Manaloto, 2019-10-31 The communities in which we live all suffer alienation from God and the sin social disorder and brokenness that follows As Christians we yearn to see our communities saturated with the good news of Jesus Christ but there are countless obstacles to overcome in our churches and mission agencies as we seek to fulfil this vision In this book Emerson Manaloto offers the model of New Testament based house churches as the vehicle for gospel ministry in communities around the world with specific applications for the Filipino context Examining four areas leaders learners lessons and locations Dr Manaloto presents foundational principles of the New Testament that can be the basis for our own contemporary churches and ministry

Manaloto critically analyzes the house church in terms of its concepts in the first century its context in the Greco Roman world and its practices as outlined in the New Testament This analysis is then used to draw conclusions for how twenty first century small groups in the Philippines can be stable mature and multiply resulting in the birth of more churches locally and globally and the transformation of lives and communities as they encounter Jesus Christ Missional Acts Daniel

McGinnis,2022-01-14 What is Luke s main purpose in writing the book of Acts In this close study of the entire Acts narrative McGinnis analyzes Luke s story of the first Christians in light of ancient rhetorical conventions concluding that Luke presents his stories to strengthen the missional commitment and practice of his readers Missional Acts approaches a vast amount of varied mission content systematically dividing it into rhetorical instruction about missional stimuli structures strategies and suffering while using a body analogy to provide coherence Even the enigmatic ending of Acts intentionally advances Luke s rhetorical purposes Luke s teaching finds its culmination in the ministry of his archetypal missionary the apostle Paul whose missionary journeys are a Lukan masterclass in mission strategy with much to teach about ministry that transforms whole regions McGinnis rejects the traditional dichotomy that Paul is either a missionary or a prisoner and shows that throughout his work Luke depicts suffering as an integral part of the mission seeking to prepare his readers to face opposition of various kinds Missional Acts will help readers approach Acts in innovative ways by reading it through a primary missional lens

The Facilitator Era Tom Steffen, 2011-01-01 Some time ago Ralph Winter brilliantly identified three eras of modern missions Era 1 William Carey focused on the coastlands Era 2 Hudson Taylor focused on the inlands Era 3 Donald McGavran and Cameron Townsend focused on unreached peoples With all the fast and furious changes swirling around us today in twenty first century missions have we entered a Fourth Era If so who are the people primarily involved How are they selected How are they trained How long do they serve Has the Third Era ministry focus reaching the unreached changed If so to what Are there any successful case studies out there Have McGavran and Townsend passed the baton to a new leader s If so to whom This book seeks to answer these and related questions

Sacred House Alan Andraeas, 2019-10-01 While the House Church Movement is gaining immense popularity throughout many denominational and independent faith communities collectively standing as the largest denomination in the United States sacramental and liturgical congregations are taking only the most tentative steps toward this venue of worship Consequently there exists a vacuum of guidelines or information to support this dynamic ministry model from a uniquely sacramental perspective In this book Dr Andraeas examines the scriptural foundations for liturgical worship the biblical theological and historical precedents for house churches and how a union between priestly liturgy and house church worship complement and support each other He concludes with a vigorous challenge for all sacramental and liturgical jurisdictions to engage their seminarians clergy and people in embracing this approach to church planting evangelism and community ministry while offering thoughtful and obtainable recommendations Church Plantology

Peyton Jones, 2021-04-20 The first comprehensive textbook on effective church planting from a veteran church planter The Apostle Paul was a veteran church planter who laid a foundation like a wise and master builder and there is much we can learn from his example Paul indicated that there were basic skills and experiences required to successfully plant a church Church Plantology examines the wide variety of church planting methods and ideologies in contemporary pastoral practice and outlines a biblical model based on the New Testament During his time in prison Paul spent much of his time writing to Titus Timothy and others who d served alongside him in the trenches to complete their training as church plantings We can continue to apply these time tested proven methods following the pioneering example of the early church Today the casualty rate in is high What if we could reduce the odds of failing Church Plantology by Peyton Jones is a robust guide to planting that will help planters to provide the foundation necessary to survive beyond the initial first years so that they don t end up a walking statistic Socio-Historical Examination of Religion and Ministry, Volume 1, Issue 1 Darren

Slade, 2019-06-13 Socio Historical Examination of Religion and Ministry SHERM journal is a biannual not for profit free peer reviewed academic journal that publishes the latest social scientific historiographic and ecclesiastic research on religious institutions and their ministerial practices SHERM is dedicated to the critical and scholarly inquiry of historical and contemporary religious phenomena both from within particular religious traditions and across cultural boundaries so as to inform the broader socio historical analysis of religion and its related fields of study The purpose of SHERM is to provide a scholarly medium for the social scientific study of religion where specialists can publish advanced studies on religious trends theologies rituals philosophies socio political influences or experimental and applied ministry research in the hopes of generating enthusiasm for the vocational and academic study of religion while fostering collegiality among religious specialists Its mission is to provide academics professionals and nonspecialists with critical reflections and evidence based insights into the socio historical study of religion and where appropriate its implications for ministry and expressions of religiosity Toward a Twenty-First Century Biblical, Apostolic Church SuYeon Yoon, 2019-09-19 This book explores biblical values that critique the ecclesiology of the New Apostolic Reformation Church NARC and compares the ecclesiology to other missional movements in the North American context A biblical exegesis of Ephesians 4 11 13 as well as C Peter Wagner s conceptualization of an apostle and apostolic ministry allow the author to demonstrate the gap between the biblical perspective and Wagner's concept of an apostle. The biblical role of an apostle is to make the church missional by emphasizing the concept of sending, whereas Wagner sees the apostle as a church leader. Based upon interviews and participant observation in three NARCs, SuYeon Yoon describes the leadership and ecclesiology based on their own self-descriptions. This book then demonstrates the gap between the biblical and conceptual ideals and the reality of ecclesial practice. The author argues that the NARC serves as a charismatic manifestation of a similar cultural response to establish a relational structure for church communities that can appropriately reflect upon and identify with the contemporary context. This implies that each movement needs to be biblically sound, faithful to its conceptualization, and relevant to the context in order to cultivate its own way of being the church.
