

MISSING STARS, FALLEN SPARROWS

A CAPERNAUM STORY

The book cover features a silhouette of a person in a wheelchair with their arms raised in a gesture of praise or hope. The background is a warm, golden-yellow sky filled with numerous small, five-pointed stars. Three birds are depicted in flight: two sparrows in the upper left and a larger, more ornate bird in the lower left. The overall mood is one of spiritual longing and hope.

Redefining Perfect Amy E. Jacober, 2017-12-05 Theology and disability have not always had an easy relationship The interactions have ranged from downright hostile to indifferent or unintentionally excluding over the centuries This theology book chooses instead to include those with disabilities after more than a decade of consideration and study This results in a re examination of major theological topics and the impact on the lives of those with disabilities their family and friends and the community at large The focus of the book is to move the church beyond welcome to inclusion where those with disabilities move from a guest of the community to equal and valued member of the community While the book is about the theological inclusion of those with disabilities its implications reach far beyond It sets an approach for all people to find a place where they too may live in the fullness of Christian community Stories of personal encounters are blended with explanations of doctrinal perspectives giving the reader a chance to connect knowledge with wisdom born from real life experience

Song of the Red Sparrow Rory Shane Riggs, 2011-05-26 In the tradition of Gone with the Wind, Cold Mountain, and Lonesome Dove, Song of the Red Sparrow presents the first installment of a sweeping historical epic that moves from Maryland at the time of the Civil War to a small isolated Texas town. In Prairie Gulch, Texas, guarded secrets are told, legends are whispered, buried lies are uncovered, and hidden identities aren't hidden for long. For residents of this rough and tumble town tucked away on the fringes of the civilized world, any change of pace is a welcome one. When a company of four lovely young dancers and singers rolls into town, all sorts of unexpected adventures ensue. But even their sworn protector, the stalwart Ralph Waldo Horowitz, can't prevent their first night in Prairie Gulch from becoming one they'll never forget. Luckily, the town's sheriff takes the ladies under his protection. Soon enough, the ladies of the Miss Lilliforth Dance League will learn that nothing sings quite like the song of the Red Sparrow.

Maureen O'Hara is the first book-length biography of the screen legend, hailed as the Queen of Technicolor.
