Minima Ethnographica Minima Ethnographica:

Minima Ethnographica Michael Jackson, 1998-08 The postmodern opposition between theory and lived reality has led in part to an anthropological turn to dialogic or reflexive approaches Michael Jackson claims these approaches are hardly radical as they still drift into such abstractions as society or culture His Minima Ethnographica proposes an existential anthropology that recognizes even abstract relationships as modalities of interpersonal life Written in the style of Theodor Adorno's Minima Moralia Jackson's work shows how general ideas are always anchored in particular social events and critical concerns Emphasizing the intersubjective encounter over objective descriptions of the whole historical and contemporary situation of a given people he illustrates the power and originality of existential anthropology through a series of vignettes from his fieldwork in Sierra Leone and Australia An award winning poet novelist and anthropologist Jackson offers a timely critique of conventions that dull our sense of the links between academic study and lived experience

The Ethnographic Self as Resource Peter Collins, Anselma Gallinat, 2010-05-01 It is commonly acknowledged that anthropologists use personal experiences to inform their writing However it is often assumed that only fieldwork experiences are relevant and that the personal appears only in the form of self reflexivity This book takes a step beyond anthropology at home and auto ethnography and shows how anthropologists can include their memories and experiences as ethnographic data in their writing It discusses issues such as authenticity translation and ethics in relation to the self and offers a new perspective on doing ethnographic fieldwork

African Witchcraft and Otherness Elias Kifon Bongmba, 2015-01-21 This work of African philosophy and theology uses the thought of Emmanuel Levinas to provide an analysis of tfu witchcraft among the Wimbun people of Cameroon along with a critique of intersubjective relations Taking an approach he calls critical contextualism author Elias Bongmba employs Levinas's philosophy particularly the concept of the Other to engage in cross cultural philosophy that does not destroy the perspective of the culture under study Insights from anthropology African studies and the author's own experiences are also important throughout the book Bongmba discusses the cultural background of the Wimbun people and explores the concepts and terms used to discuss the acquisition of several categories of power generally described as tfu Bongmba argues that when properly explored and understood these terms refer to complex practices that involve power that can be used for good and power that can be abused Drawing from Levinas the author demonstrates that negative use of tfu constitutes a totalizing praxis He goes on to endorse Levinas's call for a phenomenology of eros as a way of reconfiguring interpersonal relationships

Constructions of Time and History in the Pre-Columbian Andes Edward Swenson,Andrew Roddick,2018-03-15 Constructions of Time and History in the Pre Columbian Andes explores archaeological approaches to temporalities social memory and constructions of history in the pre Columbian Andes The authors examine a range of indigenous temporal experiences and ideologies including astronomical cyclical generational eschatological and mythical time This nuanced interdisciplinary volume challenges outmoded anthropological theories while building on an emic perspective to gain greater understanding of pre Columbian Andean cultures Contributors to the volume rethink the dichotomy of past and present by understanding history as indigenous Andeans perceived it recognizing the past as a palpable and living presence We live in history not apart from it Within this framework time can be understood as a current rather than as distinct points moments periods or horizons The Andes offer a rich context by which to evaluate recent philosophical explorations of space and time Using the varied materializations and ritual emplacements of time in a diverse sampling of landscapes Constructions of Time and History in the Pre Columbian Andes serves as a critique of archaeology s continued and exclusive dependence on linear chronologies that obscure historically specific temporal practices and beliefs Contributors Tamara L Bray Zachary J Chase Mar a Jos Culquichic n Venegas Terence D Altroy Giles Spence Morrow Matthew Sayre Francisco Seoane Darryl Wilkinson Ethnographers Before Malinowski Frederico Delgado Rosa,Han F. Vermeulen,2022-06-10 Focusing on some of the most important ethnographers in early anthropology this volume explores twelve defining works in the foundational period from 1870 to 1922 It challenges the assumption that intensive fieldwork and monographs based on it emerged only in the twentieth century What has been regarded as the age of armchair anthropologists was in reality an era of active ethnographic fieldworkers including women practitioners and Indigenous experts Their accounts have multiple layers of meaning style and content that deserve fresh reading This reference work is a vital source for rewriting the history of anthropology Becoming Middle Class Markus Roos Breines,2021-08-02 This book is an ethnography of urban to urban migration and its role in middle class formation in Ethiopia Through an examination of the intersections and tensions between physical movement and social mobility it considers how young Tigrayan people s migration between urban centres made them distinct from both international migrants and non migrants Based on fieldwork in Adigrat and Addis Ababa it focuses on these young people s notions of progress experiences of higher education and ethnic tensions to demonstrate how their movements enabled them to enhance their economic social and symbolic capital while their cultural capital remained largely unchanged The book provides new insights into the opportunities and constraints for upward social mobility and argues that the emergence of shared characteristics among urban to urban migrants led to the formation of a group that can be described as a middle class in Ethiopia A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion Janice Boddy,Michael Lambek,2015-12-14 A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion presents a collection of original ethnographically informed essays that explore the variety of beliefs practices and religious experiences in the contemporary world and asks how to think about religion as a subject of anthropological inquiry Presents a collection of original ethnographically informed essays exploring the wide variety of beliefs practices and religious experiences in the contemporary world Explores a broad range of topics including the perspectivism debate the rise of religious nationalism reflections on religion and new media religion and politics and ideas of self and gender in relation to religious belief Includes examples drawn from different religious traditions and from several regions of the world Features newly commissioned articles reflecting the most up to date research and critical thinking in the field written by an international team of leading scholars Adds immeasurably to our understanding of the complex relationships between religion culture society and the individual in today s world Managing Uncertainty Richard Jenkins,Hanne Jessen,Vibeke

Steffen,2005 The overall focus of this book is the ways humans deal with life conditions with destiny uncertainty and misfortune how we try to control the risks of living through medicines technologies and magic When dealing with questions of health and illness rational solutions and meaningful explanations may be hard to find and treatment efforts are often guided just as much by hope as by rational choice Evaluating the risks of illness is just one of a number of ways in which human beings attempt to exert some sense of control over their lives New methods of testing for ills and new developments in for example genetic screening and in vitro fertilisation combined with the growing demands of well informed patients seem to have turned concern from the actual problems of specific diseases toward controlling life and the risks of living in general The chapters of this book reflect a common effort to transgress the limits of the medical by drawing on a fundamental concern with the logic of social and cultural practice The book represents a de medicalization of medical anthropology and a return to some of the classic themes in anthropology but with a different approach emphasizing subjectivity intentionality and agency

Shape-Shifting Capital George González,2015-05-20 Shape Shifting Capital Spiritual Management Critical Theory and the Ethnographic Project is positioned at the intersection of anthropology critical theory and philosophy of religion First Gonz lez explores the phenomena of workplace spirituality in a language that is accessible to a general readership Taking contemporary trends in organizational management as a case study he argues by way of a detailed ethnographic study of practitioners of workplace spirituality that the conceptual and institutional boundaries between religion science and capitalism are being redrawn by theologized management appropriations of tropes borrowed from creativity theory and quantum mechanics Second Gonz lez makes a case for a critical anthropology of religion that combines existential concerns for biography and intentionality with poststructuralist concerns for power arguing that the ways in which the personalization of metaphor bridges personal and social histories also helps bring about broader epistemic shifts in society Finally in a postsecular age in which capitalism itself is explicitly and confidently spiritual Gonz lez suggests that it is imperative to reorient our critical energies towards a present day evaluation of postmodern capitalism s boundary blurring Gonz lez further argues that the kind of existential deconstruction performed by what he calls existential archeology can serve the needs of any social criticism of neoliberal religion and corporate spirituality      Deep Mapping Les Roberts,2018-10-01 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Deep Mapping that was published in Humanities      The Interview Association of Social Anthropologists of the UK and the Commonwealth.
