Stanley,2009-05 America was discovered by a few Norwegians who got lost while sailing to Greenland Had they established a permanent settlement America might be the United States of Wine Land In 1492 Columbus gave the men of San Salvador shiny glass beads and their women gave his crew syphilis Who took advantage of whom If not for the defeat of the Spanish Armada in 1588 America today would likely be Spanish and Catholic

Early English explorers were pirates of the Caribbean and early American colonists were illegal immigrants The first English colony in America was a lot like Gonzalvo de Ovando and the husband of Pocahontas was responsible for lung cancer and slavery in the south More recently Teddy Roosevelt and his Rough Riders had to run up San Juan Hill someone forgot to transport their horses So how did America become the greatest nation on earth Read my book The Miracle at Philadelphia John Daniel Williams, 1986 We the People Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution, 1992 Describes and illustrates commemorations across the country of the bicentennial of the United States Constitution We the People, 1992 American Government Scott F. Abernathy, 2016-12-16 Real People Real Stories Real Politics Politics involves people from many backgrounds struggling to make their voices heard Real people telling their stories reflect our ideals choices and collective experiences as a nation In American Government Stories of a Nation author Scott Abernathy tunes in to these voices showing how our diverse ideas shape the way we participate and behave the laws we live by and the challenges we face Each chapter features real stories illustrating how the American political system is the product of strategies calculations and miscalculations of countless individuals Students learn the nuts and bolts of political science through these compelling stories Learning concepts in context is a tested learning technique that works to help ideas stick The key concepts are memorable because they are tied to real politics where students see political action and political choices shaping how institutions advance or impede the fulfillment of fundamental ideas Not only will all students see themselves reflected in the pages but they will come to understand that they too are strategic players in American politics with voices that matter Just like the Full version The Essentials edition is perfect for instructors who don't wish to cover the last three chapters on policy We the People of the United States ..., 1986 Governor Alexander Martin Charles D. Rodenbough, 2015-06-08 Governor Alexander Martin of North Carolina was one of the most important figures in the colonial and early state history of North Carolina A 1756 graduate of Princeton he was the first president of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina He served longer as governor of the state than any other person until the election of Luther Hodges in the 20th century He was conferred an honorary doctorate by Princeton and elected to membership in the American Philosophical Society while he was a U S senator While in the Senate he fought successfully to open the Senate to the public He was one of five North Carolina delegates to the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia He was a friend and protector of the Moravians and other non conformists He was the most powerful and effective leader from the frontier region of North Carolina for a quarter of a century The first chapters of this biography discuss Martin's parents and their high regard for education his time at Princeton and his arrival in North Carolina in 1760 The next chapters explore Martin's and Rev David Caldwell's effort to prevent bloodshed during Governor Tryon's confrontation with the Regulators that led up to the Battle of Alamance Martin's experiences in the war as second in command of the North Carolina Regiment his election as senator from Guilford County to the General Assembly in 1777 and his much celebrated election as governor in 1781 The final three chapters of the book include information about his years in the U S Senate his retirement at his home Danbury in Rockingham North Carolina his relationship with his family and his very detailed last will and testament His home Danbury later gave its name to Danbury North Carolina in Stokes County which his nephews helped found about 1848 long after his death
