Mission Carlos F. Cardoza-Orlandi, 2002 Mission has become for North American Christians an ambiguous and often uncomfortable term The power of the idea of mission is that it defines those specific actions of God which proclaim the gospel and build God's kingdom The Bible, Cultural Identity, and Missions Dziedzic Reuben Asafo, Daniel Kwame Bediako, Daniel Berchie, 2016-04-26 This collection brings together a number of very carefully authored articles that outline practical approaches to three of theology's most intriguing subjects namely The Bible Cultural Identity and Mission Each of these subjects is indispensable to both the astute Christian theologian and Christian since they form the very core of what Christians believe Each contributor explores a unique theme and carefully through academic exactness and contextual experience communicates this without forgetting to employ very basic and familiar cultural analogies to drive home the missionary imperative of the Christian faith Wesleyan Pneumatology, Pentecostal Mission, and the Missio Dei Jody B. Fleming, 2021-05-18 In Wesleyan Pneumatology Pentecostal Mission and the Missio Dei Jody B Fleming argues that missiology in a Wesleyan context has been heavily influenced by the Western worldview and needs renewal Spirituality is central to living in many non western cultures integrated with the physical world of everyday life Wesleyan traditions may need to renew and strengthen the pneumatology found in their mission theory and praxis As the center of Christianity is shifting to the global south Pentecostal and charismatic expressions of the faith are becoming more prominent Without forfeiting their solid foundations what might the Wesleyan traditions learn from their theological cousins about engagement with the Holy Spirit How might pneumatology be renewed in order to address spiritual beliefs found in other cultures in both global and local settings Renewal also includes the indigenous voice as essential for understanding cultural dynamics and spirituality Contextualization is not new to missiology and so mission theory is explored from Latin American scholars as another point for renewal Partnerships in mission and the role of the Holy Spirit are highlighted in the of field work conducted in Venezuela In Renewing the Spark the author suggests that a fresh look at pneumatology will more effectively articulate the gospel in holistic and spirit centered non western cultures An Introduction to Theology in Global Perspective Stephen B. Bevans, 2009 A comprehensive work on doing theology as part of the Catholic ecclesial community in today's world Handbook of Latina/o Theologies Edwin David Aponte, Miguel A. De La Torre, 2006-05-01 Handbook of Latina/o Theologies explores the varied theological ecclesiastical spiritual and cultural expressions associated with the term Latina/o or Hispanic theology There is no single definition of Hispanic Latino theology but rather a multiplicity of perspectives within the diverse Latina/o communities that articulate a distinctive and relevant Hispanic viewpoint This collection of thirty four essays surveys how Latinos as understand and do theology within those varied contexts It gives attention to the history nature sources and development of Latinos as theological expressions within the U S and their contribution to the overall theological discourse and to the individual groups that gave rise to them Part I of the handbook presents essays on many traditional topics in Christian theology representative both of the individual authors and various beliefs found in Latino a communities Part II focuses on trends and contextual issues within the overall Hispanic Latino theological conversation

Dogged Out For Love Shirley Wright, 2006-03-29 Love is something everybody needs and doesn't know what it really means without knowing the love of God For in Him only is there real love And we can't even begin to understand or fathom what love really means without Him We look for it in all the wrong places But we will never find it there It's not in mankind it's not in anything in this world the way we perceive it Until we realize that it only comes from God we will only find hurt and pain and misery Believe me I know there are lots of Christians still looking for love in the wrong places It's sad to say And we are being destroyed and don't understand why So we think God has let us down and we blame Him for our depression hurt and pain We wonder why the Lord doesn't help us But what we don't realize is that God is helping us even though we don't know it You see the devil is fooling us He is taking our focus off Jesus and putting it on people and things so we can't be all that God has for us to be The failure is not in God it's in us You may say I gave him or her all the love I had and he or she betrayed me How could they do me like that But what we fail to realize is that God is our first love and we must receive His love and give Him our love first John 10:10 says The thief comes to kill steal and destroy And that is what he has been doing But you don't have to let him get away with it Jesus came that we might have life and more abundantly Otherwise Jesus is life in every area of our lives if we let him We need to ask Him to lead and guide us in all things Proverbs 3:5-6 says trust in the Lord with all thine heart lean not unto thine own understanding in all they ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy path So the failure is not in God it's in us for not seeking God's help Believe me I know been there done that I gave all I had to give to the wrong men yes men I say men because I kept trying to please them so they would love me But it didn't work They betrayed me jumped on me and stepped on me like a floor mat that said Welcome I know how it feels to be dogged out for love or so called love It sucks As we receive God's love then and only then will we know what love is really about It's not a fancy or fairy tale God's love is divine He is not looking at your faults He is looking at your needs Man's love so called love that is cold taking and not wanting to give They lie they cheat they take away our pride and self esteem they pull us down and then they have the nerve to tell us it's our fault that they treat us the way they do The devil is a liar The devil wants us to believe that we have to take all kinds of abuse that is just the way it is But the devil is a liar We don't need that kind of man because you see he's not a real man anyway He's just something wearing a pair of pants Remember we can make it just us and God God will bring us through But we must learn to trust Him I have been through hell and high waters I've been a floor mat a punching bag I've been stressed out I have even tried to take my life a few times when I was younger But I thank God that He said You shall live and not die Satan was trying to take me out to stop me Now I know what it is to be dogged out and kicked to the curb I know how it feels to be turned inside out not knowing if you are coming or going not knowing what to do next For some so called love As far as I am concerned they can keep it I don't need it and neither do you Why take less when we can have the best God did not make woman to be a man's floor mat He made us to be his helpmate But we can't help someone if they don't want to take it Going Global Gary V Nelson, Gordon W. King, Terry Smith, 2011-05-01 The ways to be effective in global missions have changed The authors believe that content and values must undergird the North American local church's approach to global mission It is not enough to do something It is in fact possible to do all of the right things in all of the wrong ways with negative results It is also possible that mission over there can have as much or more on the church at home This book discusses common principles and practices that inform and energize local churches as they enter the global ministry arena This book will assist church leadership as they look for resources to help them balance the agenda of short term versus long term mission fund raising and the tension between evangelism and compassionate social ministry Chalice Introduction to Disciples Theology Peter Heltzel, 2008 Christian Mission in Seventeenth-Century Taiwan Christopher Joby, 2025-02-03 This is the first book length study of the reception of Christianity and the epistemic outcomes of contact between Protestant and Catholic missionaries and Indigenous Austronesians in the contact zone of seventeenth century colonial Taiwan In the Age of European Expansion Dutch Reformed and Spanish Catholic missionaries attempted to win the souls of Indigenous Austronesian people in Taiwan Christopher Joby examines the strategies that the missionaries employed to overcome the gap between their own cultures and languages and those of the Indigenous Austronesians or Formosans in the contact zone of seventeenth century Taiwan and evaluates the success of these strategies As such this book is a reception history of the texts beliefs and practices that Reformed Protestant and Catholic missionaries introduced to convert the Formosans to their mode of Christianity Using many linguistic and non linguistic examples this approach allows for a complementary colour perspective by comparing the epistemic outcomes of the Dutch Reformed and Spanish Catholic missions Caribbean Lutherans José David Rodríguez, 2024-02-27 Caribbean Lutherans tells the story of the Lutheran church in Puerto Rico from a Caribbean perspective Rodríguez intersperses archival research with cogent commentary and personal accounts highlighting the power and agency of Puerto Rican and West Indian Lutherans amid the multifaceted legacy of Euro American missionary efforts on the island Readers may not be surprised to learn that the first Lutheran missionary in Puerto Rico was a Swedish American Lutheran they may not be aware however that his welcome and success on the island were dependent on the hospitality of an Afro Caribbean tailor from Jamaica A winding journey of interactions among American Lutheran synods and a growing Puerto Rican church generated partnerships tensions and possibilities that continue to the present Puerto Rico and neighboring islands joined the United Lutheran Church in America as the Caribbean Synod in 1952 Today they remain part of the current Evangelical Lutheran Church in America while many other Protestant denominations on the island have formed Puerto Rican national churches Rodríguez explores the continuing tensions inherent in this legacy bringing both academic expertise and personal experience to this first comprehensive account of the Lutheran church in Puerto Rico

Invitation to World Missions Timothy C. Tennent, 2010 A primary resource introducing missions for the passionate follower of Christ

Preaching the Gospel of Matthew Stanley P. Saunders, 2010-09-02 This commentary for preaching Matthew a companion to WJK's successful Preaching the Gospel of Luke Preaching the Gospel of John and Preaching the Gospel of Mark works through every passage of Matthew's Gospel with exegetical insight and a keen sensitivity to the demands of preaching Stanley P. Saunders' commentary follows the biblical text divided into passages After each passage a number of possibilities are presented for how to preach that text He includes a wealth of creative and pertinent tips to help preachers apply Matthew's narrative to the lives of today's churchgoers

Liberating the Gospel David Smith, 2020-04-28 Liberating the Gospel is prefaced by Tom Wright's claim that Christians have for too long read scripture with nineteenth century eyes and sixteenth century questions and that it is urgently necessary they learn to read with first century eyes and twenty first century questions The central section of the book concentrates on reading the narratives of the Galilean ministry of Jesus within their first century context then exploring Paul's mission in the setting of the urban and imperial world of Rome before offering reflection on the Apocalypse in the changed world following the destruction of Jerusalem Smith then concludes his treatise facing the twenty first century questions seeking to build a hermeneutical bridge to our globalized world As a whole this major book on Christian mission aims to contribute toward an understanding of how the dynamic message of Christ might be liberated to be heard as genuinely good news today in the process potentially transforming Christianity provided there is willingness to face opposition from a world resistant to the exposure of its injustices

Hospitality and the Other Author, Amos Yong, 2015-03-04

T&T Clark Handbook of Asian American Biblical Hermeneutics Uriah Y. Kim, Seung Ai Yang, 2019-05-30 The first reference resource on how Asian Americans are currently reading and interpreting the Bible this volume also serves a valuable role in both developing and disseminating what can be termed as Asian American biblical hermeneutics The volume works from the important background that Asian Americans are the fastest growing ethnic racial minority population in the USA and that 42% of this group identifies as Christian This provides a useful starting point from which to examine what may be distinctive about Asian American approaches to the Bible Part 1 of the Handbook describes six major ethnic groups that make up 85% of Asian population by country of origin China Philippines Indian Subcontinent Vietnam Korea Japan and outlines the specific concerns each group has when its members read the Bible Part 2 of the Handbook examines major critical methods in biblical interpretation and suggests adjustments that may be helpful for Asian Americans to make when they are interpreting the Bible Finally Part 3 provides 25 interpretations by Asian American biblical scholars on specific texts in the Bible using what they consider to be Asian American hermeneutics Taken together the Handbook interprets the Bible both with and for the Asian American communities Networks for Faith Formation Steve Emery-Wright, Ed Mackenzie, 2017-05-19 The spiritual formation of young people can often focus on encouraging their personal spiritual practices and perhaps linking them to a local youth group While both are important Networks for Faith Formation argues that a far wider set of relationships are needed to help faith grow The aim of Networks for Faith Formation is to describe and commend eight key networks relational bonds that nurture and nourish faith The eight networks are bedroom practices personal faith church family friends mentors small groups events and gatherings and mission and service The description of each network draws on biblical studies practical theology and the social sciences and practical ideas for helping young people engage with such networks are included throughout the book In a context where some overlook the complexity of spiritual formation Networks for Faith Formation is an important resource for church leaders youth ministers and parents seeking to help young people grow in faith Since relational bonds are key for people of any age it can also help all within the church understand the need for relationships in spiritual growth Introducing World Missions (Encountering Mission) A. Scott Moreau, Gary R. Corwin, Gary B. McGee, 2015-06-09 This bestselling textbook by leading missionary scholars offers an engaging introduction to the work of missions in the contemporary world It provides a broad overview of the biblical theological and historical foundations for missions It also considers personal and practical issues involved in becoming a missionary the process of getting to the mission field and contemporary challenges a mission worker must face Sidebars charts maps and numerous case studies are included This new edition has been updated and revised throughout and features a full color interior Additional resources for professors and students are available online through Baker Academic's Textbook eSources Always Being Reformed David Hadley Jensen, 2016-03-31 One of the most persistent slogans of Reformed theology is that it is reformed and always being reformed But what does this slogan mean This volume gathers thirteen essays written by a younger generation of Reformed theologians who teach and write on five different continents who together offer this work in Christian systematic theology Unlike many other works of Reformed theology however this book is framed by pressing contextual issues and questions instead of traditional loci Each chapter engages classical doctrine but does so through the lens of contemporary lived experience in particular contexts The result is not a theology where doctrines are applied to contexts but an approach where doctrine and context mutually shape one another The contributors take seriously the notion that theology is always being reformed and is always partial ever on the way hence it requires conversation partners beyond the Reformed family of faith The result is a study in Reformed theology that is thoroughly ecumenical
