Dear _____,

Recipient's Name

God has presented me with an amazing opportunity. This year, I have felt the pull in my heart to go on a mission trip to _____ through _____.

Location

Name of Church

Following the will of God, I will be there from _____ to _____.

I will be staying with _____ and partnering with them to share the healing love of Jesus Christ.

During our stay, we will take on numerous tasks. Some of these include, among other acts of evangelism, the following:

I am bursting with excitement and intent to carry out God's good intentions. I know that the experience will serve not only those in the community I am venturing to but myself as well. I hope to learn how to further the mission at home and bring back tales of how I have seen God work.

Constructing Mission History Stanley H. Skreslet, 2023-01-17 Three master narratives currently dominate the analysis of modern mission history One puts foreign missionaries at the heart of the story A second emphasizes the colonial aspect of modern missions Here missionaries are not heroes but villains who are implicated in hegemonic schemes of imperial domination Thirdly mission history is subordinated to one of its outcomes the advent of World Christianity In this master narrative the concept of contextualization looms large bolstered by Sanneh s notion of translatability and emphasis on the agency of non Westerners who participate in and subtly shape the complex social processes of evangelization While all three of these master narratives are insightful none of them adequately balances concern for missionary initiative and indigenous agency Borrowing from speech act theory Skreslet offers a new analytical approach to the modern roots of World Christianity that differentiates between what a speaker might intend to communicate and the effects of what has been said or actions taken both in the moment and over time Corresponding to the concepts of illocution and perlocution as these technical terms are used in speech act theory the book is structured in two main sections Initially the focus is on expressed missionary motives Part two engages a representative set of modern era mission performances involving many more actors than just the foreign evangelizers whose stated or implied intentions are emphasized in part one

Together in One Mission Arto Hamalainen, Grant McClung, 2012-09-27

The Spirit of Development Erica Bornstein, 2005 This book is an examination of the connections between modern economic practices globalization and contemporary Christian religious belief based on an ethnographic study of NGOs in Zimbabwe It addresses issues crucial for those interested in the strengths and weaknesses of development theory and practice as well as in Protestant Christianity as a transnational religion

For the Love of God Jerry M. Ireland, 2017-03-23 Compassionate missions constitutes a growing focus among evangelical denominations and agencies Because of this there exists a growing need to be guided by sound principles and best practices This edited volume sets forth both the biblical foundations and preferred methods for churches wanting to engage in compassion as part of their missionary efforts The aim throughout is that compassionate missions would be guided by indigenous principles that help establish autonomous local churches capable of being salt and light in their communities The contributors to this volume have over 200 years of missions experience Through their first hand knowledge of the challenges and pitfalls faced by missionaries engaging in compassion these authors set forth foundational principles and practical guidelines related to some of the most pressing issues confronting missionaries today These include HIV AIDS UPGs human trafficking orphans and vulnerable children gender issues and many more Pastors missionaries missions boards and educators will find this a valuable resource as the church in the twenty first century continues to engage in the Great Commission

Christian Globalism at Home Hillary Kaell, 2020-06-09 An exploration of how ordinary U S Christians come to feel globally connected through the multibillion dollar child sponsorship industry Christian Globalism at Home looks at the massive charitable industry that is Christian child sponsorship from its growth in nineteenth century Protestant missions to its status as one of today s most profitable private fundraising tools Investigating two centuries of sponsorship and its related practices in American living rooms churches and shopping malls Hillary Kaell examines the myriad ways that Christians who don t travel outside of the United States have cultivated global connections and the ethical and ideological questions involved Popular child sponsorship organizations including World Vision Compassion International and ChildFund raise billions of dollars and circulate millions of letters and photos around the world annually Kaell traces the movement of money letters and images along with a wide array of the lesser known techniques of sponsorship such as playacting hymn singing eating and fasting She shows how through this process U S Christians attempt to hone globalism of a particular sort by oscillating between the sensory experiences of a God s eye view and the intimacy of human relatedness These global aspirations are buoyed by grand hopes and subject to intractable limitations since they so often rely on the inequities they claim to redress Based on extensive interviews archival research and fieldwork Christian Globalism at Home explores how U S Christians imagine and experience the world without ever leaving home Spirit of Missions ,1910 Successful Mission Teams Martha VanCise,1996 All you need to know to plan a safe and hassle free mission trip This indispensable guide covers such common sense topics as customs currency security immunizations and fundraising Colonial Intimacies Erika Perez,2018-01-25 A gem of historical scholarship Vicki L Ruiz author of From Out of the Shadows Mexican Women in Twentieth Century America How do intimate relationships reveal reflect enable or enact the social and political dimensions of imperial projects In particular how did colonial relations in late eighteenth and nineteenth century southern California implicate sexuality marriage and kinship ties In Colonial Intimacies Erika P rez probes everyday relationships encounters and interactions to show how intimate choices about marriage social networks and godparentage were embedded in larger geopolitical concerns Her work reveals through the lens of social and familial intimacy subtle tools of conquest and acts of resistance and accommodation among indigenous peoples Spanish Mexican settlers Franciscan missionaries and European and Anglo American merchants Concentrating on Catholic conversion compadrazgo baptismal sponsorship that often forged interethnic relations and intermarriage P rez examines the ways indigenous and Spanish Mexican women helped shape communities and sustained their culture She uncovers an unexpected fluidity in Californian society shaped by race class gender religion and kinship that persisted through the colony s transition from Spanish to American rule Colonial Intimacies focuses on the offspring of interethnic couples and their strategies for coping with colonial rule and negotiating racial and cultural identities P rez argues that these sons and daughters experienced conquest in different ways tied directly to their gender and in turn faced different options in terms of marriage partners economic status social networks and expressions of biculturality Offering a more nuanced understanding of the colonial experience Colonial Intimacies exposes the personal ties that undergirded imperial relationships in Spanish Mexican and early American California Financing American Religion Mark Chaves,Sharon L.
