Pacific Jewelry And Adornment:

Pacific Jewelry and Adornment Roger Neich, Fuli Pereira, 2004-08-31 This magnificent book showcases more than 250 of the finest examples of traditional jewelry from the Pacific. Myriad designs and materials including jade, whale teeth and bone, shark teeth, tapa, shells and plant fibers are woven together in a skillful combination of color and craftsmanship. Apart from their beauty, these personal items also convey information about power status and community. Their significance, the ceremonies in which they are worn and the messages they convey are explored in an illuminating introductory essay. Drawing on the extensive collections of the Auckland Museum, the jewelry shown here represents a vast geographical area: Micronesia, Papua New Guinea, Vanuatu, Fiji, Samoa, Tonga, Hawaii, Niue, the Marquesas, the Cook Islands and New Zealand. The amazing variety of styles and materials reflects the lifestyles, preoccupations and imperatives of a people surrounded by the largest ocean on the planet.

Pacific Jewellery and Adornment Roger Neich, 2004 The Auckland Museum has extensive collections of the traditional personal ornaments of the peoples of the South Pacific including Melanesia and Micronesia. They display a huge variety of styles and materials used yet all reflect the lifestyles, preoccupations and imperatives of a people surrounded by thousands of square miles of ocean.

The Pacific Arts of Polynesia and Micronesia Adrienne L. Kaeppler, 2008-03-27 The Pacific Ocean covers one third of the earth's surface. Comprising thousands of islands and hundreds of cultural groups, Polynesia and Micronesia cover a large part of this vast ocean from the dramatic mountains of Hawaii to the small flat coral islands of Kiribati. Including both traditional and contemporary arts, this book introduces the rich artistic traditions of these two regions, traditions that have had a considerable impact on western art in the twentieth century through the influence of artists such as Gauguin. Instead of looking at Polynesia and Micronesia separately, the book focuses on the artistic types, styles and concepts that they share, placing each in its wider cultural context. From the textiles of Tonga to the canoes of Tahiti, Adrienne Kaeppler looks at religious and sacred rituals and objects, carving, architecture, tattooing, personal ornaments, basket making, clothing, textiles, fashion, the oral arts, dance, music and musical instruments, even canoe construction to provide the ultimate introduction to the rich and vibrant artistic cultures of the Polynesian and Micronesian islands.

margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 14 0px Verdana As an art form, jewelry is defined primarily through its connection to and interaction with the body: extending it, amplifying it, accentuating it, distorting it, concealing it or transforming it. Addressing six different modes of the body: Adorned, Divine, Regal, Transcendent, Alluring and Resplendent, this artfully designed catalogue illustrates how these various definitions of the body give meaning to the jewelry that adorns and enhances it. Essays on topics spanning a wide range of times and cultures establish how jewelry was used as a symbol of power, status and identity from earflares of warrior heroes in Pre-Columbian Peru to bowknot earrings designed by Yves Saint Laurent. These most intimate works of art provide insight into the wearers but also into the cultures that produced them More than 200 jewels and ornaments alongside paintings and sculptures of bejeweled bodies demonstrate the social political and aesthetic role of jewelry from ancient times to the present Gorgeous new illustrations of Bronze Age spirals Egyptian broad collars Hellenistic gold armbands Japanese courtesan hair adornments jewels from Mughal India and many many more explore the various facets of jewelry and its relationship to the human body over 5 000 years of world history The Greenwood

art and exoticism Exoticism related to art cannot be reduced to primitivism alone and also encompasses a search in one's own unconsciousness among other things The yearning for authenticity through exoticism is explored in a cultural anthropological perspective in the realms of Western philosophy capita selecta and colonial literature currents of art and in the appreciation of Western art conceptions in non Western societies An array of firsthand ethnographic illustrations of art production in Asian and Pacific societies demonstrates complementary processes in the non Western world A major hypothesis is that exoticism is closely related to and often motivated by eroticism a reason why exoticism should be considered as gendered Case studies of the falsification of authentic art the de sacralization of sacred objects and of the use of natural materials deriving from endangered species complete the analysis
