American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Philosophical and Political Consequences of the Critique of Political Economy Patrick Murray,Jeanne Schuler,2023-08-29 This book extends the approach that Murray and Schuler develop in their companion volume False Moves in Philosophy and Social Theory Losing Public Purpose The chapters form a connected inquiry into consequences of capital a far reaching social form through a critique of political economy and the mindset it shares with much modern philosophy and social theory The authors call this bifurcating mentality factoring philosophy Factoring philosophy mistakes the distinguishable for the separable It splits the subjective and objective form and content and it takes the object of social theory to be an impossible economy in general stripped of constitutive social forms The critique of factoring philosophy structures the collection which makes a wide ranging contribution to the research field of the critique of political economy as critical social theory Ultimately this book solidifies Murray and Schuler s impact on the study of political economy political philosophy modern philosophy Hegel Marx and critical theory

Capitalism vs. Freedom

Rob Larson,2018-06-29 For years we ve been taught that capitalism is good for freedom Dominant right wing talk radio hosts to this day recommend libertarian classics like Hayek s Road to Serfdom and Friedman s Capitalism and Freedom that claim markets free us and this picture still dominates the schools and the political spectrum Well get bent one percent because Rob Larson s Capitalism vs Freedom The Toll Road to Serfdom puts big business under a microscope This book debunks the conservative classics while demonstrating that the marketplace has its own great centers of power which the libertarian tradition itself claims is a limit to freedom In fact Larson illustrates how capitalism fails both this and other concepts of human liberty not just failing to establish a right to a share of society s production but also leaving us subject to the great power plays of the one percent s corporate property

Regulating Big Tech David R. Gilchrist, PhD, LLM, SJD,2024-12-20

Dear We the People Daily global news supports the relevant importance of well considered solutions to regulating Big Tech in response to the clash of constitutional restraint agency regulation and corporate actions Technology s innovative networks have invaded business and economic structures The simple has morphed into the complex while no effective method of meaningful enforcement is found within current law Legal immunity grants expansive freedom from accountability and corporate responsibility the ramifications are far reaching and widespread indeed worldwide Cultural norms of national regimes shape their approach to violations of anticompetitive activity The United States solely has criminal restraining regulatory enforcement Why is that How effective is the civil restraining enforcement The media publicizes financial fines intended to restrain and yet are corporately considered merely the cost of doing business The public s accommodation becomes inevitable as the legal system loopholes surpass any legal restraint while hoodwinking deception slow walks the penalizing remedy The objective herein is to effectively distill humanity s psyche through the lens of history sociology law and economics giving the reader a rich and comprehensive understanding of foundational status quo and a context for implementing retaliatory strategy At stake is the consequential welfare of consumers who find themselves in uncharted territory without effective advocacy The resultant challenging competition marketplace is a difficult environment for consumers and competitors alike My singular goal is to provide perspective of how things should function do function and can function for the betterment of the citizens of this interconnected world We are not just residents indeed citizenry is a participatory designation Accountability safeguards against destruction and it is inclusive We the People are the government not the governed therefore we are accountable to one another It is my great pleasure to share this dialogue with you as we enjoy this reading journey together May my inspiration become your aspiration to enjoin your friends in citizenry participation David R Gilchrist PhD LLM SJD
