Mission In Christs Way An Orthodox Understanding Of Mission:

Mission in Christ's Way Anastasios, 2010-01-01 Mission in Christ's Way Anastasios Yannoulatos, 2013-09-11 Revered for his long service charismatic presence and unwavering commitment to the ecumenical movement Archbishop Anastasios here returns to his missionary roots and offers a new paradigm for Christian mission today Fully engaged in the realities of contemporary religious pluralism as well as secularism Anastasios nonetheless sees an opportunity for a more honest sharing of the faith that is directly relevant to the spiritual quest moral dilemmas and social needs of our planet Co published with Holy Cross Orthodox Press Massachusetts The Mission of the Church Craig Ott, 2016-08-02 Leading Voices from across Christian Traditions Discuss the Mission of the Church What is the mission of the church Every seminarian and church leader must wrestle with that question No matter what designation a church uses to describe itself it must also think critically about why it exists and what it should be doing In this book five leading voices representing a range of Christian traditions engage in an enlightening conversation as they present and compare their perspectives on the mission of the church Each contributor offers his or her view and responds to the other four views Contributors include Stephen B Bevens Darrell L Guder Ruth Padilla DeBorst Edward Rommen and Ed Stetzer The book s format is ideal for classroom use and will also benefit pastors and church leaders Controversies in Mission Rochelle Cathcart Scheuermann, Edward L. Smither, 2016-09-15 Crossing social cultural and religious barriers and making disciples of all nations has probably never been without some level of controversy This book is an attempt to hit the pause button on this rapid paced world and to reflect on how we do mission especially in light of the new layers of complexity that globalization brings While the contributors engage in new aspects of mission and cultural encounter unique to the twenty first century the underlying issues of each chapter are age old topics that have reared their heads at various times throughout history priorities in mission power struggles perspectives on cultural others and contextualization With that in mind our aims are twofold 1 to carefully consider issues causing tension and contention within current mission thought practice and strategy and then 2 to engage in serious but charitable dialogue for the sake of God s mission and the salvation of all peoples The Oxford Handbook of Sacramental Theology Hans Boersma, Matthew Levering, 2015-08-06 As a multi faceted introduction to sacramental theology the purposes of this Handbook are threefold historical ecumenical and missional The forty four chapters are organized into the following parts five parts Sacramental Roots in Scripture Patristic Sacramental Theology Medieval Sacramental Theology From the Reformation through Today and Philosophical and Theological Issues in Sacramental Doctrine Contributors to this Handbook explain the diverse ways that believers have construed the sacraments both in inspired Scripture and in the history of the Church s practice In Scripture and the early Church Orthodox Protestants and Catholics all find evidence that the first Christian communities celebrated and taught about the sacraments in a manner that Orthodox Protestants and Catholics today affirm as the foundation of their own faith and practice Thus for those who want to understand what has been taught about the sacraments in Scripture and across the generations by the major thinkers of the various Christian traditions this Handbook provides an introduction As the divisions in Christian sacramental understanding and practice are certainly evident in this Handbook it is not thereby without ecumenical and missional value This book evidences that the story of the Christian sacraments is despite divisions in interpretation and practice one of tremendous hope

The Holy People of God Svetlana Khobnya, Arseny Ermakov, Deirdre Brower Latz, Peter Rae, MiJa Wi, 2024-03-13 This collection of essays addresses aspects of Christian identity formation as God's holy people in a global context in the midst of various challenges The contributors offer interdisciplinary explorations on what it means to live as God's holy people in different settings and consider challenging questions from biblical historical theological missiological and pastoral perspectives

The Christ who Embraces Jacob Joseph, 2024-10-28 Jacob Joseph's book The Christ who Embraces An Orthodox Theology of Margins explores the intersection of Orthodox Christian mission and caste dynamics among St Thomas Syrian Orthodox Christians in India It defines a liturgical touch or embrace in the context of untouchability where people identify as equal without discrimination reflecting the inseparable unity of Christ's transcendental divine and immanent human nature

Engaging the Doctrine of Revelation Matthew Levering, 2014-11-11 How do human beings today receive divine revelation Where and in what ways is it mediated so that all generations can hear the fullness of the gospel In this volume distinguished theologian Matthew Levering shows that divine revelation has been truthfully mediated through the church the gospel and Scripture so that we can receive it in its fullness today Levering engages past and present approaches to revelation across a variety of traditions offering a comprehensive historical study of all the key figures and perspectives His thorough analysis results in an alternative approach to prevailing views of the doctrine and points to its significance for the entire church

Umstrittene Katholizität: Von der zwiespältigen Beziehung zwischen Vielfalt und Einheit - Catholicity under Pressure: The Ambiguous Relationship between Diversity and Unity Dagmar Heller, Péter Szentpétery, 2016-04-02 Das Attribut katholisch wird in vielen Kontexten als Konfessionsbezeichnung einer bestimmten Kirche missverstanden Die in diesem Band vorgelegten Vorträge der 18. Wissenschaftlichen Konsultation der Societas Oecumenica beleuchten die ökumenische Bedeutung der Katholizität die alle Kirchen im Glaubensbekenntnis bekennen Dabei werden auch die Spannungen zwischen Einheit und Vielfalt sowie die Herausforderungen durch neuere Entwicklungen in der weltweiten Christenheit in den Blick genommen In many contexts the attribute catholic is misunderstood as a confessional term describing one specific church The papers of the 18th Academic Consultation of Societas Oecumenica presented in this book give insights to the ecumenical significance of the catholicity which all churches confess in the Creed They also take into consideration the tensions between unity and diversity as well as the challenges by new developments in worldwide Christianity

Partners, Sisters, and Twins Danny Hunter, 2023-07-27 Congregations are increasingly developing partnerships as a way of engaging directly in global missions One of the most common ways they do this is forming relationships with congregations in other parts of the world This book looks at the reasons that churches seek out missions partners how the partnership phenomenon developed and what beliefs concepts structures and practices inform the healthiest mission partnerships With insights drawn from a survey of churches from across the country and around the world this book provides data driven insights to guide the practice of international congregational partnerships

Theological Dialogue with Classical Pentecostals Jelle Creemers,2015-09-24 The last two decades have witnessed the growing participation in theological dialogues of non institutional free church movements This poses a serious challenge to 21st century ecumenism since ecclesial realities and internal diversity of these movements impede fruitful dialogue in the classical manner The present volume addresses fundamental aspects of this challenge by a critical study of an exemplary case of such dialogues the International Roman Catholic Classical Pentecostal Dialogue 1972 2007 This unique study builds both on primary archival sources and on earlier research on the IRCCPD After providing an ecumenical profile of the Classical Pentecostal dialogue partner Creemers demonstrates how fair representation of the Classical Pentecostal movement has been pursued in the course of the dialogue Next he gives attention to the ecumenical method of the IRCCPD First the development of a dialogue method hinging on hard questions is traced which has allowed a balanced theological exchange between the dialogue partners Regarding theological method it is demonstrated that both partners showed a willingness to experiment together by integrating sources of theological knowledge typically distrusted in their own traditions In conclusion the analyses are integrated in an overview of challenges and opportunities for dialogue with the Classical Pentecostal movement in the context of ongoing discussions on ecumenical method Dostoevsky's Convictional Theology Expressed in His Life and Literature Dumitru Sevastian,2021-03-12 Fyodor Dostoevsky was not a theologian and his books are not books of theology However there is a living way that emerges from the study of his life and work convictions made manifest in the details of his own life and the lives of his characters Utilizing James William McClendon s conception of biography as theology Dr Dumitru Sevastian explores the lived convictions that emerge from three distinct periods in Dostoevsky s life the pre Siberian Siberian and post Siberian each represented by one of his novels The Poor Folk The House of the Dead and The Brothers Karamazov What emerges is a powerful expression of faith formed in community and tempered in suffering an example relevant to all Christians seeking to model their lives and relationships on the dying and resurrected Christ The Good News of The Kingdom Charles E. Van Engen,Dean S. Gilliland,1999-09-17 Mission in Christ's Way Lesslie Newbigin,1987 2010Boston: The Changing Contours of World Mission and Christianity Todd M. Johnson,Rodney L. Petersen,Gina Bellofatto,Travis Myers,2012-01-09 In November 2010 three hundred faculty students and others interested in Christian mission gathered in Boston to consider how the world the global church and Christian missions have changed since the World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh in 1910 and to reflect on the three previous centennial conferences Tokyo 2010 in May Edinburgh 2010 in June and Cape Town 2010 in October Participants at 2010Boston were not delegates from churches and mission agencies but were students and scholars of various aspects of world Christianity representing the Anglican Episcopal Evangelical mainline Protestant Orthodox and Roman Catholic traditions This conference volume consists of nine keynote messages five student presentations three reports from the other conferences and additional materials from or about 2010Boston The keynote messages address the history of mission especially in and from Boston and the current global context for mission and suggest modes for future Christian engagement with the world and one another Student papers address such conference themes as unity in mission mission and postcolonialism and discipleship in context The closing chapter surveys the conference s eight themes and summarizes the outcomes of the 2010Boston process
