1940s and 1950s in venues such as the Teatro El ctrico the California the Roosevelt the Mason the Azteca the Million Dollar and the Mayan Theater among others With the emergence and growth of Mexican and Argentine sound cinema in the early to mid 1930s downtown Los Angeles quickly became the undisputed capital of Latin American cinema culture in the United States Meanwhile the advent of talkies resulted in the Hollywood studios hiring local and international talent from Latin America and Spain for the production of films in Spanish Parallel with these productions a series of Spanish language films were financed by independent producers As a result Los Angeles can be viewed as the most important hub in the United States for the production distribution and exhibition of films made in Spanish for Latin American audiences In April 2017 the International Federation of Film Archives organized a symposium Hollywood Goes Latin Spanish Language Cinema in Los Angeles which brought together scholars and film archivists from all of Latin America Spain and the United States to discuss the many issues surrounding the creation of Hollywood s Cine Hispano The papers presented in this two day symposium are collected and revised here This is a joint publication of FIAF and UCLA Film Television Archive

Asphalt Nation Jane Holtz Kay,2012-06-20 Asphalt Nation is a major work of urban studies that examines how the automobile has ravaged America s cities and landscape and how we can fight back The automobile was once seen as a boon to American life eradicating the pollution caused by horses and granting citizens new levels of personal freedom and mobility But it was not long before the servant became the master public spaces were designed to accommodate the automobile at the expense of the pedestrian mass transportation was neglected and the poor unable to afford cars saw their access to jobs and amenities worsen Now even drivers themselves suffer as cars choke the highways and pollution and congestion have replaced the fresh air of the open road Today our world revolves around the car as a nation we spend eight billion hours a year stuck in traffic In Asphalt Nation Jane Holtz Kay effectively calls for a revolution to reverse our automobile dependency Citing successful efforts in places from Portland Maine to Portland Oregon Kay shows us that radical change is not impossible by any means She demonstrates that there are economic political architectural and personal solutions that can steer us out of the mess Asphalt Nation is essential reading for everyone interested in the history of our relationship with the car and in the prospect of returning to a world of human mobility
