Painting The Middle East Contemporary Issues In The Middle East:

Painting the Middle East Ann Zwicker Kerr, 2002-11-01 We each paint our lives and frame our experiences of the world in a distinctive way for reasons that we cannot always understand writes Ann Kerr in her book The watercolors that fill its pages are an expression of the author's affection and fascination for the Middle East painted during her many sojourns there starting in the mid fifties and continuing to the present time The paintings are unashamedly romantic and reveal nothing of the turmoil going on in the region during the last half century that has brought personal tragedy to so many including the author and her family They are almost the antithesis of such events The paintings represent hours snatched away from the business of everyday life periods of time spent in nature amidst the sun washed relics of the past where evidence of old cruelties and folly have faded away or been covered with sand and weeds The eighty nine watercolors and photographs are woven together with a brief narrative that brings the context in which they were painted or photographed to the reader The book is divided into the four areas where the author painted Lebanon North Africa Egypt and the Holy Land

Contemporary Art from the Middle East Hamid Keshmirshekan, 2015-02-06 How is home grown contemporary art viewed within the Middle East And is it understood differently outside the region What is liable to be lost when contemporary art from the Middle East is transferred to international contexts and how can it be reclaimed This timely book tackles ongoing questions about how local perspectives on contemporary art from the Middle East are defined and how these perspectives intersect with global art discourses Inside leading figures from the Middle Eastern art world western art historians art theorists and museum curators discuss the historical and cultural circumstances which have shaped contemporary art from the Middle East reflecting on recent exhibitions and curatorial projects and revealing how artists have struggled with the label of Middle Eastern Artist Chapters reflect on the fundamental methodologies of art history and cultural studies considering how relevant they are when studying contemporary art from the Middle East and investigate the ways in which contemporary so called global theories impact on the making of art in the region Drawing on their unique expertise the book's contributors offer completely new perspectives on the most recent cultural intellectual and socio political developments of contemporary art from the Middle East

Art of the Middle East Saeb Eigner, 2010 Artistic expression in the Middle East is experiencing something of a renaissance Domestic patronage is flourishing and an impressive array of new museums and art fairs across the region is helping to stimulate international interest in an increasingly influential movement Art of the Middle East is an accessible overview of modern and contemporary art of the Middle East and Arab world from 1945 to the present with an emphasis on artists active today The featured works are divided into seven themed sections including literature portraiture and the body and politics conflict and war while extended captions provide an engaging commentary on each artwork and the artist behind its creation Lavishly illustrated throughout this landmark publication is an authoritative guide to a challenging and exciting body of work

Modernism and the Middle East Sandy Isenstadt, Kishwar

Rizvi,2011-03-01 This provocative collection of essays is the first book length treatment of the development of modern architecture in the Middle East Ranging from Jerusalem at the turn of the twentieth century to Libya under Italian colonial rule postwar Turkey and on to present day Iraq the essays cohere around the historical encounter between the politics of nation building and architectural modernism s new materials methods and motives Architecture as physical infrastructure and as symbolic expression provides an exceptional window onto the powerful forces that shaped the modern Middle East and that continue to dominate it today Experts in this volume demonstrate the political dimensions of both creating the built environment and subsequently inhabiting it In revealing the tensions between achieving both international relevance and regional meaning Modernism in the Middle East affords a dynamic view of the ongoing confrontations of deep traditions with rapid modernization Political and cultural historians as well as architects and urban planners will find fresh material here on a range of diverse practices

The Kurdish National Movement Wadie Jwaideh,2006-06-19 A seminal work in the field of Kurdish studies Wadie Jwaideh s pioneering research published for the first time presents a detailed analysis of the early phases of Kurdish nationalism and offers a framework within which to understand the movement s later development Following Wadie Jwaideh s dissertation defense his doctoral chairman took aside Jwaideh s wife Alice and asked her to submit the work for publication without Wadie s permission believing that Wadie s penchant for perfection would postpone its publication indefinitely The thesis was never published during Jwaideh s lifetime but its fame spread by word of mouth and many scholars have recognized its importance not only as a study of the earlier periods of Kurdish nationalism but also as a model for understanding its subsequent history The work now stands as a classic referenced by some of the most renowned scholars in the field Its publication will permit it to reach a greater audience and to contribute more fully to the understanding and appreciation of this geopolitical and cultural movement Jwaideh was born in the southern Iraqi city of Basra into an Arabic speaking Christian family that later moved to Baghdad His intimate knowledge of the land and its people gave Jwaideh shrewd insight into Kurdish society and politics Exploring the rich historical roots of the Kurdish national movement he challenges the established view of the early Kurdish uprisings as isolated incidents triggered by economic hardship or political dissatisfaction Instead he offers a new interpretation of the Kurds nationalist position convincingly demonstrating the age and depth of their grievances This complex and layered history of the Kurdish nationalist movement offers a valuable perspective from which to view the current conditions in Iraq Jwaideh s sensitive and prescient treatment of this region gives his study great contemporary relevance

In the Wake of the Poetic Najat Rahman,2015-09-28 Heralding a new period of creativity In the Wake of the Poetic explores the aesthetics and politics of Palestinian cultural expression in the last two decades As it increasingly gains a significant presence on the international scene much of Palestinian art owes a debt to Mahmoud Darwish one of the finest contemporary poets and to Palestinian writers of his generation Rahman maps the immense influence of Darwish s poetry on a new generation of performance artists visual artists spoken word poets and musicians Through an examination of selected works by key artists such as Suheir Hammad Ghassan Zaqtan Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum Sharif Waked and others Rahman articulates an aesthetic founded on loss dispersion dispossession and transformation It interrupts dominant regimes constituting acts of dissension and intervention It reinscribes belonging and is oriented toward solidarity and future This innovative wave of experimentation transforms our understanding of the national through the diasporic and the transnational and offers a profound meditation on identity Reconstructing Rural Egypt

Amy J. Johnson,2004-01-01 Johnson s book provides the rich and untold story of the architect behind Egypt s inspired and highly successful social reform policies The Rural Social Centers of the German educated Ahmed Hussein were the cornerstones of his project initiatives and these centers integrated social services through complete community participation His programs flourished and were used as models for rural development projects worldwide After the 1952 revolution Hussein s influence waned and he refused to participate in Gamal Abd el Nasir s development schemes Abd el Nasr s eventual obliteration of Hussein s reform projects led to Hussein s resignation Although he never again became involved in public life Hussein created a school of thought in Egypt that endures today Johnson chronicles current efforts of several organizations to revive Hussein s methods and reform agenda Theories and Documents of Contemporary Art Kristine field and establishing concrete forms of cooperation. These initiatives also testify to his continuous and untiring work dedicated to putting people into contact and opening up communication between them, collecting and disseminating information, knowledge and resources and creating shareable basic infrastructures needed for progress in our field. Our collaboration began within the Linguistics in Documentation group of the FID and continued in the framework of the CCL International Committee for Computational Linguistics. In 1982 this collaboration was strengthened when at CO LING in Prague I was invited by Don to join him in the organization of a series of workshops with participants of the various communities interested in the study, development and use of computational lexica.

Visual Culture in the Modern Middle East Christiane Gruber, Sune Haugbolle, 2013-07-17. A collection of essays examining the role and power of images from a wide variety of media in today's Middle Eastern societies. This timely book examines the power and role of the image in modern Middle Eastern societies. The essays explore the role and function of image making to highlight the ways in which the images speak and what visual languages mean for the construction of Islamic subjectivities, the distribution of power and the formation of identity and belonging. Visual Culture in the Modern Middle East addresses aspects of the visual in the Islamic world including the presentation of Islam on television, on the internet and other digital media in banners, posters, murals and graffiti and in the satirical press, cartoons and children's books. This volume takes a new approach to the subject and will be an important contribution to our knowledge in this area. It is comprehensive and well structured with fascinating material and analysis.
