How to Build a Mind Igor Aleksander, 2001 Igor Aleksander heads a major British team that has applied engineering principles to the understanding of the human brain and has built several pioneering machines culminating in MAGNUS which he calls a machine with imagination When he asks it in words to produce an image of a banana that is blue with red spots the image appears on the screen in seconds The idea of such an apparently imaginative even conscious machine seems heretical and its advocates are often accused of sensationalism arrogance or philosophical ignorance Part of the problem according to Aleksander is that consciousness remains ill defined Interweaving anecdotes from his own life and research with imagined dialogues between historical figures including Descartes Locke Hume Kant Wittgenstein Francis Crick and Steven Pinker Aleksander leads readers toward an understanding of consciousness He shows not only how the latest work with artificial neural systems suggests that an artificial form of consciousness is possible but also that its design would clarify many of the puzzles surrounding the murky concept of consciousness itself How to Build a Mind also examines the presentation of self in robots the learning of language and the nature of emotion will instinct and feelings Stop the Brain Jimmy

Worth Living Joel Michael Reynolds, 2022-05-17 A philosophical challenge to the ableist conflation of disability and pain More than 2 000 years ago Aristotle said let there be a law that no deformed child shall live This idea is alive and well today During the past century Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr argued that the United States can forcibly sterilize intellectually disabled women and philosopher Peter Singer argued for the right of parents to euthanize certain cognitively disabled infants The Life Worth Living explores how and why such arguments persist by investigating the exclusion of and discrimination against disabled people across the history of Western moral philosophy Joel Michael Reynolds argues that this history demonstrates a fundamental mischaracterization of the meaning of disability thanks to the conflation of lived experiences of disability with those of pain and suffering Building on decades of activism and scholarship in the field Reynolds shows how longstanding views of disability are misguided and unjust and he lays out a vision of what an anti ableist moral future requires The Life Worth Living is the first sustained examination of disability through the lens of the history of moral philosophy and phenomenology and it demonstrates how lived experiences of disability demand a far richer account of human flourishing embodiment community and politics in philosophical inquiry and beyond Accessibility features Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions

Electric Pria Anand,2025-06-10 Named a Best Book of Summer 2025 by The Globe and Mail Toronto Publishers Weekly and Book Riot The Observer London s Summer Reads Select In this collection of medical tales reminiscent of Oliver Sacks the best of medical writing Abraham Verghese author of The Covenant of Water a neurologist reckons with the stories we tell about our brains and the stories our brains tell us A girl believes she has been struck blind for stealing a kiss A mother watches helplessly as each of her children is replaced by a changeling A woman is haunted each month by the same four chords of a single song In neurology illness is inextricably linked with narrative the clues to unraveling these mysteries hidden in both the details of a patient s story and the tells of their body Stories are etched into the very structure of our brains coded so deeply that the impulse for storytelling survives and even surges after the most devastating injuries But our brains are also porous the stories they concoct shaped by cultural narratives about bodies and illness that permeate the minds of doctors and patients alike In the history of medicine some stories are heard while others the narratives of women of Black and brown people of displaced people of disempowered people are too often dismissed In The Mind Electric neurologist Pria Anand reveals through case study history fable and memoir all that the medical establishment has overlooked the complexity and wonder of brains in health and in extremis and the vast gray area between sanity and insanity doctor and patient and illness and wellness each separated from the next by the thin veneer of a different story Moving from the Boston hospital where she treats her patients to her childhood years in India to Isla Providencia in the Caribbean and to the Republic of Guinea in West Africa she demonstrates again and again the compelling paradox at the heart of neurology that even the most peculiar symptoms can show us something universal about ourselves as humans

Kohut's Self Psychology for a Fractured World John Hanwell Riker, 2024-05-20 Drawing from Kohut's conceptualisation of self Riker sets out how contemporary America's formulation of persons as autonomous self sufficient individuals is deeply injurious to the development of a vitalizing self structure a condition which lies behind much of the mental illness and social malaise of today's world By carefully attending to Kohut's texts Riker explains the structural functional and dynamic dimensions of Kohut's concept of the self He creatively extends this concept to show how the self can be conceived of as an erotic striving for connectedness beauty and harmony separate from the ego Riker uses this distinction to reveal how social practices of contemporary American society foster skills and traits to advance the aims of the ego for power and control but tend to suppress the needs of the self to authentically express its ideals and connect with others The book explores the impact that this view can have on clinical practice and concludes by imaginatively constructing an ideal self psychological society using Plato s Republic as a touchstone Informed by self psychology and philosophy this book is essential reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and philosophers seeking to revisit and revise constructions of both self and humanity My Inner GPS - A Road Map to Manifesting a Meaningful Life Mathilde Benmoha Carro,2018-06-12

Posthumanism, Cyberculture and Science Fiction Elsa Bouet,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 This volume investigates the future of empathy as contemplated by posthumanism cyberculture and science fiction As humanity increasingly networks and communicates online the reconfiguration of human communities through the removal and immediacy of the body challenges traditional notions of humanity and human capacity for empathy The impact of cyberculture and posthumanism on humanity and its capacity for empathy is here assessed through research in literature films neuroscience anthropology and philosophy This volume addresses the centrality of the body to human interactions and assesses how intrinsic it is to the defining of the human The exploration of posthuman narratives which display futuristic bodily modifications also engages with the anxieties and hopes for the future of human empathy Research in dystopian narratives shows that these anxieties are also expressed without the tropes of bodily modifications and that ideological distancing creates the conditions necessary for a lack of empathy towards otherness A Complete

Concordance to Science and Health Albert Francis Conant,1909 God and Science Linda Gauthier,2020-10 There is a cosmic energy that is all creative in the universe We are using this energy everyday whether we know it or not Linda reveals the ways God and science use energy What was once seen as metaphysical is now being proven in laboratories on a subatomic level Most of us are operating on auto pilot and reacting to every circumstance that comes into our life We are miss using our energy to support our fears and limitations We keep repeating the same painful and destructive patterns Using positive thinking and affirmations isn t working We think we need more will power and we blame ourselves The reason that this isn t making lasting changes in our life is because we are using the wrong part of our mind What we discover is that it is our beliefs that are controlling our life Our beliefs are buried in our subconscious mind Until now we have been unaware of what was hidden there Using PSYCH K we can bring our traumas and limiting beliefs to light When we see what has been holding us back and making us sick we are able to replace those beliefs with new beliefs that create health wealth and joy

When we harness this energy we can live in peace love and joy We can rise to our highest vibration We are all connected to and interdependent upon each other When you raise your vibration you raise the vibration of the world We are in a time when we can accelerate our human potential beyond anything we have ever imagined
