 Burton Muslim Studies, Vol. 1 Ignac Goldziher, 1967-06-30 This is the first volume of Goldziher s Muslim Studies which ranks highly among the classics of the scholarly literature on Islam Indeed the two volumes originally published in German in 1889 1890 can justly be counted among those which laid the foundations of the modern study of Islam as a religion and a civilization The first study deals with the reaction of Islam to the ideals of Arab tribal society to the attitudes of early Islam to the various nationalities and more especially the Persians and culminates in the chapter on the Shu ubiyya movement which represents the reaction of the newly converted peoples and again more especially of the Persians to the idea of Arab superiority The second essay is the famous study on the development of the Hadith the Traditions ascribed to Muhammed in which the Hadith is shown to reflect the various trends of early Islam and in which its collection and the subsequent literature devoted to it is described Goldziher's name is mainly associated with the critical study of the Hadith of which this essay is the chief monument The third essay is about the cult of saints which though contrary to the spirit and the letter of the earliest Islam played such an important part in its subsequent development These essays with the author's marvelous richness of information profound historical sense and sympathetic insight into the motive forces of religion and civilization are today as fresh as at the time of their original publication and are indispensable for all students of Islam The editor S M Stern has brought the annotation up to date by completing whenever necessary the references by making relevant additions and by indicating the most important later literature dealing with the subjects treated in the studies
