Onder de zinspreuk Libere & modeste ,1763 Property and Trust Law in the Netherlands Arthur Salomons,Matthias Haentjens,2017-04-24 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of the law of property in the Netherlands deals with the issues related to rights and interests in all kinds of property and assets immovable movable and personal property how property rights are acquired fiduciary mechanisms and security considerations Lawyers who handle transnational disputes and other matters concerning property will appreciate the explanation of specific terminology application and procedure An introduction outlining the essential legal cultural and historical considerations affecting property is followed by a discussion of the various types of property Further analysis describes how and to what extent legal subjects can have or obtain rights and interests in each type The coverage includes tangible and intangible property varying degrees of interest and the various ways in which property is transferred including the ramifications of appropriation expropriation and insolvency Facts are presented in such a way that readers who are unfamiliar with specific terms and concepts in varying contexts will fully grasp their meaning and significance The book includes ample references to doctrine and cases as well as to relevant international treaties and conventions Its succinct yet scholarly nature as well as the practical quality of the information it provides make this book a valuable time saving tool for any practitioner faced with a property related matter Lawyers representing parties with interests in the Netherlands will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative property law

Neder-lands advys-boek, Isaäc van den Berg,1697 Directors & Officers (D & O) Liability Simon

Deakin,Helmut Koziol,Olaf Riss,2018-02-19 In recent years several cases concerning the liability of directors and officers have courted controversy Arguments raised in such discussions oscillate between two extremes on the one hand the need for governing bodies to give a space to entrepreneurial discretion and on the other hand to ensure the protection of investors in and creditors of a company from the consequences of disadvantageous decisions by those bodies In light of the geographical dispersal of the above stakeholders the study offers a comparative insight into the liability of directors and officers in 10 key European jurisdictions in particular Austria Czech Republic Germany Italy the Netherlands Norway Poland Spain and Switzerland and 4 non European jurisdictions namely Brazil Israel Turkey and the United States Amongst other things it investigates existing company law principles on the topic and examines their interaction with tort law and other fields with a view to suggesting principles for better stakeholder protection National reports are complemented by an economic analysis and insurance conflict of laws and comparative reports The study also benefits from case study analyses
