Paideuma Paideuma 2015 Mitteilungen Kulturkunde:

In Search of an Independent Ambazonian Nation: Dimensions of Identity and Freedom Harry A. Akoh, 2024-02-21 This book documents the unusual courage by different generations of Ambazonians fighting to build a modern postcolonial nation state in Africa. Written by experts in the field, the chapters analyze the Ambazonia liberation struggle from different perspectives. Examining the tangled origins of the Ambazonian war as well as documenting the region's extensive history of foreign occupation up until recent uprisings erupting in 2016, the contributors expose the unwillingness of the international systems to stand up to mandates and call for complete decolonization of the territory from French Cameroun. This book forces a re-examination of colonialism, neo-colonialism and post-colonialism in West Africa, especially in the relatively obscure area of black on black colonization and the inadequacy of international instruments in enforcing the universally accepted ideas from the previous century. Histories of Anthropology Gabriella D'Agostino, Vincenzo Matera, 2023-03-22 This edited volume presents for the first time a history of anthropology regarding not only the well-known European and American traditions but also lesser-known traditions extending its scope beyond the Western world. It focuses on the results of these traditions in the present. Taking into account the distinction between empire building and nation building, anthropology introduced by G. Stocking and taken up by U. Hannerz, the book investigates different histories of anthropology, especially in ex-colonial and marginal contexts. It highlights how the hegemonic anthropologies have been accepted and assimilated in local contexts, which approaches have been privileged by institutions and academies in different locations, how the anthropological approach has been modelled and adapted according to specific knowledge requirements related to the cultural features of different areas and which schools emerge as the most consolidated today. Each chapter presents a cultural history of one of the historical cultural and geo-political contexts that influenced and produced the specific disciplinary traditions. The chapters highlight the local contributions to the discipline, the influences that the world centres have on the peripheries but also the ways in which the peripheries have learned from the centres in order to re-elaborate meaningful or otherwise recognisable disciplinary lines. Globalization and Papua New Guinea: Ancient Wilderness, Paradise, Introduced Terror and Hell Falk Huettmann, 2023-04-26 This book aims to present a reality view for Papua New Guinea based on many years of first-hand field work and research accounts. It further assesses sustainability in the light of 47,000 years of a self-sustained type of civilization without bad global impacts. This book contrasts the modern sustainable development failures from the colonial times onwards as promoted by the western world, namely Australia, the UK, EU and the US as well as Japan and now China in times of globalization. Trumpism and royal governance in Papua New Guinea is still part of the British Dominion and of the Antarctic Treaty etc. This assessment and book is the first of its kind, also employing modern data analysis, Landscape Ecology principles, patterns and processes, telecoupling and Geographic Information Systems (GIS) with Open Access data, focusing on ecological economics, marxism, socialism and contrasting it with current capitalism and neoliberalism that Papua New Guinea is fully exposed to Throughout the 31 book chapters various aspects are covered how a further insistence on the new Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and so called Development Aid will result in unwanted side effects and perverse outcomes for Papua New Guinea and for the world in times of wider global change and unprecedented man made crisis Rhetoric and Social Relations Jon Abbink,Shauna LaTosky,2021-02-02 This volume explores the constitutive role of rhetoric in socio cultural relations where discursive persuasion is so important and contains both theoretical chapters as well as fascinating examples of the ambiguities and effects of rhetoric used unconsciously in social praxis The elements of power competition and political persuasion figure prominently It is an accessible collection of studies speaking to common issues and problems in social life and shows the heuristic and often explanatory value of the rhetorical perspective The Correspondence of Ezra Pound and the Frobenius Institute, 1930-1959 Ezra Pound,2024-02-22 Collecting in full for the first time the correspondence between Ezra Pound and members of Leo Frobenius Forschungsinstitut für Kulturmorphologie in Frankfurt across a 30 year period this book sheds new light on an important but previously unexplored influence on Pound's controversial intellectual development in the Fascist era Ezra Pound's long term interest in anthropology and ethnography exerted a profound influence on early 20th century literary Modernism These letters reveal the extent of the influence of Frobenius concept of Paideuma on Pound's poetic and political writings during this period and his growing engagement with the culture of Nazi Germany Annotated throughout the letters are supported by contextualising essays by leading Modernist scholars as well as relevant contemporary published articles by Pound himself and his leading correspondent at the Institute the American Douglas C Fox The Zimdancehall Revolution Tanaka Chidora,Doreen Rumbidzai Tivenga,Ezra Chitando,2023-11-07 Zimdancehall is a musical movement in Zimbabwe that has grown significantly since 2010 The Zimdancehall Revolution brings together critical essays on various aspects of Zimdancehall culture by scholars from diverse disciplines Traditionally music critics and senior academics have not taken Zimdancehall seriously regarding it as vulgar transient bubble gum lacking depth and in short a fad There were also allegations that the lyrics influenced factionalism incited violence and glorified drug use and unbridled promiscuity among the youth This book affords this movement the protracted intellectual engagement that it deserves and argues that Zimdancehall is more than just a musical genre but an everyday culture a way of life The genre's close association with the ghetto is telling and enables critics to look at it as a social movement a revolution or a raw petulant and raging disturbance of peace by those who live their lives on the margins It is thus a violent irruption onto the public space by marginalised young people whose presence as artistes creating art from the margins simultaneously as victims and agents circulating in a geography that escapes the limits of nationalist ideological and physical territory in a way subverts communitarian prescriptions and allows young people entry into the world albeit in a painful tumultuous and violent way The essays range from the mapping of the genre's historical development to theoretical interventions in understanding the genre and its relationship with various aspects of the Zimbabwean society like politics gender religion language dance cultural values and other genres Legal Pluralism in Ethiopia Susanne Epple,Getachew Assefa,2020-07-30 Being a home to more than 80 ethnic groups Ethiopia has to balance normative diversity with efforts to implement state law across its territory This volume explores the co existence of state customary and religious legal forums from the perspective of legal practitioners and local justice seekers It shows how the various stakeholders use of negotiation and their strategic application of law can lead to unwanted confusion but also to sustainable conflict resolution innovative new procedures and hybrid norms The book thus generates important knowledge on the conditions necessary for stimulating a cooperative co existence of different legal systems Studies in the Atharvaveda Robert Leach,Oliver Hellwig,Thomas Zehnder,2024-12-30 This volume the first of its kind in nearly two decades comprises 16 articles on the Atharvaveda India s second oldest text by the world s leading scholars in the field from India Japan Europe and North America Linguistic ritual mythological historical and hermeneutical aspects of the Atharvaveda are studied alongside its transmission influence and reception from a broad variety of theoretical and disciplinary perspectives Routledge Handbook of Minorities in the Middle East Paul S Rowe,2018-09-20 The Routledge Handbook of Minorities in the Middle East gathers a diverse team of international scholars each of whom provides unique expertise into the status and prospects of minority populations in the region The dramatic events of the past decade from the Arab Spring protests to the rise of the Islamic state have brought the status of these populations onto centre stage The overturn of various long term autocratic governments in states such as Tunisia Egypt Libya and Yemen and the ongoing threat to government stability in Syria Iraq and Lebanon have all contributed to a new assertion of majoritarian politics amid demands for democratization and regime change In the midst of the dramatic changes and latent armed conflict minority populations have been targeted marginalized and victimized Calls for social and political change have led many to contemplate the ways in which citizenship and governance may be changed to accommodate minorities or indeed if such change is possible At a time when the survival of minority populations and the utility of the label minority has been challenged this handbook answers the following set of research questions What are the unique challenges of minority populations in the Middle East How do minority populations integrate into their host societies both as a function of their own internal choices and as a response to majoritarian consensus on their status Finally given their inherent challenges and the vast sweeping changes that have taken place in the region over the past decade what is the future of these minority populations What impact have minority populations had on their societies and to what extent will they remain prominent actors in their respective settings This handbook presents leading edge research on a wide variety of religious ethnic and other minority populations By reclaiming the notion of minorities in Middle Eastern settings we seek to highlight the agency of minority communities in defining their past present and future The Ndebele, Frank Oates, and Knowledge Production in the 1870s Christopher Prior,Joseph Higgins,2024-12-27 This open access book addresses a question fundamental to the histories of empire and Africa at the point of the colonial encounter how was knowledge made How did different communities with little or no prior contact construct meaning about one another Amidst huge changes in the politics and economics of a continent on the cusp of almost complete colonization at the hands of European powers at the end of the nineteenth century how do the specifics of personality and contingency affect knowledge production An obvious challenge in addressing this sort of question is the frequent lack of African produced source material here we must work within the archives of oppression and read both along and against the colonial grain in an attempt to restore African agency to this process of knowledge production Drawing on the previously never used diaries of explorer Frank Oates who travelled throughout Matabeleland in the 1870s the use of a single traveller s experiences in detail affords us the means to consider the fine details of the interactions between Europeans and Africans Therefore this study seeks to enhance existing work on race and empire of the nineteenth century by asking what place do the fragilities uncertainties and contingencies of encounters between individuals have in our understanding of how knowledge is made

Acculturative Stress and Change in Nigerian Society argues that in the aftermath of European domination and colonial rule African struggle and the relationships between social groups in Africa can be traced to the legacy of colonialism as well as events in the post colonial struggle of domination by the elites This book locates ethnic conflict in Nigeria not only in the colonial history but in the attitude and practices of the political elites Using the Annang of Nigeria as a case study the book traces their history and struggle for ethnic identity and recognition from pre colonial times to the post civil war period It further argues that colonialism destroyed the Annang identity but the struggle for power following colonialism has also raised other problems What happened to the Annang represents an example that was repeated all over Africa The author maintains that what is happening among the Annang is symptomatic of the African struggle This book moves beyond the usual discussion of the effects of colonialism in the continent which views the modern state as a monolithic whole It presents as a real life example of the effects of colonialism and power relationships in the post independent continent and therefore a window through which to see the African problems in modern times The African elites who took power from the colonialists simply continued policies that did not promote growth and development It further argues that specific actions and policies in the pre and post colonial period contributed to where the continent is today Warfare in the Global Middle Ages David
