The UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Ilias Bantekas, Michael Ashley Stein, Dimitris Anastasiou, 2018-10-25 This treatise is a detailed article by article examination of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD Each article of the CRPD contains a methodical analysis of the preparatory works followed by an exhaustive examination of the contents of each article based on case law and concluding observations from the CRPD Committee judgments from national and international courts and tribunals pertinent UN and other reports the key literature on the article under review The volume features commentary from a broad range of scholars across a variety of disciplines in order to provide a comprehensive study of the legal psychological education sociological and other aspects of the CPRD This encyclopaedic commentary on the CRPD effectively covers all the issues arising from international disability law and practice and will be an ideal resource for all working in the field Mechanisms to Enable Follow-On Innovation Alina Wernick, 2021-05-13 The patent system is based on one patent per product presumption and therefore fails to sustain complex follow on innovations that contain a number of patents The book explains that follow on innovations may be subject to market failures such as hold ups and excessive royalties For decades scholars have debated whether the market problems can be solved with voluntary licensing i e open innovation or with compulsory liability rules The book concludes that neither approach is sufficient On the one hand incentives to engage in open innovation practices involving patents are insufficient On the other hand the existing compulsory liability rules in patent and competition law are not tailored to address follow on innovator s interests To transcend this problem the author proposes a compulsory liability rule against the suppression of follow on innovation that paradoxically fosters early on voluntary licensing between patent holders and follow on innovators The book is aimed at patent and competition law scholars and practitioners patent attorneys managers engineers and economists who either engage in open innovation involving patents or conduct research on the topic It also offers insights to policy and law makers reviewing the possibilities to foster open innovation initiatives or adapt the scope of patent remedies or employ compulsory licenses for patents Maritime Cabotage Law Aniekan Akpan, 2018-12-17 This is the most comprehensive review of maritime cabotage law. It introduces the new theory of Developmental Sovereignty to jurisprudence. The maritime cabotage law provisions and approaches as adopted in many states and jurisdictions have been extensively scrutinised. This book challenges the established and accepted wisdom surrounding maritime cabotage by presenting new reasoning on the underpinning principles of the concept of maritime cabotage law. The book offers a vibrant discussion on the adjustment in the regulatory approaches of maritime cabotage from one that was intrinsically premised on the idea of national sovereignty to one that now embraces the broader ideology of development. It investigates what the common understanding of the law of maritime cabotage should be and on what intellectual basis it can be justified. It reduces the inconsistencies and confusion that surround the concept and application of maritime cabotage law to provide a more certain and more robust concept of maritime cabotage.
