A-Z of Spirituality Steve Nolan,Margaret Holloway,2013-11-28 Spirituality is a multifaceted speciality anyone who wants to understand it must look across a range of disciplines which can often make it seem overwhelming and incomplete This book will act as a reference resource for readers looking to develop their study of spirituality and its relevance to health and social care Chaplaincy and the Soul of Health and Social Care Ewan Kelly,John Swinton,2019-12-19 Gathering together thoughts and visions of experienced practitioners academics educators and strategic leaders from around the world this edited volume sheds light on the nature of chaplaincy and its role and significance within ever changing contemporary healthcare systems A wide range of issues central to spiritual care delivery are covered including reflections on what it feels like to be cared for by a chaplain through illness the nature of chaplaincy as a profession and how chaplains can engage with healthcare institutions in ways that have integrity yet are also deeply spiritual The focus throughout is that chaplaincy should not only be guidance for people in distress as a form of crisis intervention but is rather about helping to promote wellbeing and enhance people s quality of life Where specialisms tend to fragment systems and individuals this book seeks to show that true health and wellbeing can only be found through a holistic approach and shows how chaplaincy can bring this to the table This book is for anyone who recognises the centrality of spirituality for wellbeing and wishes to see what that might look like in practice Spirituality, Religiousness and Health Giancarlo Lucchetti,Mario Fernando Prieto Peres,Rodolfo Furlan Damiano,2019-09-03 This book provides an overview of the research on spirituality religiousness and health including the most important studies conceptualization instruments for measurement types of studies challenges and criticisms It covers essential information on the influence of spirituality and religiousness S R in mental and physical health and provides guidance for its use in clinical practice The book discusses the clinical implications of the research findings including ethical issues medical health education how to take a spiritual history and challenges in addressing these issues all based on studies showing the results of incorporating S R in clinical practice It contains case reports to facilitate learning and suggests educational strategies to facilitate teaching S R to health professionals and students Spiritual Dimensions of Advanced Practice Nursing Melanie Rogers,2021-10-15 This book recognises the challenges associated with the concept of spirituality An awareness of this concept is integral to the provision of person centred holistic care However APNs ability to provide spiritual care is often impeded by time pressures and the prioritisation of clinical tasks Confusion about the meaning of spirituality and its relationship to religion compound the challenges involved in providing spiritual care leaving APNs feeling ill equipped to address this area of care Indeed many APNs view spirituality as synonymous with religion This book provides clarity with the assumption that spirituality is innate to all of our patients and is related to what gives them hope meaning and purpose Fundamentally it is about being human APNs ability to practice with kindness compassion and empathy will naturally resonate with spiritually competent practice It begins with an outline of the definitions of spirituality in addition to the concept of spiritually competent practice An emphasis on the importance of personal development follows Case studies from countries across the globe illustrate the benefit of integrating spirituality and provide evidence of the importance and relevance of integrating spirituality into practice These include discussion and presentations of the related concepts of availability and vulnerability which will give APNs more confidence and competence to integrate spirituality into practice This book is relevant for APNs students educators and researchers Learning from Case Studies in Chaplaincy Martijn

Stoutjesdijk,2020-12-01 The recent production of case studies in chaplaincy care combines the narrative nature of chaplaincy with the rigors of research demanded in contemporary care settings The contributions in this volume from both practitioners and academic researchers join reflections on the challenges and promises of case study research in chaplaincy care with the results of specific case studies Based on reflections on methodology and professionalization in chaplaincy the volume hopes to contribute to answering the question of how and why chaplaincy works As such the book aims for a wide readership of scholars chaplains and policy makers Learning from Case Studies originated from the first international conference on case study research in chaplaincy care that was held in Amsterdam in 2019 This book is a valuable Western European contribution to the international emerging field of chaplaincy research Prof dr Anne Vandenhoeck Director of the European Research Institute for Chaplains in Health Care KU Leuven Belgium This significant book represents a step change in research into effective chaplaincy practice Building on previous work led by Fitchett and Nolan chaplains and academics offer new case studies but also develop this critically reflective approach together Chapters on methodology show how case studies especially when analysed comparatively provide important evidence for how and why chaplaincy works Rev Dr Andrew Todd Director of the Professional Doctorate in Practical Theology Anglia Ruskin University England At the heart of chaplaincy are stories and this collection combines reverence for the stories themselves alongside a critical exploration of how these cases engage with the important issues of our times what it means to be a profession and to have a professional identity and the need for research that recognises the integral relationship between practice and evidence This book provides a significant contribution to the current conversations in the spiritual care field Cheryl Holmes OAM CEO Spiritual Health Association Australia

The Practitioner's Path in Speech-Language Pathology Wendy Paper-Bernstein, 2017-11-01 The Practitioner's Path in Speech Language Pathology The Art of School Based Practice bridges the gap between theory and practice evidence based practice and practice based evidence and the science and artistry of speech language pathology This book takes a critical look at areas related to wellness professional development and growth that can impact the personal self along with the professional self It examines each area through an overview of inter disciplinary research in addition to personal narratives illustrating key principles and strategies and offers the reader a professionally balanced perspective The first section of the book helps us understand the importance of building a foundation for our clinical path through a discussion about scientific and evidence based principles different types of knowledge systems and development of wisdom The second section of the book helps us understand the importance of supporting our foundation through an introduction to reflection counsel and care balance and harmony growth and detachment The third section of the book includes chapters that serve as pillars of practice organizational frameworks materials and activities measuring progress best practices and the importance of community The fourth and final section of the book highlights shared vision clinical expertise emotional intelligence leadership trends the scholarship of teaching and learning and research dissemination This book challenges us to consider our own perceptions about the explicit nature of professional practice and facilitates the development of four attitudes that can have a profound impact on both clinical success and professional satisfaction a scientific attitude a therapeutic attitude a professional attitude and a leadership attitude It contains a blend of clinical evidence and research practitioner views common sense philosophical stances and historical overviews The Practitioner's Path in Speech Language Pathology is designed for students and practitioners who are actively involved with the process of knowledge acquisition and targets issues we encounter along our path to becoming reflective practitioners as they relate to the excellence behind and scholarship within teaching and learning

Spiritual Ends Timothy O. Benedict, 2022-12-20 What role does religion play at the end of life in Japan Spiritual Ends draws on ethnographic fieldwork and interviews to provide an intimate portrayal of how spiritual care is provided to the dying in Japan Timothy O Benedict shows how hospice caregivers in Japan are appropriating and reinterpreting global ideas about spirituality and the practice of spiritual care Benedict relates these findings to a longer story of how Japanese religious groups have pursued vocational roles in medical institutions as a means to demonstrate a so called healthy role in society Focusing on how care for the kokoro heart or mind is key to the practice of spiritual care this book enriches conventional understandings of religious identity in Japan while offering a valuable East Asian perspective to global conversations on the ways religion spirituality and medicine intersect at death Timothy Benedict has produced a work brimming with wisdom drawn from his work as a chaplain as well as a broad understanding of the place of religion in the lives of contemporary Japanese people HELEN HARDACRE Reischauer Institute Professor of Japanese Religions and Society Harvard University Benedict offers a highly original perspective and new insightful material providing a critical approach to the debate about spiritual care and spirituality ERICA BAFFELLI Professor of Japanese Studies University of Manchester Spiritual Ends reveals an unassuming approach to spiritual care that privileges human connections at life's end JACQUELINE STONE author of Right Thoughts at the Last Moment Buddhism and Deathbed Practices in Early Medieval Japan A discerning study of pain and comfort at the end of life and a story of the invention of spirituality in Japan which traffics between medical psychological and religious thought AMY B BOROVVOY Professor of East Asian Studies Princeton University

Asian Spiritualities and Social Transformation Simon Shui-Man KWAN, Wai-Yin CHOW, 2023-10-17 This book offers a cross cultural and inter religious understanding of the ways social transformation in Asia is related to Asian spiritualities Bringing together scholars and practitioners from different cultures and fields of study it collates cutting edge research and applies it to the role of Asian spiritualities in social transformation Spirituality has garnered increasing attention in recent years across diverse fields of research and practice from psychology and healthcare to anthropology education sociology political sciences social work feminist studies cultural studies religious studies theology philosophy and so on However the term means different things within these different disciplines Spirituality can be understood to be private and personal but also public and societal not only as a force that brings about change but also one that helps maintain the status quo not only as a core element in religion but also as something disconnected from it This book poses that to gain a firm grasp of spirituality one needs to traverse these different terrains Disbarring the orientalist understanding of spirituality that is often found embedded in stereotypes of the East as mystical esoteric and spiritual in contrast to the West as scientific and rational this book deconstructs this binarism to enable a sophisticated understanding of the diversity within Eastern and Western spiritualities It presents Asian spirituality as a misnomer focusing on the plurality of spiritualities and the region's multifaceted religiosity and it also excavates interfaith terrains It is of interest to social scientists theologians and religious scholars and students and researchers interested in Asian spiritualities and social movements Care, Healing, and, Human Well-Being within Interreligious Discourses Helmut Weiss, Karl H. Federschmidt, Daniël Louw, Linda Sauer Bredvik, 2021-12-08 Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an edited peer reviewed volume of global perspectives on interreligious approaches to healing and well being by 23 academics and practitioners from five different faith practices and 13 different cultures With chapters by counsellors chaplains religious thinkers and linguists the multifaceted nature of the volume provides an expansive approach to spiritual care and counselling In order to understand the ways in which interreligious encounters can have an enriching effect on our humanity the volume is divided into four sections that address methodological questions surrounding spiritual caregiving perspectives of different faith traditions on care and healing the challenges to the praxis of care in diverse cultural and political settings and finally how spiritual care and healing can be carried out in public places such as the police the military and hospitals The book is an outgrowth of 25 years of experience within the Society for Interreligious Care and Counselling SIPCC to promote better understanding and practices of intercultural and interreligious spiritual caregiving Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an extraordinary assemblage of writings from diverse cultural religious and geopolitical contexts By addressing methodological questions challenges faced in the care of individuals and care in public settings from Islamic Jewish Christian Buddhist and Hindu perspectives this anthology moves the discourse on care and healing into a more adequate theological anthropology than has often undergirded pastoral care and counselling in most Western texts This much needed work will doubtless be crucial for chaplains and other spiritual care providers seeking to offer genuinely interreligious and intercultural care in today s globalized world Emmanuel Y Lartey PhD Charles Howard Candler Professor of Pastoral Theology Spiritual Care Candler School of Theology Emory University GA USA Given the variety of religious expressions in the contemporary world providing interreligious care is a great challenge for caregivers This book contributes to reflection on care and healing from an interreligious perspective by helping us to think about the theme not only from a theoretical approach but also from methodological practical and culturally contextualized points of view that overflow with compassion It is not to be simply read but studied and used as a bedside book by those engaged in the practice of human care Dr Mary Rute Gomes Esperandio Professor and researcher on Spirituality Health in the Post Graduate Program in Bioethics and Post Graduate Program in Theology at the Pontif cia Universidade Cat lica do Paran Brazil
