The Irish National Stud, 1900-2025 Declan Monaghan, 2025-06-25 This book examines the history of a pioneering Thoroughbred horse breeding operation the Irish National Stud By incorporating and integrating a diverse array of primary sources from various repositories and supplementing them with contemporary and secondary materials the main narrative reveals the intricate details of Ireland s complex relationship with Britain through sport and politics The publication adopts a chronological thematic approach beginning at the turn of the nineteenth century and tracing the development of the Stud through the twentieth century and into the twenty first century This book encompasses the political cultural and social dimensions of horse breeding racing and the role of what would become the Irish National Stud The first period of its history covers the establishment of Tully Stud in Kildare under Colonel William Hall Walker in 1900 The second period from 1916 to 1944 begins with Hall Walker gifting Tully Stud to the British government which then rebranded it as the National Stud This coincided with the Irish independence struggle and the formation of the new Irish Free State leading to over two decades of deadlock over which government Irish or British legally owned the Stud The third period saw the progression of the new Irish National Stud from its creation in 1944 to the present day offering a comparison with the British National Stud and providing a thorough analysis of the influence of elite Thoroughbred breeders on the Irish National Stud and the broader industry in both Ireland and Great Britain

The Yellow Earl Douglas Sutherland, 1965 Indianapolis Monthly , 2001-12 Indianapolis Monthly is the Circle City s essential chronicle and guide an indispensable authority on what s new and what s news Through coverage of politics crime dining style business sports and arts and entertainment each issue offers compelling narrative stories and lively urbane coverage of Indy s cultural landscape

The Yellow Earl Douglas Sutherland, 2015-09 The 5th Earl of Lonsdale Hugh Lowther was perhaps the most famous English Lord in the world by the 1880s His reckless spending of his vast fortune his womanising his love of gambling horses hunting and boxing rocked the aristocracy and has endeared him to risk takers and bon viveurs the world over ever since As a penniless wayward younger son who had not expected to inherit Hugh had joined a travelling circus for a year after leaving Eton then moved on to America spending months buffalo hunting He pawned his birthright to make his fortune from cattle ranching in Wyoming and was practically destitute when the scheme failed But then his older brother unexpectedly died Hugh took both the title and the vast fortune that went with it and the rest is history a close friend of Edward VII before and after his coronation a great public benefactor and an unforgettable showman in everything he did This biography is an elegant and fascinating tribute to one of aristocracy s greatest eccentrics
