

Pageant Introductions

The introduction at a pageant is an important moment for a contestant. This is the contestant's time to shine and make a lasting impression on the pageant judges.

Prepare a brief introduction, before arriving at the pageant. A good pageant introduction highlights more than your name. Make up a few sentences that state your name, current title, where you are from and at least one other interesting fact about yourself or your state.

Practice saying introduction with good posture. A straight spine and a head held high show that you are confident and prepared. Relax as much as possible and keep your arms hanging at your sides. Do not adjust the microphone.

Speak slowly, clearly and with confidence. This will be simple, if when there is a well-prepared introduction. Enunciate words properly and speak with assertion and authority. Keep a proper distance from the microphone to avoid distracting popping sounds. A good microphone is able to pick up speaking from a couple of inches away.

Smile, while speaking. A gentle smile helps make the contestant approachable to the judges. It also portrays a confident attitude, which is something the judges are looking for in a pageant contestant.

Example 1:

Hailing from the Lone Star State where the stars shine bright, hoping to shine for you...your Mrs. All American Texas Woman, Teresa Mudrow.

Example 2:

From the state that four out of the five Great Lakes prefer. I am your Mrs. All American Michigan Woman, Teresa Mudrow.

*This is NOT a 60 platform speech.
Keep it to about 10 to 15 seconds.

Spiritual Economies Nancy Bradley Warren, 2012-03-15 From its creation in the early fourteenth century to its dissolution in the sixteenth the nunnery at Dartford was among the richest in England Although obliged to support not only its own community but also a priory of Dominican friars at King s Langley Dartford prospered Records attest to the business skill of the Dartford nuns as they managed the house s numerous holdings of land and property together with the rents and services owed them That the Dartford nuns were capable businesswomen is not surprising since the house was also a center of female education For Nancy Bradley Warren the story of Dartford exemplifies the vibrancy of nuns material and spiritual lives in later medieval England Revising the long held view that fourteenth and fifteenth century English nunneries were impoverished both financially and religiously Warren clarifies that the women in female monastic communities like Dartford were not woefully incompetent at managing their affairs Instead she reveals the complex role of female monasticism in diverse systems of production and exchange Like the nuns at Dartford women religious in late medieval England were enmeshed in material symbolic political and spiritual economies that were at times in harmony and at other times in conflict with each other Building on emerging cross disciplinary trends in feminist scholarship on medieval religion Warren extends ongoing debates about textual and economic constructions of women s identities to the rarely considered evidence of monastic theory and practice To this end Spiritual Economies emphasizes that the cloister was not impermeable As worldly forces such as economic trends and political conflicts affected life in the nunneries so too did religious practices have political impact In breaking down the convent wall Warren also succeeds in breaching the boundaries separating the material and the symbolic the religious and the secular the literary and the historical She turns to a wide range of sources from legislative texts court records and financial accounts to devotional treatises and political propaganda to explore the centrality of female monasticism to the flowering of female spirituality and to the later Middle Ages at large
