

The background of the cover is a photograph of a desolate, post-apocalyptic landscape. A lone figure, seen from behind, walks down a muddy, rutted path that leads towards a large, multi-story industrial building that appears to be in ruins. The sky is filled with heavy, dark, and stormy clouds, creating a somber and oppressive atmosphere. The overall color palette is muted, consisting of greys, browns, and dark blues.

America is on the verge of anarchy. Survival is all that matters now.

Online Safekeeping Karen Hesse:

Safekeeping Karen Hesse, 2025-09-23 Radley's parents had warned her that all hell would break loose if the American People's Party took power. And now with the president assassinated and the government cracking down on citizens, the news is filled with images of vigilante groups, frenzied looting, and police raids. It seems as if all hell has broken loose. Coming back from volunteering abroad, Radley just wants to get home to Vermont and the comfort and safety of her parents. Travel restrictions and delays are worse than ever, and by the time Radley's plane lands in New Hampshire, she's been traveling for over twenty-four hours. Exhausted, she heads outside to find her parents, who always come day or night, no matter when or where she lands aren't there. Her cell phone is dead, her credit cards are worthless, and she doesn't have the proper travel papers to cross state lines. Out of money and options, Radley starts walking. Illustrated with 50 of her own haunting and beautiful photographs, this is a vision of a future America that only Karen Hesse could write: real, gripping, and deeply personal.

Better with Books Melissa Hart, 2019-04-23 Featuring 500 diverse book recommendations covering a wide range of subjects, this preteen and teen reading guide is a go-to resource for parents, students of young adult literature, teachers, and librarians. School Library Journal Needed now more than ever, a guide that includes 500 reading recommendations for preteens and teens with the goal of inspiring greater empathy for themselves, their peers, and the world around them. As young people are diagnosed with anxiety and depression in increasing numbers or dealing with other issues that can isolate them from family and friends, such as bullying, learning disabilities, racism, or homophobia, characters in books can help them feel less alone. And just as important, reading books that feature a diverse range of real-life topics helps generate openness, empathy, and compassion in all kids. Reading lists are organized around topics including Adoption and foster care, Body image, Immigration, Learning challenges, LGBTQIA youth, Mental health, Nature and environmentalism, Physical disability, Poverty and homelessness, Race and ethnicity, Religion and spirituality. Each chapter explores a particular issue affecting preteens and teens today and includes a list of recommended related books, all published within the last decade. Recommendations are grouped by age, those appropriate for middle-grade readers and those for teens. Better with Books is a valuable resource for parents, teachers, librarians, therapists, and all caregivers who recognize the power of literature to improve young readers' lives.
