The American Politics of French Theory Jason

Demers,2019-01-01 Working from the premise that May 68 is a shorthand that delimits an intensive decade of global revolt Jason Demers documents the cross pollination of French philosophy international activist movements and American countercultures From the assassinations of Martin Luther King Jr and George Jackson to the revolt at Columbia University the 1968 Democratic National Convention Woodstock and the Weather Underground Demers writes French theory into a constellation of American events and icons uncontained by national borders More than a compelling new take on the history of theory The American Politics of French Theory develops concepts gleaned from the work of Derrida Deleuze Guattari and Foucault providing new tools for thinking about translation theory and politics By recontextualizing French theory within a complex fabric of mass communication and global revolt Demers demonstrates why it is politically potent and methodologically necessary to think of translation associatively

Dada as Text, Thought and Theory Stephen Forcer,2017-07-05 The Dada movement

revered as perhaps the purest form of cultural subversion and provocation in 20th century Europe has been a victim of the readiness with which cultural historians have swallowed its own propaganda Based on extensive close analysis of French language Dada work in its original form and offering English translations throughout this major reappraisal looks at a broad range of media and topics including poetry film philosophy and quantum physics in order to get beyond Dada's typecasting as avant garde anti hero Work by women writers and other marginalized figures combines with that of canonical Dadaists to present Dada in a radically new set of guises poetic and textually subtle intellectually and philosophically meaningful peaceable and quasi Buddhist and perhaps most uncomfortably of all conformist and reactionary

Cognitive principles, critical practice: Reading literature at university Susanne Reichl, 2009-09-16 This enquiry into the principles and practice of reading literature brings together insights from cognitive studies literary theory empirical literature studies learning and teaching research and higher education research Reading is conceptualised as an active process of meaning making that is determined by subjective as well as contextual factors and guided by a sense of purpose This sense of purpose part of a professional and conscious approach to reading is the central element in the model of reading that this study proposes As well as a conceptual aim this model also has pedagogical power and serves as the basis for a number of critical and creative exercises geared towards developing literary reading strategies and strategic reading competences in general These activities demonstrate how the main tenets of the study can be put into practice within the context of a particular institution of higher education

Analyzing Literature-to-Film Adaptations Mary H. Snyder, 2011-01-20 This is a wise and wonderful book which among other things provides a novelist's eloquent insider's perspective on the transformation of one of her books into a film Thirty years ago Stanley Cavell published The World Viewed Reflections on the Ontology of Film which opened up an intellectual highway between philosophy and cinema Now at long last Mary Snyder's book accomplishes a parallel clearing of the way between film making the art of the novel and literary and critical theory Every page is bubbling with creative theoretical and pedagogical insights Her intertextual readings of a score of literature to film adaptations are priceless in themselves I only wish that the title of the book had been taken from her chapter The

Fascination Never Ends Michael Payne Professor of English Emeritus Bucknell University Critical questions specific to film adaptations need to be not only developed but established These questions or approaches must be accessible to students including those students who are not yet educationally sophisticated enough to digest purely theoretical material Analyzing Literature to Film Adaptations A Novelist's Exploration and Guide demonstrates an exploration into film adaptation from a novelist's perspective comprising a study of literary creation as well as the process product of adaptation and moving into the author's collaboration with a screenwriter which ultimately becomes a journey to understand and identify the implications of literature to film adaptation and the complexities and problems it raises Drawing from both classic and contemporary film adaptations Frankenstein The Hours The Constant Gardener Children of Men The Lovely Bones Away from Her the book puts forth an understanding of film and film analysis as well as addresses literary analysis The crux of the book however lies in its introduction to an academic means for critical analysis of film adaptations Approaches to Teaching the Works of Charles W. Chesnutt Susanna Ashton, Bill Hardwig, 2017-12-01 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching the works of Charles W Chesnutt in college classrooms including considerations of architecture borders critical reception dialect disability economics eugenics folklore gothic fiction hauntings intertextuality and allusion literary theory passing plantation tradition publishing race sentimentalism and whiteness Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses David's Capacity for Compassion Barbara Green, 2017-04-20 In this book Barbara Green demonstrates how David is shown and can be read as emerging from a young naive whose early successes grow into a tendency for actions of contempt and arrogance of blindness and even cruelty particularly in matters of cult However Green also shows that over time David moves closer to the demeanor and actions of wise compassion more closely aligned with God Leaving aside questions of historicity as basically undecidable Green's focus in her approach to the material is on contemporary literature Green reads the David story in order applying seven specific tools which she names describes and exemplifies as she interprets the text She also uses relevant hermeneutical theory specifically a bridge between general hermeneutics and the specific challenges of the individual and socially located reader As a result Green argues that characters in the David narrative can proffer occasions for insight wisdom and compassion Acknowledging the unlikelihood that characters like David and his peers steeped in patriarchy and power can be shown to learn and extend wise compassion Green is careful to make explicit her reading strategies and offer space for dialogue and disagreement Marlowe: The Plays Stevie Simkin, 2017-03-14 Christopher Marlowe was the most successful dramatist of his time his untimely death cutting short a career that may well have rivalled Shakespeare's His four major works Doctor Faustus Edward II The Jew of Malta and Tamburlaine are remarkable pieces of theatre daring explorations of themes such as the nature of kingship salvation and damnation sexuality and ethnic prejudice This book looks in depth at extracts from each of the plays exploring them in parallel to uncover key concerns including heroes and anti heroes gender and power and politics As well as guiding readers in an understanding of the place of these issues in their

Elizabethan context and inviting them to consider their resonance today the book looks in depth at Marlowe's style his use of rhythm the complexities and richness of his poetry and his evolving development of character Particular attention is given throughout to the plays in performance

A Preface to Marlowe Stevie Simkin, 2014-07-22 This study provides an authoritative overview of all Marlowe's work It includes thorough investigations of his major plays Tamburlaine Edward II The Jew of Malta and Doctor Faustus as well as a full discussion of The Massacre at Paris Dido Queen of Carthage and all his extant poetry Analysis of Faustus takes full account of both A and B text versions Thoroughly researched and yet presented in an accessible engaging style A Preface to Marlowe reads Marlowe's life and times as well as his work in the light of current critical theory Consequently it is a vital guide for all students of early modern drama As well as providing sharp analysis of stage history Dr Simkin reflects on the wider significance of a stage oriented approach The result is a reading of Marlowe that re opens debates about his status as a radical figure and as a subversive playwright and invites the reader to experience the plays as immediate exciting live documents
