Ministering to Older Adults Donald Koepke, 2013-10-18 Learn how to focus your ministry's programs and services on the elderly By 2030 20% of the people living in the United States will be age 65 or older with unique spiritual needs that can affect their physical and mental well being Ministering to Older Adults answers the critical need for a ministry that doesn't center primarily on youth and families in its outreach instead presenting a step by step guide to developing a ministry for the aged that is focused on the needs and resources of each congregation This program has been used effectively with nearly 50 congregations both large and small to create a focused older adult ministry No two congregations are alike The resources perspectives and skills of each congregation are different as are the needs of its members Ministering to Older Adults provides a framework for use by planning groups within communities of any religious tradition The book presents a process that includes essential questions that allow planning groups to develop answers that fit the needs cultural history and structure of their individual congregations Ministering to Older Adults is divided into three sections The Fundamentals defining your audience your mission and the skills and existing programs that can be brought to the planning process Programming Possibilities spiritual needs based on the aging process continued learning for older adults opportunities to serve and be served providing quality pastoral care and community building Putting it All Together deciding on a direction using desired outcomes for evaluation establishing target dates and ongoing evaluation Ministering to Older Adults also includes forms and charts to help in the planning process The book is an invaluable resource for clergy ministry committees and planning groups and staff persons responsible for older adult ministries

Building Resilience Daniel P. Aldrich, 2020-03-04 The factor that makes some communities rebound quickly from disasters while others fall apart A fascinating book on an important topic E L Hirsch in Choice Each year natural disasters threaten the strength and stability of communities worldwide Yet responses to the challenges of recovery vary greatly and in ways that aren't explained by the magnitude of the catastrophe or the amount of aid provided by national governments or the international community The difference between resilience and disrepair as Daniel P Aldrich shows lies in the depth of communities social capital Building Resilience highlights the critical role of social capital in the ability of a community to withstand disaster and rebuild both the infrastructure and the ties that are at the foundation of any community Aldrich examines the post disaster responses of four distinct communities Tokyo following the 1923 earthquake Kobe after the 1995 earthquake Tamil Nadu after the 2004 Indian Ocean Tsunami and New Orleans post Katrina and finds that those with robust social networks were better able to coordinate recovery In addition to quickly disseminating information and financial and physical assistance communities with an abundance of social capital were able to minimize the migration of people and valuable resources out of the area With governments increasingly overstretched and natural disasters likely to increase in frequency and intensity a thorough understanding of what contributes to efficient reconstruction is more important than ever Building Resilience underscores a
