Social Studies Education in South and South East Asian Contexts Kerry J Kennedy,2021-07-22 The education of young people is context bound This edited volume explores the contexts that characterise South and South East Asia and their influence on social studies education There is not a single context across this broad geographical expanse rather different religions different political systems and different values exert influences that create distinctive programmes that characterise different countries Yet there are also commonalities such as the post colonial nature of most of the countries portrayed in this book determined efforts at establishing new national communities and multiple value systems that lead to distinctive local priorities There are also voices of resistance in these chapters recognising the realities of local contexts but also recognising the need for change Social studies education in these contexts may well be descended from its origins in North America but in South and South Asian contexts it has taken on new purposes new forms and new values Education researchers policymakers and postgraduate students in comparative education will find the volume useful in its exploration and comparison of the social studies curricular and reforms that shaped them

Elementary Social Studies S.G. Grant, Bruce A. VanSledright, 2014-03-14 Organized around four commonplaces of education learners and learning subject matter teachers and teaching and classroom environment Elementary Social Studies provides a rich and ambitious framework to help social studies teachers achieve powerful teaching and learning results By blending the theoretical and the practical the authors deeply probe the basic elements of quality instruction planning implementation and assessment always with the goal of creating and supporting students who are motivated engaged and thoughtful Book features and updates to the third edition include New chapter on classroom assessment that outlines and compares existing assessment strategies contextualizes them within the framework of state standards and articulates a constructivist approach that moves away from traditional high stakes testing towards more meaningful ways of evaluating student learning New chapter that highlights and explains key elements of the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and shows how the incorporation of critical ELA instruction into the social studies curriculum can foster more ambitious teaching and learning Real classroom narratives that introduce each chapter and provide in depth access to teaching and learning contexts Practical curriculum and resource suggestions for the social studies classroom End of chapter summaries and annotated teaching resources

Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer, 2014-10-08 Now in its 4th edition this popular text for secondary social studies methods courses integrates discussions of educational goals and the nature of history and social studies with ideas for organizing social studies curricula units lessons projects and activities A major theme throughout is that what teachers choose to teach and the way they teach reflect their broader understanding of society history and the purpose of social studies education Advocating an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers and based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers Each chapter addresses a broad question about social studies education sub chapters begin with narrower questions that direct attention to specific educational issues Lesson ideas and materials in the book and online are especially designed to help new teachers to address common core learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms Chapters include highlighted Learning Activities Teaching Activities and Classroom Activities designed to provoke discussion and illustrate different approaches to teaching social studies and conclude with recommendations for further reading and links to on line essays about related social studies topics Activities are followed by four categories Think it over Add your voice to the discussion Try it yourself and It s your classroom

All of these are supported with online teaching material Designed for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice New in the Fourth Edition Provides a number of new lesson ideas paired with online lesson plans and activity sheets in every chapter Takes a new focus on data driven standards based instruction especially in relation to the common core curriculum Addresses the interactive nature of learning in updated technology sections Reflects current trends in history education Includes more of what the author has learned from working teachers Offers a wealth of additional on line material linked to the text

Effective Schools in Developing Countries (RLE Edu A) Henry Levin,Marlaine Lockheed,2012-05-31 This volume brings together eight case studies which describe a variety of initiatives to create more effective schools for children of poverty especially in the Third World The initiatives reviewed published and unpublished documents and both qualitative and statistical studies were examined Countries include Brazil Burundi Colombia Ghana Nepal Sri Lanka Thailand and the United States Each initiative was developed independently to address unique challenges and situations but taken as a group the features of the approaches described in this volume can be viewed as a basis for considering the development of effective schools strategies in other contexts

Constructivism and the New Social Studies Geoffrey Scheurman,Ronald W. Evans,2018-07-01 The New Social Studies refers to a flurry of academic and commercial activity during the 1960s and 1970s that resulted in the mass development and dissemination of revolutionary classroom materials and teacher resources In science as well as social studies a spirit of inquiry based teaching filled the air during this time resulting in the development of curricula that were both pedagogically innovative and intellectually rigorous Constructivism and the New Social Studies contains a collection of classic lessons from some of the most successful projects of the era providing a resource of exceptional ideas and materials that have stood the test of time These revealing artifacts are presented with commentaries from some of the original directors of major projects including Edwin Fenton Barry Beyer and Suzanne Helburn In addition to American and World History groundbreaking lessons are represented in Economics Government Sociology and Geography including the Public Issues Series Fred Newann The Amherst History Project Richard Brown and Geoffrey Scheurman and Teaching American History The Quest for Relevancy Allan Kownslar Gerald Ponder and Geneva Gay and Man A Course of Study Peter Dow With a Foreword by Jerome Bruner the volume not only provides a resource of exceptional curriculum ideas and actual materials it also builds a lucid bridge between the theoretical ideas of constructivism and the pedagogical principles of inquiry learning With over 50 years of expertise from curriculum history and social studies pedagogy the editors make the case that guided inquiry as presented in these projects was constructivist by design offering a range of instructional methods that begin with questions rather than answers and considers progress in terms of the development of analytical skills and experimental habits of mind rather than the mere acquisition of knowledge Projects developed during the New Social Studies serve as both an interesting historical archive of powerful curricular innovations as well as a treasure trove of actual lessons and materials still useful in social studies classrooms striving to become more constructivist The lessons and other materials we chose should be relevant if you are an historian researcher theorist or teacher of any subject but it will be especially significant if you are interested in the nature of social civic or historical literacy in America including how to teach for authentic achievement in those areas
