Becoming Michelle Obama, 2019-08-13 bersama di apartemen kami yang sesak Ayah dan Ibu mengajariku melihat nilai nilai dalam setiap kisah kehidupan kami bahkan saat kisah itu tidak indah atau sempurna Dunia Michelle kecil adalah sebuah apartemen sempit di South Side Chicago tempat dia dan saudaranya Craig dibesarkan dan dididik untuk menjadi pemberani dan tidak takut bicara Namun kemudian kehidupan membawanya jauh melangkah mulai dari Universitas Princeton tempat dia belajar merasakan menjadi satu satunya perempuan kulit hitam di sebuah ruangan hingga ke kantor pengacara tempat dia bekerja dan bertemu Barack Obama yang kemudian menjadi suaminya Pertemuan yang mengubah semua rencana hidupnya Dalam buku ini untuk pertama kalinya Michelle Obama menggambarkan tahun tahun pertama pernikahannya ketika dia berjuang menyeimbangkan pekerjaan dan keluarganya dengan karier politik suaminya yang bergerak cepat Dia juga mengungkapkan drama pencalonan suaminya sebagai presiden hingga perannya sebagai tokoh yang populer sekaligus sasaran kritik Dengan narasi yang anggun penuh humor dan keterusterangan Michelle menuturkan kisah di balik layar kehidupannya selama delapan tahun di Gedung Putih yang membuatnya tak hanya dikenal tetapi juga semakin mengenal negaranya Melalui Becoming sebuah memoar yang jujur dan berani Michelle Obama menggugah kita untuk bertanya Who are we and who do we want to become Mizan Noura Books Nourabooks Kisah Klasik Novel Memoar Biografi Terjemahan Indonesia

A History of African American Autobiography Joycelyn Moody, 2021-07-22 This History explores innovations in African American autobiography since its inception examining the literary and cultural history of Black self representation amid life writing studies By analyzing the different forms of autobiography including pictorial and personal essays editorials oral histories testimonials diaries personal and open letters and even poetry performance media of autobiographies this book extends the definition of African American autobiography revealing how people of African descent have created and defined the Black self in diverse print cultures and literary genres since their arrival in the Americas It illustrates ways African Americans use life writing and autobiography to address personal and collective Black experiences of identity family memory fulfillment racism and white supremacy Individual chapters examine scrapbooks as a source of self documentation African American autobiography for children readings of African American persona poems mixed race life writing after the Civil Rights Movement and autobiographies by African American LGBTQ writers

Speaking for the Enslaved Antoinette T Jackson, 2016-06-16 Focusing on the agency of enslaved Africans and their descendants in the South this work argues for the systematic unveiling and recovery of subjugated knowledge histories and cultural practices of those traditionally silenced and overlooked by national heritage projects and national public memories Jackson uses both ethnographic and ethnohistorical data to show the various ways African Americans actively created and maintained their own heritage and cultural formations Viewed through the lens of four distinctive plantation sites including the one on which that the ancestors of First Lady Michelle Obama lived everyday acts of living learning and surviving profoundly challenge the way American heritage has been constructed and represented A fascinating critical view of the ways culture history social policy and identity influence heritage sites and the business of heritage research management in public spaces

African American Women in the News Marian Meyers, 2013-07-24 African American Women in the News offers the first in depth examination of the varied representations of Black women in American journalism from analyses of coverage of domestic abuse and crack mothers to exploration of new media coverage of Michelle Obama on Youtube Marian Meyers interrogates the complex and often contradictory images of African American women in news media through detailed studies of national and local news the mainstream and Black press and traditional news outlets as well as newer digital platforms She argues that previous studies of African Americans and the news have largely ignored the representations of women as distinct from men and the ways in which socioeconomic class can be a determining factor in how Black women are portrayed in the news Meyers also proposes that a pattern of paternalistic racism as distinct from the modern racism found in previous studies of news coverage of African Americans is more likely to characterize the media's treatment of African American women Drawing on critical cultural studies and black feminist theory concerning representation and the intersectionality of gender race and class Meyers goes beyond the cultural myths and stereotypes of African American women to provide an updated portrayal of Black women today African American Women in the News is ideal for courses on African American studies American studies journalism studies media studies sociology studies women's studies and for professional journalists and students of journalism who seek to improve the diversity and sensitivity of their journalistic practice

of disciplinary backgrounds each consider the same question why is gender so important for understanding the world in which we live Leadership and Legacy Tom Lansford, Douglas M. Brattebo, Robert P. Watson, Casey Maugh Funderburk, 2021-02-01 Historic intriguing and important in so many ways the Obama presidency will be studied by scholars and students for years to come With the rise in hyperpartisanship legislative gridlock political dysfunction fake news and other negative trends it is imperative that academicians weigh in with a rigorous assessment of Obama's presidency This volume applies a variety of scholarly approaches to analyze the impact of Obama as a leader and policymaker Scholars from disciplines such as political science history environmental science economics and communication come together to provide an interdisciplinary and wide ranging appraisal of the president Across the varied chapters Obama's leadership is central to understanding the success or failure of his policies and initiatives The president's decisions and actions are also assessed against the constraints and possibilities created by the modern US political system rapid changes in technology and society and shifting patterns in international relations The result is a book that covers executive leadership administration domestic issues foreign and national security policy and more to present a comprehensive review of the Obama legacy

Landscapes of Hope Brian McCammack, 2017-10-16 In the first interdisciplinary history to frame the African American Great Migration as an environmental experience Brian McCammack travels to Chicago's parks and beaches as well as farms and forests of the rural Midwest where African Americans retreated to relax and reconnect with southern identities and lifestyles they had left behind Emancipation's Daughters Riché Richardson, 2020-11-23 Rich Richardson examines how five iconic black women Mary McLeod Bethune Rosa Parks Condoleezza Rice Michelle Obama and Beyoncé defy racial stereotypes and construct new national narratives of black womanhood in the United States An Autoethnography of African American Motherhood Renata Harden Ferdinand, 2021-11-29 This is the first full length explicitly identified autoethnographic text on African American motherhood It shows the lived experiences of Black motherhood when mothering is shaped by race gender and class and mothers must navigate not only their own but also their children's positions in society Ferdinand takes an intimate look at her mothering strategies spanning ten years from 2007 to 2017 preparing her daughter to traverse a racist and sexist society It is a multi generational text that blends the author's experience with that of her own mother grandmother and her daughter to engage in a larger discussion of African American Black mother womanhood It is grounded within Black Feminist Theory which centers the experiences of Black women within the domains of intersecting oppressions It is from a very personal position that Ferdinand provides a glimpse into the minutiae of mothering that reveal the everyday intricacies of Black women as mothers It highlights specific strategies Black mothers use to combat discrimination and oppression from teaching their children about the n word to choosing positive representations of Black identity in movies books dolls daycares elementary schools and even extra curricular activities It shows the impact that stereotypical manifestations of Black femininity have on Black women's experience of motherhood and how this affects Black
