of speaking out recounting their survival plots and enduring to the very last page These feats are made possible through their construction of alternative social structures Sohn calls inscrutable belongings Collectively the texts that Sohn examines bring to mind foundational struggles for queer Asian North Americans and other socially marginalized groups and confront a broad range of issues including interracial desire the AIDS HIV epidemic transnational mobility and postcolonial trauma In these texts Asian North American queer people are often excluded from normative family structures and must contend with multiple histories of oppression erasure and physical violence involving homophobia racism and social death Sohn's work makes clear that for such writers and their imagined communities questions of survival kinship and narrative development are more than representational they are directly tied to lived experience

The Arabic Life of Antony Attributed to Serapion of Thmuis Elizabeth Agaiby, 2018-10-22 In The Arabic Life of Antony Attributed to Serapion of Thmuis Elizabeth Agaiby demonstrates how the redacted Life of Antony the Father of all monks and star of the wilderness gained widespread acceptance within Egypt shortly after its composition in the 13th century and dominated Coptic liturgical texts on Antony for over 600 years the influence of which is still felt up to the present day By providing a first edition and translation Agaiby demonstrates how the Arabic Life bears witness to the reinterpretation of the religious memory of Antony in the Coptic Orthodox Church

Dualities in Heaven and Earth Zoltan Kiss, 2019-04-12 Science is something that can change every day or at least the way we view it Sometimes we look at the things all wrong But through exploration we can always learn more And to do that eight people will venture into a world unknown After a brilliant scientist goes missing a group of scientists mercenaries and explorers take it upon themselves to venture into a hidden jungle in the Yucatan Peninsula But what they find is a world of adventure a lost world where God has restored the ancient world to how he once envisioned it As they slowly unravel a mystery or two they may need to fight for their lives to not only complete their rescue but to make it back home alive
