Watermelons, Nooses, and Straight Razors David Pilgrim, 2017-12-30 All groups tell stories but some groups have the power to impose their stories on others to label others stigmatize others paint others as undesirables and to have these stories presented as scientific fact God's will or wholesome entertainment Watermelons Nooses and Straight Razors examines the origins and significance of several longstanding antiblack stories and the caricatures and stereotypes that support them Here readers will find representations of the lazy childlike Sambo the watermelon obsessed pickaninny the buffoonish minstrel the subhuman savage the loyal and contented mammy and Tom and the menacing razor toting coon and brute Malcolm X and James Baldwin both refused to eat

watermelon in front of white people They were aware of the jokes and other stories about African Americans stealing watermelons fighting over watermelons even being transformed into watermelons Did racial stories influence the actions of white fraternities and sororities who dressed in blackface and mocked black culture or employees who hung nooses in their workplaces What stories did the people who refer to Serena Williams and other dark skinned athletes as apes or baboons hear Is it possible that a white South Carolina police officer who shot a fleeing black man had never heard stories about scary black men with straight razors or other weapons Antiracist stories still matter Watermelons Nooses and Straight Razors uses images from the Jim Crow Museum the nation's largest publicly accessible collection of racist objects These images are evidence of the social injustice that Martin Luther King Jr referred to as a boil that can never be cured so long as it is covered up but must be exposed to the light of human conscience and the air of national opinion before it can be cured Each chapter concludes with a story from the author's journey challenging the integrity of racial narratives

Trail of Shadows Chuck Hornung, B. Lee Charlton, 2019-05-30 In the summer of 1930 two federal prohibition agents were murdered The first died in a hail of buckshot on a dark street in Aguilar Colorado Six weeks later the second agent and his vehicle disappeared on a sunny afternoon along a New Mexico state highway south of Raton During their fifty year search the authors sought answers to why no one was ever prosecuted for these crimes This is the first book to correlate the two murders identify how and why they occurred and name the parties involved and the roles they played Drawing from first hand interviews and National Archives files this book lifts the shadows along the trail as the light of truth is shown upon this mystery Two federal agents can now rest in peace

Monumental Tales Jackie Buckle, 2019-01-01 Around the world there are thousands of pet statues and memorials with fascinating stories behind them Some reveal insights into our social history such as the little brown dog in Battersea that was a focus of suffragette riots Others have wonderfully quirky origins like the twenty three cats of York sculptures added to buildings designed by a cat loving architect Many more reveal tales of courage loyalty myth and legend From Egyptian cat goddesses and the heroic dogs of war to search and rescue canines on 9/11 and Tombili the Turkish moggy who became an Internet sensation this book brings together a selection of the most surprising amusing and illuminating stories complete with dozens of full colour photographs Anyone with an appreciation of pets the varied roles they play in our lives and the ways in which our relationships with them have evolved over time should find much of interest in this book Should you spot some pet statues or memorials of your own please do let the author know via the book's website www.monumentaltales.org.uk
