Online Invisible Road Elizabeth Knox:

Wake Elizabeth Knox,2013-11-01 One sunny spring morning the Tasman Bay settlement of Kahukura is overwhelmed by a mysterious mass insanity A handful of survivors find themselves cut off from the world and surrounded by the dead As they try to take care of one another and survive in ever more difficult circumstances it becomes apparent that this isn't the first time that this has happened and that they aren't all survivors and victims two of them are something quite other And it seems they are trapped with something Something unseen is picking at the loose threads of their characters corrupting provoking and haunting them Wake is a novel about what it really means to try to do one's best about the choices and sacrifices people face in order to keep a promise like I will take care of you It is a novel that asks What are the last things left when the worst has happened and about extreme events ordinary people heroic compassion and invisible monsters An invisible monster is what one can't see coming with an invisible monster one never knows when they're in danger and when they're safe if they retreat to their fortress they can't be sure they haven't locked it in with them Landfall Charles Brasch,2006 Let Your Voice Be Heard Joan Hebert Reisinger,2012-10-08 People are moving to the margins of the Catholic Church As one dialogue partner states I left the Church to beat the rush Yet another remarks I just wonder I have to ask who's on the margins I'm not sure Let Your Voice Be Heard details original practical theology research that endeavors to understand the dynamics on the margins of the Roman Catholic Church in dialogue with fifty dialogue partners from across the United States Practical theology the theology of marginality of Jung Young Lee reciprocal ethnography and the communication theory of Mikhail Bakhtin join in a cross disciplinary dialogue In conversation with dialogue partners Joan Hebert Reisinger seeks the reasons why Catholics over the age of twenty one who were once active and involved in the Catholic Church find themselves on the margins of the Church and how they understand their own marginality The dialogue partners speak of new ways of being Church emerging on the margins This emerging Church is marked by inclusive relationships that include dialogue that does not seek agreement or consensus a critical and thoughtful recalling of memories and narratives of the Catholic faith tradition and appropriation of these in new and creative ways Growing Apart: Religious Reflection on the Rise of Economic Inequality Kate Ward,Kenneth Himes,2019-01-24 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Growing Apart Religious Reflection on the Rise of Economic Inequality that was published in Religions The Spectator ,1928 The Gathering, A Womanist Church Irie Lynne Session,Kamilah Hall Sharp,Jann Aldredge-Clanton,2020-08-21 A womanist church has great power to transform church and society primarily because womanist theology centers the experiences of Black women while working for the survival and wholeness of all people and all creation Experiences of the triple oppression of racism sexism and classism give Black women an epistemological insight into recognizing injustice and creating solutions that benefit all The Gathering is unique the only church founded and identified as womanist applying womanist theology to the full life and worship of a church The Gathering a womanist faith community in Dallas Texas welcomes all people to partner in pursuing racial equity LGBTQ equality and dismantling PMS patriarchy misogyny and sexism following Jesus in liberating the oppressed and lifting up the marginalized The Gathering A Womanist Church tells the story of the birth and ongoing development of a womanist faith community This book includes personal narratives of people transformed in this community womanist co pastors sermons informed by their experiences and those of other Black women and litanies for womanist worship

Objects and Materials Penny Harvey,Eleanor Casella,Gillian Evans,Hannah Knox,Christine McLean,Elizabeth B. Silva,Nicholas Thoburn,Kath Woodward,2014-07-16 There is broad acceptance across the Humanities and Social Sciences that our deliberations on the social need to take place through attention to practice to object mediated relations to non human agency and to the affective dimensions of human sociality This Companion focuses on the objects and materials found at centre stage and asks what matters about objects Objects and Materials explores the field providing succinct summary accounts of contemporary scholarship along with a wealth of new research investigating the capacity of objects to shape unsettle and exceed expectations Original chapters from over forty international interdisciplinary contributors address an array of objects and materials to ask what the terms of collaborations with objects and materials are and to consider how these collaborations become integral to our understandings of the complex relational dynamics that fashion social worlds Objects and Materials will be of interest to students and scholars across the social sciences and humanities including in sociology social theory science and technology studies history anthropology archaeology gender studies women s studies geography cultural studies politics and international relations and philosophy

Adventures in Spirituality Robert P. Vande Kappelle,2020-02-17 Contrary to popular culture the goal of life is not happiness but meaning Those who seek happiness by trying to avoid or finesse conflict suffering doubt and change will find life increasingly superficial Feeling good is a flawed measure of life but living meaningfully is transformative for then one is living a developmental rather than a regressive agenda The ego does whatever it can to make itself comfortable whereas spirituality is about wholeness Adventures in Spirituality represents the culmination of Dr Vande Kappelle s forty year teaching career incorporating in one volume his views on topics as varied as theology Christology biblical interpretation spirituality ethics world religions religion and science faith and reason and church history Reared in Costa Rica the son of missionary parents Dr Vande Kappelle describes his journey from belief to faith as a transition from precritical to postcritical understanding from evangelical Christianity to what he calls alternative orthodoxy Narrating the shift from first to second half of life experience he introduces readers to core principles that shaped his values thinking and way of life Useful for individual or group study Adventures in Spirituality encourages readers to take risks with their lives and faith affirming that this is how one grows spiritually

Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics Jens Andermann,Gabriel Giorgi,Victoria Saramago,2023-09-05 The Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics offers a comprehensive overview of Latin American aesthetic and conceptual production addressing the more than human environment at the intersection between art activism and critique Fields include literature performance film and other audiovisual media as well as their interactions with community activists Scholars who have helped establish environmental approaches in the field as well as emergent critical voices revisit key concepts such as ecocriticism post extractivism and multinaturalism while opening new avenues of dialogue with areas including critical race theory and ethnicity energy humanities queer trans studies and infrastructure studies among others This volume both traces these genealogies and maps out key positions in this increasingly central field of Latin Americanism at the same time as they relate it to the environmental humanities at large By showing how artistic and literary productions illuminate critical zones of environmental thought articulating urgent social and material issues with cultural archives historical approaches and conceptual interventions this volume offers cutting edge critical tools for approaching literature and the arts from new angles that call into question the nature culture boundary

Sense Knowledge and the Challenge of Italian Renaissance Art Giles Knox,2025-10-01 Giles Knox examines how El Greco Vela zquez and Rembrandt though a disparate group of artists were connected by a new self consciousness with respect to artistic tradition In particular Knox considers the relationship of these artists to the art of Renaissance Italy and sets aside nationalist art histories in order to see the period as one of fruitful exchange Across Europe during the seventeenth century artists read Italian inspired writings on art and these texts informed how they contemplated their practice Knox demonstrates how these three artists engaged dynamically with these writings incorporating or rejecting the theoretical premises to which they were exposed Additionally this study significantly expands our understanding of how paintings can activate the sense of touch Knox discusses how Vela zquez and Rembrandt though in quite different ways sought to conjure for viewers thoughts about touching that resonated directly with the subject matter they depicted

Humbling Faith Peter Admirand,2019-03-22 This is a book hoping to embolden doubt and sharpen unanswerable questions all in the context of loving the self and one another Ridiculously it believes the world can be healed through such a hope It is especially addressed to those allergic to the word faith and others who feel confident and proud in the faith they profess or system of thought they live by Humbling Faith helps us see how our beliefs or non beliefs our belongings and identities often remain flawed myopic self absorbed unredeemed The hope is that such awareness of our brokenness can fuel greater ethical partnerships and dialogue promoting peace from our recognized need for one another Humbling Faith is not only a resource towards humbling other faiths but most
