 Pleasant,2015-08-14 As in many small towns in the South folks in Conway South Carolina fill the stands on fall Fridays to cheer on their local high school football squad In 1989 with returning starter Carlos Hunt at quarterback and having finished with an 8 4 record in 1988 hopes were high that the beloved Tigers would win their first state championship But during spring practice Coach Chuck Jordan who is white benched Hunt who is black in favor of Mickey Wilson an inexperienced white player Seeing this demotion of the black quarterback as an example of the racism prevalent in football generally and in Conway specifically thirty one of the team s thirty seven black players under the guidance of H H Singleton pastor of Cherry

Hill Missionary Baptist Church and president of the local NAACP boycotted the team in protest. The season long strike severed the town along racial lines as it became clear that the incident was about much more than football. It was about the legacy of slavery and segregation and Jim Crow and other points of tension and oppression that many people in Conway and the South had wrongly assumed were settled. While the 1989 season is long over the story reverberates today. Chuck Jordan is still coaching at Conway High and he's still without that state championship. Meanwhile Mickey Wilson is now coaching Conway's fiercest rival the Myrtle Beach Seahawks. In the annual Victory Bell Game between Conway and Myrtle Beach the biggest contest of the year for both teams a veteran coach and his young protégé compete against each other against the backdrop of a racial conflict that bitterly divided a small southern town. Football Fields and Battlefields Miller

Jeff, 2018-10-09 The 2003 Army football team achieved futility in major college play that might never be equaled losing all 13 of its games. The squad that took the field on a frigid December 2003 day in Philadelphia for the celebrated Army Navy game featured only eight fourth year seniors just a slice of the fifty energetic freshmen plebes in academy vernacular who reported to West Point amid the heat and humidity of the summer of 2000 hoping to land spots on the football team. For most of the fifty West Point represented their best or only opportunity to play major college football. They were bypassed by the big time football schools that award athletic scholarships which aren't available at the nation's military academies. Making a five year active duty military commitment following graduation was a small price to pay during peacetime. But peacetime in America ended only days into their second year at the academy on September 11, 2001. Those eight seniors like virtually all of their cadet peers maintained their commitments to the US Army in the wake of 9/11. They worked their way up from West Point's JV football team as freshmen earned positions on the Black Knights varsity team as others left the program voluntarily or otherwise and walked to the center of the field for the coin toss before that final opportunity for victory against the arch rival Midshipmen. The football field then gave way to the battlefield. Most of the eight were deployed overseas serving at least one tour in either Iraq or Afghanistan. One won the Bronze Star another the Purple Heart. One qualified for an elite Rangers battalion another for the 160th special operations aviation Night Stalkers. They took on enemy fire. They grieved at the loss of brothers in arms. They hugged their loved ones tightly upon returning home. There was no more talk of football losses. They were winners. Basketball in America Frank Hoffmann, Robert P Batchelor, Martin J Manning, 2016-05-23
