Introduction to Early Childhood Education and Care Carole Massing, Mary Lynne Matheson, 2021-07-26 Ensure children of all backgrounds can thrive with an intercultural approach to early childhood education In a multicultural society such as Canada s early childhood educators work with children and families from a diverse mix of ethnicities religions languages abilities and lifestyles Diversity enriches the experience of children and educators alike in these environments but it can also present challenges in supporting each child s growth and learning In Introduction to Early Childhood Learning and Care early learning specialists Carole Massing and Mary Lynne Matheson present an intercultural perspective as a foundation of equitable outcomes in early childhood education but just what does that look like An intercultural approach involves the respectful exchange of ideas between people from diverse backgrounds leading to mutual trust and deeper relationships Guided by a diverse team of reviewers this book examines the concepts approaches and strategies that every early childhood educator needs to know to provide sensitive culturally responsive care for children and their families Topics include The theoretical bases for an intercultural approach to early childhood education and care The factors that impact a child s physical cognitive social and emotional development How to create environments that enhance children s wellbeing and affirm their identity How to support children s creativity literacy and inquiry skills through an intercultural lens The skills responsibilities and challenges of working as an early childhood educator

Working with Parents and Families in Early Childhood Education Ute Ward, Bob Perry, 2020-05-21 This book reports initiatives to listen to parents and families to ascertain what families believe and do as they seek to engage collaboratively with their children s educators and what educators and educational systems might do to facilitate and or establish barriers to such engagement Parental engagement in children s learning and development has many positive benefits However in the current environments of accountability and performativity which are pervading early childhood education in many countries the opportunities for parents and other family members to be part of the development of respectful collaborative relationships with their children s early childhood educators are becoming more and more restricted Many educators feel forced to choose between curriculum outcomes and parental engagement as both involve their time There is a danger that the voices of parents and families in their children s early learning and development will not always be heard seen or fully understood This volume addresses this important issue Researchers educators and families will all benefit from this book to the ultimate benefit of the young children who are the future This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Early Childhood Education Research Journal
