Persons Human And Divine:

Persons Peter van Inwagen, Dean Zimmerman, 2007-01-25 The nature of persons is a perennial topic of debate in philosophy This volume brings together metaphysical debates about the nature of human persons with related debates in philosophy of religion and theology It explores idealist dualist and materialist views of persons The Holy Spirit as Person and Power Rob Yule, 2020-01-10 In just over one hundred years the Pentecostal charismatic movement has transformed world Christianity Noted for their rediscovery of spiritual gifts and commitment to world evangelization 700 million Pentecostals and charismatics now account for more than 27 percent of the global Christian movement The Pentecostal charismatic movement has been more noted for its activism than for theological reflection But this may be changing The Holy Spirit as Person and Power challenges traditional theology to take account of what has been disclosed in the dynamism and variety of charismatic experience The author is a theologically trained practitioner impacted in midlife by a transforming experience of the Holy Spirit He has been a hands on leader in the renewal movement Now in his later years he reflects on the meaning of the grace imparted to the church by the renewing activity of God's Spirit This is not the work of an enthusiast claiming a new revelation Rather the author draws attention to many nuances in the Bible's description of the Spirit that have been overlooked in traditional pneumatology By relating these insights to Orthodox Catholic Protestant and evangelical theology he has produced a book with ecumenical implications for all branches of world Christianity Crowned with Glory and Honor Michael A. Wilkinson, 2024-03-06 Jesus defines what it means to be human The field of theological anthropology is at a standstill mired in debate between dualist and physicalist perspectives on body and soul In Crowned with Glory and Honor A Chalcedonian Anthropology Michael A Wilkinson argues that the man Jesus is the way forward Anthropology should be centered around Jesus God the Son incarnate is true man like us in all things except sin Wilkinson approaches human ontology through Christology by looking to the Chalcedonian Definition and its Christology Chalcedon confesses the man Jesus to be the divine person of the Son subsisting in a human nature A Chalcedonian anthropology extends Jesus's person nature constitution to define what it means to be human A human being is a human person subsisting in a human nature We are more than body and soul because Jesus is so much more Jonathan Edwards and the Life of God W. Ross Hastings, 2015 Jonathan Edwards and the Life of God aims to offer a retrieval of Edwards's theology of participation for contemporary evangelical theology It critically expounds and elucidates the concept of participation in God or theosis in Edwards's Trinitarian theology as it relates to around three unions the three persons of the Trinity the hypostatic union of the divine and human in Christ and that of believers with Christ This volume brings Edwards's rich theological work into conversation with the patristic Augustine and the Cappadocians and Reformed traditions Calvin and especially Barth in order to construct with Edwards a more hopeful liberating and truly human version of Christian life Consideration of the life of God in Edwards thus moves beyond in two senses first perspectives on participation beyond those of Edwards from Barth Volf the

Cappadocian Fathers and others in the tradition are engaged in order to locate and critique and enhance it and secondly in the sense that as Hastings argues participation leads for Edwards and others into the beyond of the beatific vision the glory of God which is the hope that amongst other things motivates the Christian life

Gregory of Nyssa, Ancient and (Post)modern Morwenna Ludlow, 2007-09-21 The fourth century Christian thinker Gregory of Nyssa has been the subject of a huge variety of interpretations over the past fifty years from historians theologians philosophers and others In this highly original study Morwenna Ludlow analyses these recent readings of Gregory of Nyssa and asks What do they reveal about modern and postmodern interpretations of the Christian past What do they say about the nature of Gregory's writing Working thematically through studies of recent Trinitarian theology Christology spirituality feminism and postmodern hermeneutics Ludlow develops an approach to reading the Church Fathers which combines the benefits of traditional scholarship on the early Church with reception history and theology

Thomistic Metaphysics Charles A. Hart, 2023-02-15 One of the major objectives of this book is to make Thomistic metaphysics an inquiry into the act of existing the act of to be exercised by all beings to some degree more understandable to the man of ordinary intellectual training Therefore the various problems of metaphysics and their solutions are presented in the simplest terms possible with special emphasis on their significance for the contemporary mind

Dante's Persons Heather Webb, 2016-05-06 Dante's Persons explores the concept of personhood as it appears in Dante's Commedia and seeks out the constituent ethical modes that the poem presents as necessary for attaining a fullness of persona The study suggests that Dante presents a vision of transhuman potentiality in which the human person is after death fully integrated into co presence with other individuals in a network of relations based on mutual recognition and interpersonal attention The Commedia Heather Webb argues aims to depict and to actively construct a transmortal community in which the plenitude of each individual's person is realized in and through recognition of the personhood of other individuals who constitute that community whether living or dead Webb focuses on the strategies the Commedia employs to call us to collaborate in the mutual construction of persons As we engage with the dead that inhabit its pages we continue to maintain the personhood of those dead Webb investigates Dante's implicit and explicit appeals to his readers to act in relation to the characters in his otherworlds as if they were persons Moving through the various encounters of Purgatorio and Paradiso this study documents the ways in which characters are presented as persons in development or in a state of plenitude through attention to the corporeal modes of smiles gazes gestures and postures Dante's journey provides a model for the formation and maintenance of a network of personal attachments attachments that as constitutive of persona are not superseded even in the presence of the direct vision of God

The Encyclopedia Americana, 1918

The Americana, 1923

Precious Enemy Toby Jennings, 2017-04-17 King Solomon asserted love is as strong as death Song of Solomon 8:6 Solomon the wisest of all Israel's kings recognized that while every human would eventually succumb to death death is not ultimate in power The God whose essence is love designed and created both human life and death as instruments for the display of his own splendor and purposes Neither human life nor death then can deviate from God's ultimate purpose and good for the creature made in his own image Biblically death serves as the perfect foil to mark both the immeasurable value of human life and at the same time the relatively limited value of it Rather than either worshipping or desecrating this finite gift of human life we can value it rightly and also worship the God who in his literally infinite wisdom gives and takes away life in accord with his good and gracious purposes

Freedom, Redemption and Communion: Studies in Christian Doctrine Oliver D. Crisp, 2021-05-20 Oliver D Crisp studies the topics of human freedom redemption and communion with one another and God which are central themes in Christian theology The chapters of this volume are arranged according to how they would appear in a traditional dogmatics dealing with issues concerning human free will and sin studies on the person of Christ in recent theology and human redemption The book ends with pieces examining two important issues in Christian practice namely the Eucharist and prayer Deeply engaged with the Christian tradition and exemplifying a generous orthodoxy this work makes a constructive theological case for the vitality and importance of Reformed theology today

How to Ruin Your Education and TV Viewing Spencer D. Gear, 2022-03-31 What will you do as a parent if your fourteen year old comes home from school and says You and the teachers have been telling me Columbus discovered the Americas You've lied to me because that isn't true There are no such things as facts and I decide the meaning of what is written in my textbooks I'm the one who chooses the interpretation of any writing including history and the stories of Columbus How are you going to answer especially in light of what the Encyclopaedia Britannica states about Columbus This book examines how historical Jesus scholar John Dominic Crossan has dismantled education TV viewing by application and religious studies with his postmodern deconstruction of the text His theme is I formulate it here as I see it Texts and interpretations are out of the mind of Crossan Using a hypothesis testing technique the author challenges Crossan's perspective that Jesus's resurrection was an apparition and not a bodily resurrection Even though he calls on others to First read the text that is not what he does The philosophical crusher has found him out to be contradictory in his assessment of history in his autobiography and his own writings on the historical Jesus
