Paardenkracht En Mensenmacht Sociaal Economische Geschiedenis Van Nederland:

Paardenkracht en mensenmacht Izaak Johannes Brugmans, 1969      An Economic and Social History of the Netherlands, 1800-1920 Michael Wintle, 2000-09-21 An Economic and Social History of the Netherlands 1800 1920 provides a comprehensive account of Dutch history from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century examining population and health the economy and socio political history The Dutch experience in this period is fascinating and instructive the country saw extremely rapid population growth awesome death rates staggering fertility some of the fastest economic growth in the world a uniquely large and efficient service sector a vast and profitable overseas empire characteristic pillarization and relative tolerance Michael Wintle also examines the lives of ordinary people what they ate how much they earned what they thought about public affairs and how they wooed and wed This book will be of central importance to Dutch specialists as well as European historians more generally      Paardenkracht en mensenmacht Isaäc Johannes Brugmans, 1961      Industrial Retardation in the Netherlands 1830-1850 Richard Griffiths, 2013-03-09 Much modern Le post 1750 economic history is concerned with success in that a vast body of literature focuses its attention upon the experience of industrialisation and economic growth or upon relative differences in performance once the growth process is underway The explanations advanced frequently hinge on those supply and demand factors perceptible during the growth period itself which may have helped or hindered economic progress The problem which arises with this approach is whether those forces attributed with having pulled a country forward were the same as those which in their absence had held it back For example the growth of inter national demand may be seen as a major stimulus in the economic development of a particular country but its effectiveness as a stimulant may have been contingent upon the prior removal of quite different obstacles to growth In these circumstances it would be quite wrong to attribute lack of earlier development to the absence of international demand Thus the study of a period preceeding discernible growth in a sector of the economy may tell historians as much about the reasons for subsequent growth as a study of the growth period itself This was my initial reason for choosing to research into the industrial development in the Netherlands in the first half of the nineteenth century that it was an interval in economic history usually interpreted as one of stagnation of missed opportunities and even of economic decline      Emancipation & Poverty: The Ashkenazi Jews of Amsterdam K. Sonnenberg-Stern, 2000-01-27 This book is the first comprehensive study examining the impact of emancipation on the lives of Amsterdam s Jews The enactment of equality in 1796 failed to provide these Jews with similar rights and opportunities as the non Jews two thirds of Amsterdam s Jewish community remained poor for much of the nineteenth century Even though the declaration of emancipation should have provided the Jews with legal and social equality the Dutch authorities continued to retain their perception of the Jews as a separate and different group of predominantly uncultured paupers and never made it their priority to remove all restrictive measures      Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies

Acta Historiae Neerlandicae/Studies on the History of the Netherlands VIII C. Dekker, H. Soly, J. H. van Stuijvenberg, A. Th. van Deursen, M. Müller, E. Witte, P. W. Klein, Alice C. Carter, 2012-12-06 Volume VIII of Acta Historiae Neerlandicae again presents studies on the history of the Low Countries which it is hoped will be of interest to foreign scholars The intention has been to deal with a fairly long period and many differing aspects of the subject So institutional political economic social and cultural history all receive a fair share of attention and together the studies cover a considerable number of centuries It is however striking to note how even this restricted number of studies reflects prevailing viewpoints among today's Low Countries historians Clearly there is considerable stress on economic and social questions Traditional studies such as those of former Belgian historians on medieval history or those of the Dutch on the seventeenth century are now giving way to works that are problem directed Power structures the position of the bourgeoisie reactions of the intelligentsia and theologians to societal problems have now more attraction for scholars than the glories of late medieval wealth in Flanders or Holland's Golden Age Terms such as Guerilla warfare Struggle Depression typify today's critical approach to society in general

The Strictures of Inheritance Jan Luiten van Zanden, Arthur van Riel, 2021-04-13 A major feat of research and synthesis this book presents the first comprehensive history of the Dutch economy in the nineteenth century an important but poorly understood piece of European economic history Based on a detailed reconstruction of extensive economic data the authors account for demise of the Dutch economy's golden age After showing how institutional factors combined to make the Dutch economy a victim of its own success the book traces its subsequent emergence as a modern industrial economy Between 1780 and 1914 the Netherlands went through a double transition Its economy which in the words of Adam Smith was approaching a stationary state in the eighteenth century entered a process of modern economic growth during the middle decades of the nineteenth At the same time the country's sociopolitical structure was undergoing radical transformation as the decentralized polity of the republic gave way to a unitary state As the authors show the dramatic transformation of the Dutch political structure was intertwined with equally radical changes in the institutional structure of the economy The outcome of this dual transition was a rapidly industrializing economy on one side and on the other the neocorporatist sociopolitical structure that would characterize the Netherlands in the twentieth century Analyzing both processes with a focus on institutional change this book argues that the economic and political development of the Netherlands can be understood only in tandem

Paardenkracht en mensenmacht Isaäc Johannes Brugmans, 1961 The Low Countries History Yearbook 1980 H. P. H. Jansen, P. C. M. Hoppenbrouwers, E. Thoen, F. R. J. Knetsch, J. A. Faber, P. J. Middelhoven, E. Witte, J. H. Van Stuijvenberg, C. R. Emery, K. W. Swart, 2012-12-06 Dutch Authors on Asian history M.A.P. Meilink-Roelofs, M.E. Van Opstall, G.J. Schutte, 2025-01-27 Dutch authors on Asian history presents fifteen essays on Dutch expansion and colonization in Asia before 1800 during the period of the Verenigde Oostindische Compagnie VOC This collection offers the opportunity to make acquaintance with the nature and development of colonial historiography as practiced in the Netherlands in the second half of the nineteenth and the first half of the twentieth century Although Dutch historiography on Asia and the VOC underwent considerable change after 1960 especially as a result of decolonization the work of these early historians has not lost its importance For many aspects of the history of Asia and the VOC these studies supply valuable data and lively descriptions that have not been supplanted by modern research They also reflect the development of Dutch historiography and the changing views and interpretations of the Dutch colonial past A major objective in the selection of essays was to shed light on two rather neglected areas VOC activities outside of the Indonesian archipelago and Dutch relations with other European colonial powers An extensive historiographical survey and biographical sketch of each author establish the place of these authors and their work in the Dutch tradition Acta historiae Neerlandica , Routledge Library Editions: Urban History Various Authors, 2021-02-25 The volumes in this set originally published between 1940 and 1994 draw together research by leading academics in the area of welfare and the welfare state and provide a rigorous examination of related key issues The volumes examine welfare policy equality poverty class government social policy unemployment and social services whilst also exploring the general principles and practices of welfare and the welfare state in various countries This set will be of particular interest to students of sociology health and political studies respectively Food, Drink and Identity in Europe , 2016-08-01 Scholars across the humanities and social sciences are increasingly examining the importance of consumption to changing notions of local regional national and supranational identity in Europe As part of this interest anthropologists historians sociologists and others have paid particular attention to the roles which food and drink have played in the construction of local regional and national identity in Europe This volume provides the first multidisciplinary look at the contributions which food and alcohol make to contemporary European identities including the part they play in processes of European integration and Europeanization It provides theoretically informed ethnographic and historical case studies of transformations and continuity in social and cultural patterns in the production and consumption of European foods and drinks in order to explore how eating and drinking have helped to construct various local regional and national identities in Europe Of particular note in this volume is its attention to how food and drink intersect with recent attempts to foster greater European integration in part through the recognition and support of common and diverse European cultures and identities

The Failure of Agrarian Capitalism Niek Koning, 2002-01-04 Agriculture is a highly sensitive industry Throughout their history national governments have intervened in and protected their agricultural sectors The problems of competition in agriculture have been continually illustrated by disagreement over the European Community's Common Agricultural Policy CAP and more recently by attempts to reform farming policy in the last round of the GATT negotiations The Failure of Agrarian Capitalism presents a comparative analysis of in agrarian policies in the UK Germany the Netherlands and the USA from 1846 1919 Revisiting Napoleon's Continental System K. Aaslestad, J. Joor, 2014-10-29 Economic warfare during the Napoleonic era transformed international commerce redirecting trade and generating illicit commerce This volume re evaluates the Continental System through urban and regional case studies that analyze the power triangle of the French British and neutral powers and their strategies to adapt to trade restrictions Acta Historiae Neerlandicae II D. van Arkel, J.W. Schulte Nordholt, 2023-11-27 Patterns of European Urbanisation Since 1500 Henk Schmal, 2018-01-12 Originally published in 1981 Patterns of European Urbanisation Since 1500 examines urbanisation in Europe since 1500 paying particular attention to the underlying factors which govern the differentiated process of urbanisation The book goes on to formulate some of the ways in which these factors can be generalised in an attempt to delineate the process of urbanisation in theoretic terms Challenging the Spirit of Modernity Harry Van Dyke, 2019-10-02 God's word illumines the darkness of society Dutch politician and historian Groen van Prinsterer's Unbelief and Revolution is a foundational work addressing the inherent tension between the church and secular society Writing at the onset of modernity in Western culture Groen saw with amazing clarity the dire implications of abandoning God's created order for human life in society Groen's work served as an inspiration for many contemporary theologians and he had a profound impact on Abraham Kuyper's famous public theology In Challenging the Spirit of Modernity Harry Van Dyke places this seminal work into historical context revealing how this vital contribution still speaks into the fractured relationship between religion and society A deeper understanding of the roots of modern secularism and Groen's strong faithful response to it gives us a better grasp of the same conflict today Historisch Jaarboek voor het Land van Zwentibold - 1991 , 1991-12-01
